They just have the same sounds and the spelling rule tells us what to say when we hear/k/sound for a short vowel. Be sure to learn the vocabulary of these words. The CK rule also applies to dge and tch trigraphs. Print these free phonics sheets two-up for older kids as they can write smaller, and they get a job looking smaller. For example, the word back + ed would be supported, which is said as one syllable. The short vowel vowel E is silent and only the sound of the consonant /d/ is pronounced. back + ing = backingblack + est = blackestcrack + er = crackerlack + ing = lackingpack + er = packingquack + ing = quackingsack + er = sackersnack + ing = snackingstack + ing = stackingtack + ing = tackingtrack + er = tracker 4.B.
