Minot, pronounced my-not, is often associated with Minot Air Force Base, which is about 15 miles north of the city. The base attracts numerous service members and their families, contributing a welcoming atmosphere to the community. The city is also home to Minot State University, infusing youthful energy with a well-preserved past. The city honors its heritage in its historic downtown neighborhood, which touts a number of independent shops, restaurants, cafes, bars, and entertainment venues in picturesque brick buildings lined up along Main Street. Additional shops and restaurants abound at Dakota Square Mall in the southern region of the city. Renting an apartment in Minot puts residents close to countless entertainment options. The community has access to Roosevelt Park Zoo, Nodak Speedway, and Souris Valley Golf Course Pro. A wide variety of rentals are scattered throughout the city, really offering something for everyone. Traveling to and from the city is a breeze with access to U.S. Highways 2, 52, and 83 and Minot International Airport. As of December 2020, the average rent of the apartment in Minot, ND is $405 for a studio, $796 for one bedroom, $886 for two bedrooms, and $1,345 for three bedrooms.
