If payment is made within the first 30 days of the suspension period, Metro PCS will simply reactivate the service. Sally couldn't pay on the 10th, so her service was temporarily suspended. On April 15, Sally made the payment so that her service was returned after 5 days off-duty. Sally's bill is still paid on the 10th of the month. Therefore, your account for the following month is 10 May, not 15 May. It only happens 25 (twenty-five) days away.
