I can only imagine how long it probably took. Sorry for the late response. Completely forgot that my inbox existed. Please. (And it didn't take too long since I was dying a few chocobos on a few alts that reduced its decent amount) ♥ 4 notes treefree62 said: I just wanted to say thank you for the colors! It really helps to see chocobos in color in the game, compared to some transplants on the site>< thank you!! No problem! I was always disappointed when I couldn't find a good source for the color reference in the game, so I thought there were probably others out there who felt the same. It's always good to know someone found it useful! ♥ 1 Note Page 2 Page 3 Page 4 Page 5 Page 6 Page 7 Page 8 Page 9 Page 10 Do not sell my personal information Edit Comments Share Saagein Community Content Providers is available under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise stated. From the snow-white dye or claw black dye used in the Ruby Red Dye fashion report, here's our full list on how to farm them all. Dyes are a big part of setting up your character in Final Fantasy XIV and whether it's for your fashion report or just your glamorous plate here's a complete list of all the dye dyes available in the game. Here are some notes: Feel free to look for a specific dye with Ctrl+F, as some dyes are in a special category at the end of the list. For Dyes listed as available for for NPC, a good example is Unsyrnael in the Lower Deck of Limsa Lominsa (X: 6 Y: 12.3).
