Summer 2015 Update This website is no longer maintained. We are very proud that we were able to cover gateway football teams in depth during the Terry Smith era at Gateway, but with the change of guard we no longer have any connections to the athletic department. We will keep them for historical purposes for the time being. Greetings--- Marianne & Shane February 19, 2014: Tom Nola's era starts at Gateway Long Time, very successful high school coach Tom Nola - formerly of the Clairton Bears, was hired today (02/19/14) as head coach of the Gators. No further details at this time moved by additional staff (coordinators, etc.), but welcome to Gateway Coach Tom! Coach Smith leaves Temple University Receivers Coach Monday, January 21, 2013: Congratulations to (former) Gateway Head Coach Terry Smith, who has accepted a position at Temple University as receiver-coach. Coach Smith ended his high school coaching career as Gateway's best-winning percentage coach with a 77% winning record. Coach Smith was 101-30 in his 10 seasons as head coach. At this point, we are in a holding pattern and unsure what we will do this autumn football season. Coach Smith was by far the most accessible and simplest coach we've dealt with and who has always supported our website, and since GHS doesn't have a new head coach yet, we don't know if this website or our great relationship with gateway football will continue this fall. Game Recap via MSASPORTS: In a game reminiscent of the last time these two teams played in the WPIAL semifinals in 2007, the North Allegheny Tigers defeated the Gateway Gators and will have the chance to defend their 2010 WPIAL crown. North Allegheny scored the only two touchdowns in the first half and showed off their dominant offense behind their talented offensive line. North Allegheny broke the ice on their second drive of the game when Alex Deciantis stormed into the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown. Deciantis was also a key cog in the Tigers' second scoring drive, winning 90 of his game-high 144 rushing yards in the first half. But it was QB Mack Leftwich who capped the Tigers drive early in the second quarter as he scored on another 5-yard touchdown. The Gators were slowed offensively in the first half when they lost starting QB Thomas Woodson on their second offensive game of the game. On a second and one, Woodson ran a quarterback tie and was beaten on the turf by a trio of North Allegheny defenders and suffered a severed shoulder and left the game for the rest of the first half. He returned bravely in the second half. Brian Jones came and took over for Woodson, but couldn't get the Gators' offense going in the first half and the Gators went 14-0 at the break. However, the second half would prove to be a different story for both teams, as Gateway would show why they were one of the hottest Quad-A teams in the second half. On the 4th and 2nd of North Allegheny's 41-yard line with just over 6:00 to go in the third quarter, coach Terry Smith called a trick play in which Woodson threw the ball back to Jones, only to see Jones throw the ball down to Mileak Ford. Ford, who made a terrific over-the-shoulder catch, outscored the Tigers defenders and came into the end zone to cut the lead to 14-7. Gateway's defense then forced a 3-and-out on North Allegheny's next offensive possession and was able to tie the game, 14-14, on their next drive that culminated in a 3-yard TD run by RB Andre Martin. The Gator's momentum didn't stop when they forced Isaih Faulk to fumble the ensuing kickoff that Gateway recovered on the Tigers' 10-yard line. Three plays later, Gateway was forced to kick a 23-yard FG, but they had their first lead at 17-14. In the end, however, North Allegheny showed why they were winners of 18 games in a row and defended WPIAL champions. The Tigers went on a 13-game, 63-yard drive that took 8:46 from the fourth quarter clock, all on the ground mainly on runs by FB Passodelis came. With less than a minute left, the Tigers faced each other with a 4-and-goal on the 1-yard line. After a timeout, Coach Art Walker decided to let his offense try to win the game and Passodelis scored from the left defensive side and with the extra point North Allegheny took the final lead of the game 21-17. Gateway still had life and completed a hook-and-lateral play for 51 yards to North Allegheny's 19-yard line with:26 seconds left. But, two players later, James Kleinhapl took Brian Jones' pass at the Tigers' 4-yard line to salt the win. Mack Leftwich finished the game 2/8 for 32 yards, but ran for 29 yards on 10 carries and a TD. North Allegheny runs his record to 12-0 and will try to win bac-to-back championships next Saturday, as the Upper St. Clair Panthers. Gateway, who struggled to the end with an exhausted number of players, ended his record with 9:3. »2011-11-18 Gateway vs. North Allegheny Game Photos 2011-11-18 Gateway vs. North Allegheny - Ch. 2 Highlights Watch 2011-11-18 Gateway vs. North Allegheny - Ch. 4 Highlights Watch 2011-11-18 Gateway vs. North Allegheny - Ch. 11 highlights Watch »2011 Final Season Stats Gators pound out big win over PT in rematch, 34-9 Gateway advances to the WPIAL AAAA Semifinals in fashion convincing over the previously undefeated Penn Warriors.
