Accessible Childcare Programs and Services - Since the 1970s, the WCC has provided guest industry employees and residents with a unique program of early childhood education and safe, nurturing care for their children. Our programs are designed to adapt to the work schedules of guest industry employees, who make up 80% of the families participating in our program. Senior Program – More than 1,200 full-time and part-time residents of Waikiki, aged 55 and over, participate in educational, physical and social and wellness classes at WCC that enable them to maintain a healthy and independent lifestyle. Many seniors do not have relatives living nearby and rely on WCC activities to develop neighbourhood support, social interaction, prevent isolation and premature decline in health. Community - Every year: More than 900 homeless and low-income people and families receive unsealed food from the WCC's Emergency Food Pantry. Basic English lessons for adults are more than 400 people per year. WCC also organizes Farmer's Market twice a week offering fresh produce and vegetables, Our Savings Shop provides the community with cheap resources for clothing, furniture and household items. Our facility is home to ten (10) nonprofits and churches and is often used as a meeting place for communities including the Waikiki Neighborhood Board, condo associations, boys and girls club of Hawaii, Weight Watchers, Alcoholics Anonymous and many other educational and cultural activities that unite the community. The main holidays are closed from 9.m 00 a.m. to 4.m p.m., Monday-Wednesday and Friday. ref no:5435 Like our Facebook Featured Product/Service No coupon available back to top Kaimuki Hawaii.Com HomeView our featured events, news, business and basic links on our homepage. Indoor market with excellent fresh inexpensive agricultural products, craft items, yard sales items, flea market, clothing and more, sellers are friendly and knowledgeable. I've been told tables can be rented for a very low price- $4 This is a new market replacing the Community Center savings store someday. There were less than a dozen tables on the day I went with different stocks. Sometimes there are more tables, and sometimes less. Great fun searching for treasure through items for sale. This event will certainly increase as people catch on.... The real shame there are no more traders and hotels customers don't even know about it to tell tourists. If in the pop city and support the market. It's trying to do something different for the area! Don't waste your time. Date of experience: July 2015quasimoto559 wrote a review May 2015 ReviewHanford, California147 contributions47 helpful voicesWe love going to Farmer's Markets in Hawaii because I like to buy their giant locally grown avocados – they are the size of large grapefruit. This particular market at the end of the Waikiki zoo is not very large and had only a handful of vendors, with not very much choice, but I found avocados. We were in other markets where you could find and try local exotic fruits and vegetables, but this one wasn't as diverse.... Date of experience: April 2015 CHANGE THE FIRST FIVE YEARS, CHANGE EVERYTHING The first five years of a child's life are crucial to establishing the foundations for lifelong health, learning and success. The WCC's early childhood education program provides keiki with quality, whole-child experiences to put our youngest students on the path to success at school and beyond. We also focus on family engagement and learning, which research shows is crucial to keiki's future success and well-being. We believe that every child should have a chance of success. The WCC is increasing support for families because much of their income has been affected by COVID-19. Before the pandemic, 89% of our families had a low to moderate income.TOUCHING THE LIFE OF KUPUNAWA CONTINUES TO SUPPORT POUCH MORE THAN EVER DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC FOOD SECURITY – Delivering thousands of hot meals and food bags to needy seniors and helping them transition to more permanent food sources. SENIOR SAFE RIDE - We help seniors who no longer feel safe on public transport and are unable to pay for rides to access food, basic materials and medical care. TECH SAAVY SENIORS - Our Virtual Community Center, technical training and iPad rental library open up new worlds for isolated seniors. HELPING SENIORS IN NEED - We continue to coordinate services and resources for hundreds of seniors in need and/or in critical situations. This key service is more popular than ever.COMMUNITY: WE ARE #STRONGERTOGETHER! Sticks in the package can not be broken. - African ProverbAt Waikiki Community Center, we mobilize our community to make a difference. WCC also offers rental assistance assistance program those whose income has been affected by COVID-19. KEIKI: INVESTING IN HUMAN POTENTIALA day to five years of age is the driest period of brain development, setting the foundations for future learning and success. Ensuring the quality of early learning for all children affects our entire community. Research has shown that investing in early years increases productivity in schools, reduces crime and dependence on social services, and improves the quality of our workforce. KUPUNA SENIOR PROGRAM We enable seniors to live an active, meaningful life in which they both contribute to the community and receive support. Our programs and services are in line with best practices established by research aimed at the whole person – body, mind, heart. Our services prevent premature decline and meet critical needs.COMMUNITY #STRONGERTOGETHERWe imagine a community where all our members thrive. Many community mobilization initiatives and one-on-one help/group programs allow us to reach out to some of the more vulnerable, provide growth and service opportunities for those who are active, and impact the community as a whole and beyond.
