Start giving excursions to new penguins on the snow island! in: Characters, Types of Penguins, Penguins Share Looking for a Club Penguin moderator with the same name? The Tour Guide project started on 26 January 2007[1] with the aim of helping newcomers find their way around Club Penguin. To make a quiz a travel guide, players must be at least 45 days old. Wearing a tour guide hat, players can access a pre-written message summarizing the room they're in. This can be done by opening a safe chat menu, then mousing over activities and clicking on Give tour. Travel guide quiz The quiz can be accessed from the ski village's tour desk. From now on, the player will be asked to take an eight-question quiz about knowing the club penguin. If at least seven are answered correctly, the player will receive a travel guide hat. If not, the quiz can be taken again until it is approved. Eight of the following questions are asked in random order. The correct answers have been written. Some of the responses became inaccurate due to different changes in the game, but they were not updated to reflect these changes and are still calculated correctly. How many coins does it cost to buy a player card background? The next question was originally present, but was removed sometime in mid-2008. What day is the paper coming out? Tuesday Thursday Saturday Sunday trivia Once the player has become a travel guide, clicking on the tour booth in the ski village will get a book over the quiz titled How to Be a Great Travel Guide. If a player tried to use the give tour option while on an igloo, it would make the player say undefined. This was later changed to prevent the message from appearing. Club Penguin Times used to have In Focus, hosted by a different guide in each issue. However, it was removed after updating the magazine in November 2010. On May 1, 2009, tour guides and secret agents began to receive 250 coins a month to carry out their duties. It was featured in the TOUR GUIDE Card-Jitsu Power Card.
