Breakfast at Tiffany's Book Since this is a blog book, naturally, I'm going to first recommend that you carry a breakfast to Tiffany's book with holly golightly Halloween costume. It's one of my favorite books of all time and one of my favorite audio books of all time. It's also very short, so if you haven't read it yet, what are you waiting for?! I recommend the Audible version of breakfast at Tiffany read by Michael C. Hall (from Dexter). It's fascinating and unforgettable. Read my full review of Breakfast at Tiffany's with book pairs here. Tuxedo Shirt Next, you'll need a tuxedo shirt for the main piece of the suit. I found several great different price options on Amazon. I also added a J.Crew nightshirt to the list, if you prefer to buy something you can wear again. I also link below a pair of nude compression shorts to wear underneath, so you don't have an Oops! Time! Sleep Mask/Tassel Earplugs Apart from a tuxedo shirt, a Tiffany blue sleep mask and earplugs tassels are quintessence parts of Holly Golightly Halloween costume. I found several options on Amazon, as well as some earrings where you prefer to wear those instead of earplugs. Slippers You can play around with what kind of slippers to wear with your costume. I found more affordable options on Amazon. I also linked below a few recommended pairs of Birdies (sophisticated slipper shoes). I have several pairs of birdies, including those with large pom on them (I wore them while preparing for my wedding!), and I find them to be very comfortable both indoors and outdoors, but I definitely recommend the size in your birdies.
