Clear your mind and allow it to start on completely through scratch. You've never seen or heard of a pogo stick before. No more memories of pogo stick to winter ritors that only spiked a few inches of ground and broken in a month. Take a look at photos of Dalton Smith jumping on a van on his pogo stick and allow this fermentation to a bit. We will refresh what the word "pogo stick" means with images like that. Our V4 completely changed the game and opens up new possibility that was never possible or even thought about a pogo stick before. It's still technically called a pogo stick, but comparing the V4 to a traditional pogo stick is like comparing a tricycle to a mountain bike. We've been at this for ten years now, and we've come a long way. But compared to the greatest extreme sports out there—such as snowboarding, skateboarding, and surfing—we're still in our childhood. The tricks that have been causing duty are a drop in the bucket compared to what the future will look like. Every year that goes by bringing newer, more creative and crazier tricks. It wasn't too long ago that a stickflip won the best trick competition, and now the stickflips are thrown in between even more difficult tricks just to keep a combo going. We'll always be shocked by the things we see the Xpogo and Vurgto riders team do. We can't wait to let you take the future holders. We have completely awash with sales this holiday season and are unfortunately out of stock of many items so that you could get yours today. We have limited quantities left. We have a lot of people who want everything the V4 has and want to add a tooth. The design is based on the idea of a portable trampoline. The best rider in the world can jump 100 feet into the air on it. The more you pumped into the V4 Pogo Stick, the stiff ritual is coming. Certified spring lets you jump over a traditional pogo stick – higher. Whether you're looking to do tricks, jump on stuff, or go as high as possible – the V4 Pro extreme pogo stick is your best. The V4 Pro pogo stick is designed for herosman who weighs 75 pounds or more. For lighter rider, please read more here before buying. If you still have questions, shoot us an email and we'll help out. Our pogo sticks come fully assembled and ready to jump on. All you need is a pump to add air. International orders may be subject to import duties / taxes.
