Manchester united vs cska moscow 2015

Jon Super/Associated PressManchester United beat CSKA Moscow 1-0 at Old Trafford in the Champions League on Tuesday as Wayne Rooney drew level with Denis Law with 237 goals for the club. The Red Devils were poor up front for much of the contest, and the hosts looked to be heading for their fourth goalless showing in a row—for the first time in their entire history. But Rooney nodded home the winner well into the second half. United were much better side as the Russian side offered nothing going forward, but until Rooney's winner, the Red Devils once again showed the profligacy that had seen them record three consecutive goalless draws leading up to the match. Rooney flashed a shot wide after just three minutes from Jesse Lingard's excellent delivery, and the 22-year-old had a half chance of his own soon after when he cut in but saw his shot blocked. PAUL ELLIS/Getty ImagesLingard had an even better opportunity two minutes later when Rooney snuck a lovely ball forward towards him, but Igor Akinfeev reacted well to get out of his line and stifle danger. The midfielder continued to be on the end of all United created but again could not provide the goal after being picked out well by Ashley Young. Football writer Liam Canning wasn't impressed with his display: Liam Canning @LiamPaulCanningLingard's been terrible tonight, wouldn't mind seeing Memphis come on at half-time for him. Liam Canning @LiamPaulCanningLingard is now 22 and has just entered the XI, and yet, hasn't seen the brightest spark. Wasted far too many opportunities. Squawka Football shared one-sided but frustrating first half stats from the match: Squawka Football @SquawkaMan Utd 0-0 CSKA Moscow HT: Shot: 8-0 Chances created 7-0 Crosses: 14-2 Attack, attack, attack. the second half followed a similar pattern with United controlling the entire ball, but the hosts continued to be frustrated as CSKA sat back behind it. Football writer Miguel Delaney emphasized the Red Devils' inability to penetrate teams that sit deep:Miguel Delaney @MiguelDelaney... they can't get anything in behind, there's never any sense of any building. United boss Louis van Gaal took to his increasingly common plan B to throw Marouane Fellaini on, and Anthony Martial's departure to give way was met with a chorus of boos from the Old Trafford faithful. Rooney was unable to finish from three yards out when he got the ball stuck under his feet, while Michael Carrick sent a volley narrowly wide. Jon Super/Associated PressShockingly, CSKA almost took the lead on one of their only forays forwards in the entire match, but a combination of David De Gea and Chris Smalling just kept Seydou Doumbia out. Just a minute after almost conceded, United finally found the back of the net when Rooney converted a free header from Lingard exquisitely volleyed per BT Sport Football:Football on BT Sport @btspportfootballWatch @ManUtd first goal in 404 minutes @WayneRooney gives Old Trafford a boost! #UCL win spared Van Gaal's blushes and takes United to the top of Group B by one point ahead of PSV Eindhoven and Wolfsburg, both of whom are set to play for the second time. United's struggles in the final third continued almost unabated, and on this shows it's hard to see that changing significantly any time soon. If the Red Devils can't find the answer, they still face the prospect of missing out on the knockout stages of the Champions League despite being handed a winnable group. Post-Match ReactionVan Gaal was pleased with the result and expressed relief his side did not concede what would have been an undeserved goal for Moscow, per BBC Red Wednesday: BBC RM United @BBCRMUnited #mufc manager Louis van Gaal: It's incredible because we've created at least 12 chances and had to wait a long time. BBC RM United @BBCRMUnited#mufc boss Louis van Gaal: Before that they could have scored and then it is a different match. I'm happy. We played well. The Guardian's Daniel Taylor shared the Dutchman's comments about the audible taunts from sections of the audience and the 64-year-old remained unmoved: 'I'm not deaf. Of course I heard. That's the opinion of the fans but afterwards they shouldn't be disappointed. Dan Ripley Host commentator 21:44 Manchester United was made to sweat at times..... But they finish the night in an excellent position in Group B. After seeing off CSKA, United now top the group and need only defeat PSV at Old Trafford to progress. You can catch the reaction after the game on the website but it's all here from me. Bowl. Manchester United's Chris Smalling (second left) blocks a shot by CSKA Moscow's Seydou Doumbia 21:31 Manchester United substitution 89min: Old Trafford is already emptying as CSKA offers very little threat of an equaliser. The hosts make one last substitution and send in Ander Herrera for Bastian Schweinsteiger. 88min: It hasn't been as straight forward as Manchester United would have liked, but another positive for the Red Devils is they are set for a fourth straight clean sheet. In addition, PSV leads against Wolfsburg which means that United are heading to the top of the group. They will sing in the rain at Old Trafford. Wayne Rooney celebrates opening the scoring for Manchester United at 21:27 From OptaJoe and InfostradaLive 404 - Man United have completed a run of 404 minutes in all competitions without a goal. Relief.— OptaJoe (@OptaJoe) November 3, 2015 Wayne Rooney ends his scoring drought of 955 minutes in the Champions League. He last against Bayer Leverkusen in September 2013. #MUFC— Infostrada Sports (@InfostradaLive) November 3, 2015 21:26 CSKA Moscow substitution 85min: It's a final throw of the dice for CSKA as Kirill Panchenko comes on to replace Alan Dzagoev. 82min: Just moments after going ever so close to going a goal behind, Manchester United should be 2-0 up as Akinfeev cleverly parries off a powerful Lingard volley. Wayne Rooney broke the deadlock with 11 minutes left after scoring for Manchester United with a header of 21:20 GOALS! MANCHESTER UNITED 1-0 CSKA Moscow 79min: Wow, the noise from inside Old Trafford! Manchester United have finally scored and what a strike it is too as Lingard plays a brilliant cross across goal for Wayne Rooney, who arches a high header past Akinfeev 78min: Oh my God, CSKA has blown a fantastic opportunity to take the lead! Doumbia played one-on-one with David de Gea, before the keeper saves his shot and Smalling cuts over to block the rebound wide. Fantastic defending. 21:17 CSKA Moscow substitution 75min: Just wide! A ball falls out of the air for Carrick on the edge of his box but his sizzling volley over goal is inches wide of the post. CSKA make a second change, send on Aleksandr Golovin for Zoran Tomic. 21:16 Manchester United change 74min: A second change for Manchester United - this one not bood - when Juan Mata departs in favour of Memhis Depay. Ashley Young avoided a yellow card after appearing to purposefully kick a CSKA Moscow defender 73min: Shocking from Young, who unfortunately has been in the past with this. Schennikov already on a booking does not make the most of challenges inside the box, but he does not commit a foul, leading to Young kicking the defender's leg to try and get a penalty out of the referee. He is very lucky not to be booked for diving. 71min: Surely a goal?! No!! How did it not go in? A low ball is played over goal for Rooney who from five yards out somehow fails to point home with the goal at his mercy. The Old Trafford crowd can't believe it. 21:10 69min: This game is going nowhere ... absolutely nowhere. It has even gotten to the point where CSKA no shots on goal. Moscow looks more dangerous team. United fans lose patience as they lead the loud chants of Attack! Again. I feel like walking with myself. 21:08 Manchester United substitution 66min: Not a popular replacement. There are boos around Old Trafford as Martial is hooked as he makes room for Marouane Fellaini. 63min: It's a shot from CSKA... type of. Doumbia spots De Gea off his line but his long-range shot from 40 yards is well off target, along with the fact that the Spanish keeper had it covered regardless. Manchester United's Wayne Rooney tackled by CSKA's Georgy Schennikov 21:03 60min: Manchester United have not attacked CSKA defenders as much in this period, which is surprising because they make visitors look very much Lingard tries to cut a way through but he is stopped by a desperate Pontus Wermbloom challenge resulting in a booking for the latter. 58min: Slutski has turned to Plan B, and it seems Louis van Gaal is too. Marouane Fellaini is getting ready to come in for Manchester United as Doumbia wastes a good opportunity to get CSKA Moscow's first shot on goal after taking too much time on the edge of the box. 20:57 CSKA Moscow substitution 55min: Leonid Slutski has seen enough from his side and is making his first change. The not quite match fit Doumbia is finally on, replacing Bibras Natcho. 53min: United are really doing the right things. They put CKSA under heavy pressure after winning their fourth corner of the half. Just like in the first half, the Russian side must weather an early storm here. Anthony Martial from Manchester United has a header on goal that was straight at the CSKA Moscow keeper 50min: Still Manchester United find joy on the left when yet another cross floats into the box. This time it is Martial who connects with a header but even if he nods into the ground it is straight at Akinfeev who collects well. CSKA has sent Seydou Doumbia to warm up. Ahmed Musa has been so isolated by the United defence that the Russian side continue to show NOTHING going forward. 48min: One of those chances must go in for Manchester United soon! A corner finds Rojo at the far post, doing well to get in front of his mark, only to deflect the ball wide of goal. It was a bad effort in truth, but it should have been a goal and he knows it. 20:46 SECOND HALF: No changes as Manchester United start the second period CSKA failed to test Manchester United goalkeeper David De Gea in the first half 20:43 PLAYER WATCH: Wayne Rooney (Manchester United) Wayne Rooney started very well, but as cska firm Manchester United striker struggled to retain his early influence in the latter stages of the first half. The Russian side has been incredibly negative - and it hasn't helped him find space - but Louis van Gaal needs to find a way to get him involved more after the break. Here's his first half-heat map. Click here for more maps and stats with our excellent Match Zone 20:34 Good news, United fans. There are now eight straight halves without commhanging ... but there are also seven consecutive halves without scoring. It will be formed here. Although Manchester United are showing a little more bite attack, it is again a goalless half as Manchester United and CSKA Moscow are locked up at 0-0. I'm beginning to wonder if I'll ever see a goal at Old Trafford ever again... 20:31 HALF-TIME: Manchester United 0-0 CSKA Moscow Manchester United's Marcos Rojo swaps shirts at half-time with CSKA Moscow's Mario Ferdandes 45min: The 'Attack!' chants are back from the United as their side win a corner on the stroke of half-time... 43min: Det har inte varit något fel fel Lingard in the positional sense in this half. He has often been in the right place at the right time, but deary me his work on the ball needs to be improved. The midfielder collects the ball in a promising position on the left but his high ball towards the far post is nowhere near a teammate when it bounces out for a goal kick. 40min: An expectant and loud cheer goes up from the home crowd's Rooney races in on goal, but that soon evaporates when the linesman's flag goes up for offside. It was Martial who tried a ball beforehand and showed good strength to keep off his mark before feeding the captain. 37min: Meanwhile, Young continues to be a standout for United in this first half. He also plays David Beckham-esque balls now, pingng a superb cross to the far post where Rojo thunders a volley wide of the near post. CSKA Moscow's Alexei Berezutski wore a ripped shirt after a tussle with Manchester United's Anthony Martial 35min: Maths was never my strong suit but I do that six hours of football now since a match with Manchester United had a goal. It was Anthony Martial against CSKA Moscow, but any hopes that he will break the deadlock look unlikely at this stage - he has been fairly anonymous in this first half. 32min: It's an even better chance! Mata and Young combine everything so well on the right, before the latter's low ball over the six-yard box finds Lingard at the far post. The midfielder's first touch, however, is terrible and it forces him to sit back when he shoots, resulting in him blasting over the crossbar. Manchester United's Wayne Rooney charges CSKA keeper Igor Akinfeev 29min: Good chance for Manchester United, but it's one that Chris Smalling turns down. Nothing wrong with Rooney's free kick into the box - it's spot on - but an unmarked Smalling seems to duck under the ball rather than attack it with a header as it just clears away the back post. Oh what could have been... 28min: The early spark from Manchester United seems to have flared up. With the rain it does not fall the easiest conditions to play in but the CSKA defense seems to have settled and stopped the home team's momentum. That said, Bastian Schweinsteiger has won a free kick after slipping through one or two gaps in midfield. 25min: The only man I feel sorry for so far is David de Gea. The Manchester United keeper has had nothing to do except put together a couple of simple passing defenders. Referee: Szymon Marciniak (POL) 19:12 CSKA Moscow starts XI Akinfeev, Fernandes, Ignashevich, A. Berezutski, Schennikov, Wermbloom, Z. Tomic, Dzagoev, Milanov, Natcho, Musa. CSKA Moscow were stuck in traffic to make it to Manchester United, but they are finally at Old Trafford and there is a surprise exclusion in their side, with striker Seydou Doumbia just good enough for a place on the bench. 19:02 PM Paul Scholes defends Wayne Rooney's lack of Man Utd goals this term I don't think anyone would score in this team, not even Sergio Aguero. Paul Scholes told BT Sport. He (Wayne Rooney) gets nothing from midfield and no service from out wide at all. Rooney looks sharp, but he can't get the ball. 18:50 Manchester United make three changes in midfield There are three changes for Manchester United from the side who played 0-0 against Crystal Palace in the Premier League this weekend. Morgan Schneiderlin is ruled out for personal reasons so replaced in midfield by Michael Carrick. Jesse Lingard, who started in Russia for a 1-1 draw, also comes into the side in place of Ander Herrera. Elsewhere Ashley Young comes into the side in place of Matteo Darmian. 18:46 Manchester United start XI De Gea, Young, Smalling, Blind, Rojo, Schweinsteiger, Carrick, Lingard, Mata, Martial, Rooney. 18:45 PM Louis van Gaal looks to up the match tempo against CSKA Moscow Not that it could have been much slower, but at least the intention is there. Louis van Gaal said in his program notes: Our pace in half the match at Arena Khimki was too slow and that is something we want to improve on. Everything to produce a goal in a | Manchester United game gets my vote... Something! 18:20 This is how Group B stands for tonight's games There are some teams that can book a last 16 place this week - this group is not one of them. But three points for Manchester United and they will sit quite to seal a knockout place in the Champions League in their next game against PSV - also at Old Trafford. Happy days. Click here for fixtures, tables and results with our excellent Match Zone 18:07 It has become so boring at Man Utd, even the Old Trafford playlist is having a laugh... On the playlist tonight, That's Entertainment by Jam. A simple but brilliant song, but it is perhaps not a true reflection on recent Manchester United performances with the last three games ending 0-0 – even one of them had extra time. Also on the playlist, Girl from Mars by Ash. Don't hear enough from them these days. They are still showing off some brilliant items. 18:01 Imagine what it's like to watch five and a half hours of football without a goal and there is the exact feeling every Manchester United are going through right now. Good night everyone, there hasn't been a goal in a Manchester United match since Anthony Martial equalised at CSKA Moscow in their last Champions League match, but we go again tonight as the Red Devils host the return tie against the Russian outfit. The form says 0-0, I back a nine-goal extravaganza * * I lied, I meant 1-0 to United ... United...
