Balkon's weapon mod 1.16

Spear a spear to hunt a cow! It does less damage than a sword and has a small recoil. You also hit mobs a little further. You throw them too! The spear will not disappear after hitting a crowd, and treats the same damage as when you stick with it. You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Halberd A halberd to punch a creeper in the face! It does as much damage as a sword and has a big recoil. You also hit mobs a little further. Right-click to switch from slashing to stabbing mode! Does more damage, but has a smaller recoil. You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Knife A knife to stab a spider! It does less damage than a sword and has half the durability, but is made with very few resources and can be manufactured without a workbench. The recoil is small. You can easily break cobwebs with it. Like the spear, you throw them too! You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Battle axe A hatchet to shave a sheep with style! Does as much damage as a sword, but a small amount ignores armor. Has a larger recoil and does more damage to wooden blocks. You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Warhammer A warhammer to squeeze a slime! Has so much damage and has the same recoil as the halberd, but does huge damage to blocks depending on the weapon material. Hold down the right mouse button to charge a superground smash, or whatever you want to call it! If you hold it long enough and then let it go, you smash the ground so hard that all the gangs around you get hurt. You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Golden weapons all do a little more knockback. Flail A flail to wave to pig men! Right-click to throw it. The ball will follow you wherever you go, clicking right it will swing again. Each swing reduces the durability of the item, so swing carefully. You make one with wood, stone, iron, diamond and gold. This is the crafting recipe: Author: Balcony Door ✓ May 4, 2017 ✓ 981,859 viewed Balcony's Weapon Mod 1.7.10 adds many new weapons to Minecraft that lets you break, shoot and kill your enemies in new and more exciting ways. Balcony's Weapon Mod will help you get those great weapons and more relaxing gaming moments. What am I learning? Balcony's Weapon Mod is a mod game created on March 3, 2014 by Balcony DoorAlpha. That's a very engaging game mod that adds a variety of fascinating weapons to the game. This Minecraft Mod version is completely free, and it gives players a diverse arsenal of weapons, including a variety of melee weapons and long-range weapons. They are suitable for quite a few battle modes in the original Minecraft. Get ready to immerse yourself in a new battlefield, where you'll stab, slash, hit, actively attack, throw, shoot and blow everything up. Balcony's Weapon Mod unique features and experiences Based on the excellent features, such as the strengths and weaknesses of each weapon in this mod game, you have the ability to choose for yourself a weapon that is flexibly suited to each character, every battle and different combat strategies. On the other hand, the player can also throw spears, knives and javelin throws. Blunt weapons are the Warhammer and the clapper. Shotguns are similar to hammers, but are superior in destroying blocks and structures. Meanwhile, sniper rifles can operate and aim in a wide range with high speed and high accuracy. The Mod also adds dynamite to the game. The player can throw at enemies and damage targets, including mobs. Another unique weapon is the fire stick, a flaming rod that does little damage but can make anything it set on fire. The last thing this Mod adds is a dummy trainer, who can test the effects of weapons you make and see which one you like best. In short, the weapons that Balcony's Weapon Mod offers to players are varied and useful. That's worthy of a Minecraft game mod that you should try for a more creative and enjoyable gaming experience.
