Bsf romans lesson 8 day 22

The line of Shem is followed here. The account of Terah from the line of Shem who was Abrams(later Abraham's) father. Lot was Abraa's nephew. Abram married Sarai (later Sarah) and she was infertile (had no children). Terah, Abram, Sarai and Lot went to Canaan, but settled in Haran where Terah died. BSF Study Questions Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 2: Genesis 11:10-32:3) he became a father, lived and had other sons and daughters. They went about their lives. 4) Nothing really. These lists are pretty boring. 5) Personal question. My answer: the fact that my ancestors were born, lived, had children and died. Conclusions BSF Study Questions Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 2: Genesis 11:10-32 Admittedly, I have nothing here, so I pray that you did it. When we did Genesis last, BSF jumped verses 11-26 and did not ask about them. Final notes BSF Study Question Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 2: Genesis 11:10-32 We see Abraham here for the first time. He is featured more than 312 times in the Bible with 272 verses dedicated to him. I wish it was me. Admittedly, Abraham whose father of nations. It takes a lot to explain it, and I would say that makes him quite important, actually. We're going to study him and his line for the rest of the year. Too many of us are trying to live up to Abraham's faith. In truth, we do; our stories are just not recorded in the Bible. Abraham was called the Friend of God (2 Chronicles 20:7); (Isaiah 41:8). ( James 2:23) We can all be god's friend. We are all great in god's eyes. FUNNY FACT: Sarai Abrams' wife means controversial. Abraham means Father. What we do not see here is that Abram is called while you are still in your Acts 7:2-4. This is important. Abram leaves Babylon to go to yours by the calling of God. But he brings other family members (not God's calling), and he does pitstop in Haran (partly there). Terah means delay and Haran means gold, which was Abraa's life in Haran. While many blame Abraham for stopping, the most important thing is that he started. This is all we need to do: start. One step at a time in God's will. Summary of scripture: Noah built an altar after he left the ark and sacrificed burnt offerings to the Lord. The Lord said that he would never again curse the ground because of man, even if his heart is evil from childhood and destroy living creatures. Question: 3a) Personal question. My answer: It was the first thing Noah did after more than a year aboard the Ark. He thanked God through worship for all God's goodness to him. He also sacrificed animals (a BIG deal since there really was no one to go). This one action led to God's decision never to destroy the earth again—because there is goodness in man despite the evil inclinations of the heart. b) Personal question. My answer: Great question because I don't really have a daily time on with my family. It's something we've fallen out of and it ends up being usually only on Sundays. Something to work with and ask for! c) It is difficult to say since details of victims to God from Adam to Noah are not recorded. We know that Abel killed animals before God, and these were accepted. I think burnt (animal) offers were around since Abel's time and that Noah had probably done them before. In this case after the Ark, however, I believe that God did not order Noah to sacrifice for him, and he was pleasantly surprised by Noah's act of sacrifice—hence God's decision never to destroy man or earth again. Since Noah walked with God (Genesis 6:9) I think he knew how to please and praise our Lord. Therefore, I believe Noah offered this sacrifice to God of his own free will, knowing of the purifying power of blood over sin. 4a) Psalm 27:6: Sacrifice with cries of joy; sing and make music to the Lord Psalm 51:17: A broken spirit, a broken and contrite (repentant) heart—came with a repentant heart, truly pity for the sins of Romans 12:1: Their bodies Ephesians 5:2: Live a life of love as Jesus Philippians 4:18: Gifts to others in this case Paul speaks of monetary help Hebrews 13:15–17: Praise to God, do good and share with others; obey their leaders 1 Peter 2:5: Spiritual sacrifices (ourselves) to God b) Personal question. My answer: All in a way because 1) I need to work with everyone and 2) because they all cost me something that God sacrificed Jesus at such a high price. Conclusions: Great lesson about how we can and should sacrifice to God and how we are even if we do not recognize it as such. My take-away was the daily time as a family with God. I do my lesson alone in the wet hours of the morning. I have to model this for my kids, so they see what I'm doing. I'll help them with the lesson, but we'll do it Sunday night. We had a daily time with God during home school, but we have come away from it because of the busyness of our lives. Been convicted of it. The Lord called On Abram to leave his country and his people to travel to a new country with this promise: I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you. I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you, I will curse you. and all the people of the earth will be blessed through you. BSF Study Questions Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 3: Genesis 12:1-3 6a) The Lord called Abram to leave his country and his people to travel to a new country with this promise: I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. 3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you, I will curse you. and all the people of the earth will be blessed through you. b) God appeared to Abram while he was in Mesopotamia before he lived in Haran and called him. This shows that Abram only came halfway, and he took his father too. 7) Isaiah 41:8-10 says that we are chosen by God, he is with us, He will strengthen us. Matthew 4:18-22 says that Jesus calls Peter and Andrew and he will make them fishermen of men. Matthew 19:28-30 says that by Second Coming those who followed him will also sit on 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes. Anyone who has left the house, brothers, sisters, mothers, fathers, or the children for their way will receive 100 times as much and will inherit eternal life. Mark 8:34–36 says that you must deny yourself and take up the cross and follow Jesus, and you will have eternal life. John 14:15–20 says that if you obey Jesus' commandments, you will receive the Holy Spirit to guide and protect you. 8a) Personal question. My answer: We have just moved also for a better life and are in our careers. I plan on many things, including getting closer to God and doing His will in my life.b) Personal question. My answer: God's calling never seems to be easier in life. It's all about surrender. Knowing that God is behind everything gives me the strength and courage to endure. Conclusions BSF Study Question Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 3: Genesis 12:1-3 For us this is no big deal: people move all the time. But in ancient times it was extremely rare for people to travel more than a kilometer or so outside their towns and villages. They trusted their families to help them survive. After all, tilling the land is no easy way to live. Sâledy, when God called Abram to leave both his family and his country for a distant, unknown place, this was a great deal. His explains why Abram disobeyed God and took family members and why he did it only halfway. Maybe his father couldn't travel anymore. As I said yesterday, while this is not full obedience, it is better than none at all. Final Notes BSF Study Question Genesis: Lesson 8, Day 3: Genesis 12:1-3 I printed out the verses because they are so famous and they are good at remembering for us. This promise is repeated here from when God first called Abram. When God says I will, it will be done. We see Abram growing in faith, this is what we should do too. We will never be perfect. The point is that you go against God, one step at a time. Abram was promised a country, a nation and fame. All the major religions (Islam, Christianity and Judaism) honor him. Note God's promise to bless those who bless His people and to curse those who curse them. This promise is given to the Jews who are and always will be God's chosen people. Genobes were adopted later. God always protects the Jews as history shows, from the Greeks and Romans to Hitler's Germany; Aren't we happy? Scripture Summary: God blessed Noah and his sons and asked them to be fruitful and fill the earth. All animals will fear and fear you and God placed them in the hands of man. God gave everything that lives and moves now as food for man as well as the plants. Man must not eat meat that has lifeblood still in it. God will require an accounting from all animals and from every man and accounting for the life of his fellow man. He who shed the blood of man by man, his blood shall be shed in god's image. God has created man. Question: 5) God told both Noah and Adam to be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth. God allowed Noah to eat the animals and not Adam. God told Noah not to eat meat that has lifeblood still in it (same for Adam). God blessed them both. God asked both Noah and Adam to rule the earth and its inhabitants, but for Noah he made the animals afraid of man. God told Noah that he will hold man accountable for every animal and for the life of his fellow man. This was unnecessary in Eden since man was sinless at the time. 6) Personal question. My answer: Because the life of every creature is in the blood, and it was the blood of animals that gave man atonement for his sins before Jesus came. Thus it was sacred, reserved for this very important purpose in human life. 7a) He who shed the blood of man of man, his blood shall shed (death); for in God's image. God has made man. Basically, murderers attack God's image and must therefore give an account. b) No. God knows the heart of man and how evil his tendencies are. It's like an eye for an eye. It looks like I'm god's settlement. God knows that some people can become so evil that they must be punished so that they cannot harm others. That is why the whole old and new testament God sets laws for the death penalty (Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy). Murderers pollute God's earth. Numbers 35:33: Don't pollute the country where you are. Bloodshed pollutes the country, and reconciliation cannot be done for the country where blood has been shed, except by the blood of the person who shed it. Do not defile the country ... Murder is against the law, and it is the government's job (given by God) to impose judgment and punishment (Romans 13:1-5). Conclusions: Here we see God's laws again in action. First, he forbade the man from eating from the tree of knowledge. He forbids the man to eat meat with lifeblood. I think it's interesting how banning the list just gets longer and longer. In Eden there was only one: no fruit from that tree. After Noah, the list only grows and grows. It's like the laws of countries (and most noticeable in the United States in the past). There are so many laws passed cause of a stupid person that no one can even count. Sin just seems to never stop and continues to grow. I liked the death penalty study. I've never looked at it in the Bible. Good to know when you talk to people about it. I like the idea of how it attacks God's image. I've never thought of it that way. To attack God's creation. In a way, God attacks himself, especially if the Holy Spirit is indwelt. I also like the picture of how spilled blood pollutes and defiles the land. For all the talk about pollution in this world, you hear it never referenced in terms of pollution murder does. Another emphasis on how all life is sacred and only God has the right to take it. How sacred and precious are all his creations, including the land we walk on. On.
