Before you learn the time, you need to know the cardinal numbers in English and ask the time questions you need to know how to ask questions with what. The cardinal numbers in English are: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten ... For the case of time, the question with what (what) is: What time is it? (What time is it?) You also ask the time by saying: Do you know what time it is? (Do you know what time it is?) Below is a series of so you learn to say the time in English: Gisela Casuso When we say that time in Spanish we always say it is the before we say what time it is. For example: The English translation of are weld is it (pronoun is the + verb) and serves exactly the same purpose, so we will place it for the hour. For example: It's five o'clock. (It's five o'clock) Structure: It's + time : It's 1:00 a.m., it's 2:00 a.m., it's 3:00 a.m. ... Gisela Casuso During the first half hour of each hour we will use the past preposition to indicate the passage of time. Structure: It's + number of minutes + past + time For example: 9:10 : it's ten past nine 2:03: it's three past 211:29: it's twenty-nine about 11:05: it's five past twelve Gisela Casuso During the second half hour of each hour we'll use the prespeed to indicate how much is missing for the next hour. Structure: It's + minutes + to + the next time For example: 3:50: It's ten to four 2:35: It's twenty-five to three 11:42: It's eighteen to twelve10:40: it's twenty to eleven As you could see the next time is used to say the current time, just like we do in Spanish. In Spanish if it's 3:50, we say ten to four in English, it's ten for four. © Gisela Casuso We say we need to talk about it in an hour. Structure: It's + hour + hour For example: 3:00: It's three o'clock 7:00: It's seven o'clock11:00: It's eleven o'clock12:00: It's twelve o'clock Gisela Casuso Quarter over means they're fourth and is only used when the clock marks the first fifteen minutes within the first half hour. Structure: It's + quarter over + hour For example: 3:15: It's quarter past three 7:15: It's quarter past 74:15: It's quarter past + hour For example: 3:15 pm: It's quarter past 3:15 pm: It's 15:15 pm to say they're fifteen in front and only used when the clock marks and forty-five within the second half hour. The next hour has to be said. Structure: It's + quarter to + next hour For example: 3:45: It's quarter to four 7:45 : It's quarter to eight11:45: It's quarter to twelve: It's quarter to ten In Spanish, for example, 3:45 is said fifteen to four, or a quarter to four, in English it's quarter to four. Gisela Casuso Half past means she and a half. Structure: It is + half + hour For example: 3:30: It is half past three 9:30: It is half past nine11:30: It is half eleven 2:30: It is half two In Spanish, for example, 3:30 is said three-thirty. Gisela Casuso We've already seen the traditional way of saying that time, once dominated is easy, but maybe not as much as saying the time as we see it. To say in Spanish (3.45) instead of saying fifteen for four or four minus fifteen it is quite right to say the three forty-five. In English too, so to speak (3.45) instead of saying It's quarter to four we can say: It's three forty-five. Structure: It's + hour + minutes For example: 3:30: It's three thirty9:15: It's nine fifteen11:14: It's eleven fourteen1:17: It's a seventeen clock. 171 x 128 Photo by Ramasamy Chidambaram (stock.xchng) It is very important to be able to ask questions in the context of that time. The most common, besides asking the time itself, use when besides what, and the prepositions on and in also: When are we meeting? (What time are we going to meet?) We meet at 3:00 p.m.m.m. (When are you ready?) I'll be ready in 5 minutes Mitchell Funk/Getty Images When we write the time in English we should remember to point out whether it's morning or afternoon if it lends itself to confusion; this is done by adding one.m. or p.m. at the end. For example: The meeting is at 7 p.m.m. (meeting is at 19:00.m.) I'll pick you up at 6:00 (I'll pick you up at 6:00.m.) Other key terms include noon and midnight, midnight and noon respectively: It's midnight (12 midnight)It's 10 after noon (12:10 pm)
