The government has taken certain steps to eliminate film theft. Under the Filming Act 2019, anyone can be spotted filming without the written consent of the producer, who can be sentenced to up to three years in prison. In addition, a fine of 10 lakh can also be imposed on the perpetrator. People who transmit pirated copies on illegal torrent sites can also face jail terms. Will I go to jail or be fined for illegally downloading movies? Under copyright law in India, if the person is taken to court and proven that he intentionally violated or helped others and downloaded the copyrighted film from the downloaded KatmovieHd film, it will be considered a criminal act. The court will argue that the person knew about the violation because in most cases the film has a watermark or notice that it is a copyrighted work. Under the law, the sentence for first-time offenders is six months to three years in prison, with fines between ₹50,000 and ₹200,000 (depending on the severity of the offence). Theft of original material under Indian law is an offence punishable by the Copyright Act. We strongly oppose piracy. GyanInfo.Com also does not promote any torrenting/piracy sites. Time and again we are reminding you that downloading/streaming movies from piracy sites like KatmovieHd is illegal and can put you in big trouble. We recommend staying away from piracy sites. There is always a choice of legitimate sites to watch movies. The purpose of this website is not at all to encourage any piracy and unsciond practice. Thank you guys for being away from such a site and applying properly to download the movie! Thank you!
