Charlotte princess and the frog cosplay

I always thought the wish to the stars was for babies, and crazy people. The first time I saw this movie, I knew I had to cosplay as Lottie. And, as my friend oh so kindly pointed out -- It's nuts! You'll finally be cosplaying someone with the same personality! My dress will be big enough, but it won't be nearly as HUGE as her dress in the movie, though, considering that I'll be wearing her to a rather crowded convention and I don't want my skirts eating other XD Underwear participants: [x] Hoop Skirt and Petticoat: using the same as Drizzy :) [x] Bloomers: fully lined white cotton, so that you hold the ruffles in the cuffs better -- coated with white lace, and the bottoms are assembled through 1/4 pink ribbon Dress: [x] Bust: 100% full - Primrose glitter casa satin fully interconnected, boneless and lined with raspberry casa satin. My sister embroidered a gorgeous rose and vines pattern on the neckline, and I added matching white gimp and pearl seed beads from the organza overlay along the neckline edge. I'll also sew on some frilly white cotton lace along the bottom edge, even if the ginormous bow covers up! The sleeves were a piece of 'o cake after Drizella, and include glittering satin casa coated organza stuffed with tulle nets in order to preserve the poof. [x] Skirt: Pale pink satin bridal panels and light pink glitter satin panels with a pale pink mirror organza overlay. I intend to use a white and silver glitter gimp trim on the front hems of the organza. The bow was created using a tutorial that I found, using extra-stiff interface - I ended up using a beautiful raspberry-colored multi-satin. Accessories: [x] Crown: found the perfect crown from a prom crown supplier - it's about 99.8% accurate and I like :) [x] Shoes: I ordered a pair of Capezio Junior Foot-Light Character Shoes in Tan:3 [x] Purse: I was going through storage in the garage and found the most adorable cord of the 1920s carpet bag - lucky find! It was just a part of the myriad of costume pieces my little sisters and I used when we played dress-up grow.3 [x] Gloves: I found a pair of vintage 1920s cotton church gloves in light pink on ebay -- Even they have the same curve on the wrist, like Lottie's!- [x] Fan: I was inspired by LKD here on cosplay.com and got a pale pink swan-down feather fan since I liked how much it fits with Lottie's personality :) [x] Earrings: Light blue crystal - I found a pair of vintage 1920's screw-back earrings :) [x] Wig: I'm having lottie wig assigned me, and I can't wait for the results. ** Photos settings4 I saw you in SDCC 2011, you are amazing Lottie! KnightJeran You are seriously the most awesome and amazing Lottie EVERRRR. -- Amaya -- You are officially one of my favorite cosplayers on cosplay.com You cosplayed both Lottie and the evil half-sister (who I love both) and pulled them off wonderfully! That's a good job. Samwise32 You're mine loved one to do this! Terrible!!!!!!!
