A- Nas Verse 6 Read your daily part of Quran - Juz 30 Juz 30 Ye - Saad al-Ghamidi (Arabic/English) [Player id=948] Streams: Surah A- Naba: Surah gives an important news or message. It tells us that the day of judgement is coming. This beautiful and orderly universe is pointing to the day of judgment. Allah will bring all people to justice. The wicked will be thrown into hell, and they will receive their reward from the righteous Allah. Surah is a Naziat: It speaks about the angels of Allah who take spirits at the time of death. Just as Allah has the power to take away spirits, as He has created the entire universe, He also has the power to resurrect people after their death. The story of the Prophet Moses and Pharaoh is mentioned to warn people about the consequences of arrogant pride which leads to denial of the truth. Surah 'Abasa: Surah begins with the phenomenon of a blind man (Abdullah bin um Maktam), who came to the Prophet to seek knowledge, while the chief of Mecca was denying the message. It talks about the message of Allah. Those who accept this message will benefit from it. But those who deny this message are harming themselves. Surah al-Infiter: Surah reminds man that Allah has given them a wonderful proportional shape, but he and the whole universe are entirely dependent on Allah. There is a purpose of creation and the day of justice will come. Surah al-Mutifin: Surah warns those who commit fraud in business. It reminds you about honest behaviour. The righteous will prosper. Allah has the record of every soul. Surah al-Inshik: This surah tells us that there is no stability in this world. It also explains the record of deeds and the reward of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked. It reminds people to pay attention to the Quran. Surah al-Buruz: Surah speaks about the persecution of believers. Allah sees upon his own people and he will bring his enemies to justice. Surah warns opponents with this message. Their end may be like many nations, who rejected The Message of Allah and persecuted believers. Tariq on Surah: Every thing in this universe is working under the patronage and supervision of the great keeper. The creation of this universe along with the creation of man is not a joke. Creation is a serious work of Allah and therefore His word is the Qur'an. Surah al-Al: Surah speaks about the glory of Allah the most. He made everything. He created the human being and gave him the ability to progress. If man obeys the laws of Allah, he can progress. The Quran is the message from Allah and he will protect it. The Prophet should continue to give messages to others. Those who accept it will benefit from it, but those who reject it will be losers. It talks about Akhirah and this message is the same as that given to the prophets Ibrahim and Moses. Surah al-Ghishiya: Surah talks about the coming disaster that will cover everything. Humanity will be divided into two groups: frightened, weary and weary groups, and joyful and happy groups. Then attention is drawn to the wonderful created by Allah. The Prophet is said to remind people. Their mission is simply to remind, not to impose the message. Allah will make the final decision. Surah al-Fajr: Surah talks about the judgment of Allah: the reward and punishment that will take place thereafter. Surah al-Shams: Surah explains that as the sun and the moon, night and day, there is a contrast between heaven and earth, so there is also a big difference between good and evil. Surah al-Lal: It's basically the same subject as the previous Surah, but it tells us about two ways of life: good way and bad way and results of both ways. Surah Ad-Dhuha: This Surah Gives a Message of Hope Evening. It reminds Allah about the blessings and way of taking these blessings to believers. Surah al-Inshura: Surah tells us that believers should not be given difficulties and tensions. Will ease after troubles. Tin on Surah: Concluded that Allah's decision will come. Surah al-Alaq: The first five verses are among the first that were revealed to the Prophet (saw) in the diamond cave. The rest of the Surah was then revealed when the message was presented to the people of Mecca and they began to threaten the Prophet. Surah speaks about the humble beginnings of men, but the high rank is that they follow the message of Allah, if they can receive. Surah al-Qaddara: Surah talks about the glory and glory of the Quran and the time when the Quran was revealed. Surah al-Bayin: Surah tells us that prophet Muhammad came with a clear message and a divine book. This book (Quran) contains the original message of all the prophets of Allah. It also draws attention to the different ends of those who follow the right path and who turn away from the truth Surah al-Jilzal: this surah talks about life after death and all deeds will be revealed on the day of judgment. Surah al-Adit: Surah tells us the ungratefulness of man and where he takes him. It describes the wild and unbridled lifestyle of arabs before Islam. It also reminds us that Allah knows of all the hidden mysteries of human spirits and he will expose them on the day of judgment. Surah al-Qaria: Surah warns about the day of judgment. It will be a day of great clamour. People will be scattered and the mountains will crumble. Only those whose balance is heavy will prosper. Surah al-Takathur: Surah talks about materialism and the bad consequences of this worldliness. Surah al-As: Surah tells us that humans are usually losers. Then they say what is the way of success and salvation. Surah al-Humaz: Surah talks about some ethical problems that affect the rich and then it warns them of the consequences of these evils. Surah al-Phil: Surah reminisces about the incident when Ka Bah was attacked by an army from the southern part of Arabia, but Allah destroyed the army. It is the same God who protected the Kaaba flowing, his message is now presented by the Prophet Muhammad (saw). Surah Quresh: It reminded the people of Mecca that it was Allah who gave them respect and prestige among other tribes because of the shedding of their house, so why not worship him and obey Him. It is likewise a reminder to others to worship Allah who offers everything. Surah al-Maan: Religion means social service, helping the poor and the needy. Surah tells us that true faith in God and the last day build a kind and Character. Surah al-Kather: Surah gives good news and comfort that Allah's message will prevail and enemies of the truth will be losers. Surah al-Kafiron: Surah explains that there can be no compromise on matters of faith and worship. People are free to follow whatever religion they want, but truth and falsehood cannot be mixed together. Surah Ek-Nasr: It is a Madani Surah and according to most officials it is the last surah that was exposed to the Prophet (saw). Surah reminds about the attitude of the believer in the event of success. One should be thankful to Allah and apologize for any shortcomings or mistakes. Surah al-Lahab. This surah was revealed to condemn the behavior of a relative of the Prophet who stood against his message. Surah warns that those who oppose The Message of Allah will be severely punished, whether they belong to the prophet's family or not. Surah al-Ikhlas: This is a great surah of Tawhid. It speaks about the purity of Allah. Surah al-Falak: Surah reminds us that evil lurks everywhere and anything can be harmful. Always be vigilant, do the right thing and take the protection of Allah. Surah A-Snous: Allah tells us that Satan is always against men and that he puts wrong suggestions in their minds. We must seek the protection of Allah from Satan and his whispers. This is a very appropriate end to the book of Allah. The Book of God is under the guidance of Allah to provide protection from all evil and success.
