No, we will no longer be able to translate Skam France. Anonymous Are you still going to update season 3 episodes (9 and 10) on your google drive? Hi! We intend to do it . We want to translate the last episodes of s3 and s4 along with this. We, eventually. But we can't tell you. One of us still has health problems. Nothing to worry about, but until they heal, they don't really have time and energy to translate. (Don't worry though, he's okay. Just tired extra.) And one of us has laptop problems. Until he gets back to his laptop, subbang will be too difficult. We know we're like THE MIA, and we're sorry about it, it was not planned at all. Life got in the way and we had to take a bit of a break but we'll be back someday. We just don't know when.
