Read the comments and watch the video recommendations from all over the web! In the Summertime Saga, even the simplest things will often have a search line in order to access them. If you want a squid on a boob tube (there's never been such a suitable descriptor before), you'll need to progress to a point through Jenny and Debbie's stories. Some of the instructions below may be a little out of order depending on which events run at what time in your Summertime Saga game, but as long as you complete them, you'll be able to unlock your TV. First head to the gym at summertime saga and try your luck on the punching bag. The old man will offer you Muay Thai lessons in exchange for a pair of panties - Roshii, is that you?! - then head to Jenny's room and peek into her drawers. They're going to catch you red-handed and offer you panties at a cost of $100. It's not much, but you'll have to take it for now. Go back to the gym and train with Master Somrak until he asks for another pair. To launch the next event at the Summertime Saga, you'll need to get to the checkpoint at Debbie's storyline where you see her masturbating in her room. After that, entering Jenny's room during the day will give the possibility of talking mom needs you. With her from the room, check the diary on her bed to find the password for her computer. Go back to her room at night and access her computer using the BAD MONSTER password to connect her webcam to your computer. Head to her room during the day and ask to trade for panties. This time, she will request an electric clitoris as a payment - you can buy it at the Pink store located in the shopping center for $100 - and bring it to her. Make a craft, go to the gym, and Somrak will continue with your workouts (keep doing it until you can no longer lift your dexterity). One morning, you'll think about what Jenny's doing. Check your PC and access your webcam to see her enjoy the gift you bought her. After that, head to your telescope, see what Erik's doing, and Jenny will leave you. At night, walk into her room, go to her bed and cuddle her. He's going to wake up and kick you out. Peep on Jenny in the shower several times over the next few days, and head down in the morning. Debbie's going to make you breakfast. Enter the dining room and sit at the table, where Jenny makes a deal that will set you back $500. When you have the money, take the deal and cut Jenny's breasts. Choose a stop when the option appears and Jenny will kick you out of your room. Unconcerned, they re-enter her bedroom during the night and try cuddling once more, this time squeezing her. How sweet. Next time he showers, they go in, ask if he needs help and beg when asked. She will decide against it and expel you (once again). Returning to the hall the next day will cause outscene where he accuses you of using your computer. Which is fair—you did it anyway. Leave the house and go. place. and then return to your house at night, where you will disturb someone watching television. Go into the living room, approach the TV and you'll find Jenny watching. Choose to keep watching, and then you'll unlock the TV. All you will find are some news and sports channels, however - you probably want good things. Sneak up on Jenny's room, access her computer and check her e-mail. The pink channel has its login details (ID: L6BV12R password: 12345). Plus, you'll be able to watch during the night on TV.
