California Census Data Comparison Tool Hello parents of Davis High School juniors. We are exploring the possibility of offering the Preliminary SAT, or PSAT, to interested young people on campus, Tuesday, January 26. PSAT is a practical version of SAT. While most colleges and scholarship programs do not require PSAT or SAT results for the decision-making process, doing well at PSAT can help with college and scholarship applications. To measure interest in offering PSAT to young people, please take two minutes to provide your contribution by completing a short survey. Access research online at . Davis High School, commonly referred to as Davis High School, is a public high school located in Modesto, California, United States. Founded in 1964, the school serves students in grades 9-12. Davis High was recognized as a California Distinguished School in 2005. History This section needs expansion. You can help by adding to it. (August 2009) Davis High School was founded in what was then a rural setting, and was meant to serve about 1800 students from predominantly agricultural families based in northern Modesto and Salida. As Modesto and Salida have grown, so has Davis High School. Davis later served more than 2,800 students. However, after the opening of Joseph Gregori High School in Modesto, CA, the population of Davis High School students again fell below 2000 as a large part of the college of students enrolled in Gregori for the start of the 2010-2011 school year. Campus This section needs expansion. You can help by adding to it. (August 2009) The campus consists of three rows of closets, an activity court or square area mainly used for meal consumption and student body activities, and about 100 classrooms. The campus borders, on the north side, from Rumble Road, and on the west side of Tully Road. The south side of the campus borders the Davis Football Stadium, tracks, and football fields. To the east, next to the campus, is Davis Park, a recreational area. There is also a picnic area used to have awnings covering the stalls. After Davis became a closed campus, students continued to frequent the park during school hours, subjecting them to consequences for being off limits per board policy. Curriculum This module needs to be expanded. You can help by adding to it. (August 2009) The school participates in the California Partnership Academics program, which provides school-within-a-school opportunities for students interested in pursueing careers in health sciences and public safety: The Career Health Academy, exclusively on the Grace Davis campus, is a four-year school-within-a-school program filled with college preparatory classes. Avid represents progress through individual identification this program helps students get into a four-year college after graduating high school. The Davis High School Public Safety Academy is a three-year school within a school program, with a recommended freshman pre-academy year, which offers a college preparatory curriculum, as well as professional experiences for students interested in careers in criminal justice and public safety. This programme provides a thematic approach to key lessons in public safety and career exploration. The second year introduces academy concepts in English, science, world history, and public safety Tech I classes. In the young and senior years, students will continue to explore careers government, English, advanced mathematics, and science courses, in addition to taking a cert/first responder course. After completing the CERT/First Responseer course, students are eligible to be members of the campus emergency preparedness and response team. Extracurricular activities Students' groups and activities include A.C.T.S., Academic Decathlon, anime club, band, Black Student Union, California Scholarship Federation, chess club, conflict mediation, gamers club, gay-straight alliance, dance, drama, French club, FBLA, FFA, Future Fashion Designers, FHA, International Club, Latino Student Union/Hispanic Youth Leadership Council, virtual trial, music, Reach and Teach Teaching, racing club, recycling, Science Bowl, Science Olympiad, and VICA/U.S. Skills. Student publications include a newspaper, Corinthian; Yearbook? and Corinthian TELEVISION, which is shown on SchoolTube.com. [2] Sports Grace M. Davis High School belongs to the Modesto Metropolitan Conference in the Sac-Joaquin Department of the California Interscholastic Federation. Before the conference was created in 2004, the school belonged to the Central California Conference. The teams, known as Spartans, compete in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, football, softball, swimming, tennis, track, volleyball, water polo, and wrestling. The Spartans have generally dominated the Modesto high school sports scene especially in football [referral required], winning the modesto city title several times with 2007 being the last since 2002. The Spartans are the only modesto high school football team to play for a Sac-Joaquin Division title, losing at Elk Grove High School in Sacramento 22-3 at Modesto Junior College Stadium in 1984.
