Truffle egg toast is a standout item in the Grove to Forest. | Photo James Taylor Grove on Forest's Laguna Beach latest coffee shop offers up brews from Equator Coffee & Teas, a sustainable fair-trade coffee company with several organic options. The café is owned by Kara and James Taylor, each with a special connection to Laguna. Kara is a graduate of both Laguna Beach High School and Laguna College of Art & Design, while James previously worked as a chef at Cafe Zool, a longtime local restaurant that closed last spring. The couple spent several years in San Francisco and Venice Beach, but their new venture downtown Laguna fulfilled a lifelong dream for the couple. The Grove's menu includes plenty of coffee dishes such as au laits café, iced loaths and macchiatos. The café also serves breakfast and lunch, with exceptional items such as truffle toast and Panini When Ruby Met Harvi. Laguna Beach is well known for its independent spirit. It is noticeable everywhere - in our art scene, in our architectural styles, and yes, even in our cafes. If you're used to standard franchise coffee, your taste buds are for treat. There are so many local cafes in Laguna Beach that serve up stellar cups of joe. Here's an overview of some of our favorites. LAGUNA COFFEE COMPANYThe laguna coffee company has been a local favorite for years. This is partly because they have their own coffee roaster of their own, and partly because they treat everyone like family. Order a hot or iced cup of your favorite beer or take home a bag of freshly baked beans. They also serve food and pastries and host live music on weekends. KOFFEE KLATCH If you would like a cozy environment with a cup of coffee, Koffee Klatch is the place. Sit on one of the comfy couches and drink a drink. They also have a lunch menu, smoothies and desserts. They welcome dogs on the outdoor terrace, so stop for a break for a walk. GROVE on FORESTFair Trade and Organic coffees are the name of the game in The Grove on Forest. Located in the historic Lumberyard Mall, this is another great place to enjoy with your dog as they have a terrace suitable for pets. Nosh for some fresh baked breads and pastries or treat yourself to a gourmet breakfast or lunch. Menu items change seasonally. Orange INNTouted as the Best Coffee in town, the Orange Inn has been in business since 1931. Known for its California Date Shake, it was also voted one of the 10 Best Road Restaurants in the US by Esquire Magazine. Enjoy delicious salads and sandwiches, breakfast burritos, fresh pastries and their famous Orange Inn Smoothie.ZINC CAFÉO another great place to get a delicious cup of coffee, The Zinc Café. The restaurant opened in 1988 and has expanded to other locations throughout Southern California. Inspired by the slow food launched by Alice Waters, Zinc Café also offers great breakfasts and has a shop full of wonderful specialty products. ANASTASIA CAFÉAnastasia Café has been serving breakfast and lunch in Laguna Beach for more than 20 years. They specialize in Californian/French cuisine and brew a large cup of coffee. When you're done drinking, shop for branded goods at a neighboring boutique. HARMONY TEA BAR If coffee just isn't your thing (or you're looking for something a little different), then go to harmony tea bar. This great shop believes there is tea out there for everyone - even the biggest coffee addicts. They use natural and organic ingredients that were from local sources, and love introducing the community into the world of tea.
