You can help Wikipedia by expanding it.vte Retrieved from Over the last ten years, changes in Malayalam's content, narrative, and cinema characters gave it a facelift, refreshing an industry that is now probably the best in India if one goes with themes, care, and characterization. Here is a list of 25 memorable films of the decade, from 2010 to 2019. Instead of just going with critically acclaimed films or box-office hits, that effort has reached zero in films that become trendsetters or introduce new narratives in Mollywood.20101. Pranchiyettan and Saint starring Mammooty Ranjith, a satire, remain popular watches even today. Among the notable releases that year were Sufi Paranja Katha, Kutty Srank and Elsamma Enna Aankutty. 20112. Rajesh Pilla's gripping traffic, written by brothers Bobby and Sanjay, comes as an arm shot for the Malayalam film industry. With an ensemble cast and layered story set in contemporary Kerala, Traffic follows an ambulance travelling from Kochi to Palakkad with a heart for a transplant. Front-runner If Santhosh sivan Urumi's extravaganza pushes the envelope in storytelling, Salt N' Pepper Aashiq Abu makes food a hot seller in theaters. Madhav Ramdasan tauly makes Melvilasam, with Suresh Gopi and Parthiban, expose the ugly aspects of caste in the armed forces. 20123. This year's film should be 22 Aashiq Abu's woman, with Rima Kallingal in the lead role of a rape survivor who takes revenge on her tormentor. The 2012 front-runner marked the arrival of Anjali Menon as (Manjadikuru) and screenwriter (Ustad Hotel). Madhupal's Ozhimuri and Ranjith Shankar's Molly Aunty Rocks introduce two memorable heroines who break the mould of conventional leading ladies at Mollywood. Lal Jose's Ayalam Njanum Thamml, starring Prithvira, wooed viewers and critics.20134. Mohanlal's Drishyam, directed by Jeethu Joseph, was re-created in several languages and this slick thriller set a new box-office record for Malayalam cinema.5. The year started well with cinematographer Rajeev Ravi's debut as director, Anrayum Rasoolum. Anna and Rasool fall in love and their tragic love story draws hearts as they try to overcome religious and class barriers. Rosshan Andrews bounces back with the hard-hitting Mumbai Police, one of the first films in Malayalam to tackle homosexuality.7. Lijo Jose Pellissery tasted box-office success with his lyrical fantasy, Amin, starring Fahadh Faasil at the helm. Front-runners Joy Mathew and Alphonse Puthren also came good with their director debut with Shutter and Neram respectively, while Artist Shyamaprasad swept the awards. Dulquer Salmaan in Neelakasham Pachakadal Chuvanna Bhoomi opens up new horizons for wannabe tourists. 20148. Rom-com's vibrant Bangalore Days, directed by Anjali Menon, heralds a new era at Mollywood. Nazriya Nazim became the lover of Malayalam movie viewers. 9. Amidst his many hit films, superstar Mammooty proves why he is a class apart with his unforgettable performance as an enigmatic prisoner with a mysterious past in Munnariyippu Venu.Front-runner Manju Warrier marks his comeback to cinema with How Old Are You? While Nivin Pauly showed off his acting pieces in 1983 and Ohm Shanthi Oshaana, Fahadh showed that he was comfortable in an action thriller as well with Amal Neerad's Iyobinte Pusthakam. 201510. Premam Alphonse Puthran conquered the box office, changing fashion trends, introducing new narratives and songwriting. 11. Sanal Kumar Sasidharan's dark Oru Ozhivudivasathe Kali about caste politics reveals the atrocities that lurk beneath the bonhomie between the four men. Front-runner Ennu Ninte Moideen, a poignant love story based on a real-life romance, directed by RS Vimal, won gold in the marquee. Rani Padmini, Charlie, Salim Ahamed's heart-rending Pathemari and Dr. Biju's Perariyathavar are other notable releases this year. 201612. A revenge saga mollywood has never seen before to viewers and critics with its simplicity. Maheshinte Prathikaram starring Fahadh, written by Sham Pushkaran and supported by an unusually talented cast of actors, is the toast of flimdom.13. Kammatipaadam, a gripless narrative, explores the lives of those marginalized by Kochi's relentless urbanization and exposes the underbelly of real estate transactions. Estate. Runners Sameer Thahir's Kali is a relationship drama centered on dulquer Siddarth's character's inability to control his anger. Vidhu Vincent entered the record books with her debut film, Manhole, when she became the first female director to win the Kerala State film award for best director.201714. Thondimuthalum Driksakshyum, written by Sajeev Pazhoor, proves that Dileesh's success as a director is not a flash in the pan. A sparkling performance by Nimisha Sajayan announces his arrival as an actor. 15. Lijo's Angamaly Diaries is an upcoming turf war movie as much as it does about the food that makes you want, well, pork fries and curry on the screen.16. Mahesh Narayanan's takeoff, based on a real-life incident when Indian nurses were evacuated from battle-torn Tikrit in Iraq, is an eloquent demonstration of how far Mollywood has come in scripting and visualizing a story.17. A bittersweet love story with Tovino Thomas and Aishwarya Lekshmi, Mayaanadhi Aashiq Abu becomes a much-discussed and watched film for her way of overcoming sexuality, love, and ambition. Front-runner Soubin Shahir directs with Parava while Godha Basil Joseph packs a punch with her story of a female wrestler. Ranjan Pramod's Rakshadhinikari Baiju Oppu with Biju Menon, is a small film with a big message talking about a vanished playground in Kerala. 201818. Sudani from Nigeria, written and directed by Zakariya Mohammed, is a heartwarming film about football and friendship, paean to Malabar. The realistic depiction of the person and the place makes it a classic film for all time.19. Ee. Ma. Yau, is all about death and death. Handled with a light touch, Lijo manages to show the big picture with a story set in a small village. A son struggles to give his father the funeral he always wanted but when things don't go as his son planned, he takes things into his own hands. Front Runner Film Editor B Ajithkumar made his debut as co-director with Eeda. The film about the politics of letting blood in Kannur relies on romance between two young people from families on opposite sides of a political divide. Ranjith Shankar Njan Markykuti's sensitivity with Jayasurya acting as a transperson became a talking point.201920. Unda, led by Khalid Rahman, had a Mammooty bang on target as a middle-aged Manikandan C P policeman who was sent on electoral duty to Bastar in CHhattisgarh. Without melodrama, the director opens a sensitive story laced with humor about the contradictions and setbacks that the police team must face.21. A water meant for slaughter escaped and raged with the whole village close to its heels. Jalikattu, a masterpiece of Lijo, is an adrenaline rush that tells a story with almost no dialogue. The whole exercise makes one wonder if there is a difference between humans and animals. 22. Inside Tonight, director Madhu C Narayanan and scenarist Sham Pushkaran come up with a surreal story that questions the toxic masculinity shown on our screens. These are men with flaws, insecurity and dashing dreams who are true heroes while the women are some of the strongest independent characters in Mollywood. 23. Produced by three sisters, Uyare, directed by Manu Ashokan soars high with Parvathy playing a survivor of an acid attack who refuses to let his dream fall. It also magnifies the ripple effect of toxic relationships.24. Geetu Mohandas's Moothon, a dark film about identity, marginalization and exploitation, also gives Nivin and Roshan Mathew a chance to declate a tender love story never seen before on screen. 25. Abu Aashiq virus is based on Nipah's fears in 2018. Without screeching and strident, the medical thriller, with its set of great characters, tells how a dedicated team of people from different walks of life work together to identify and isolate the virus. Sana's front-runner who disrupts gender politics and society, Chola has a dazzling performance by Nimisha and Joju George. Meticulously reflecting on certain unfortunate events in Kerala, the film raises uncomfortable questions about how society views men and women. Helen of Mathukutty Xavier may not have the greatest scrip but Anna Ben holds the film along with her gritty performance as an independent young woman with her never-say-die attitude. Attitude.
