Kudos: 9 Hits: 345 Kidd, the Thompson sisters and Crona stood awkwardly in the death room waiting for the others to show up. Marie, Lord Death and Stein seemed to be deep in the conversation, but were too far away for them to hear. Kidd hated being out of the loop. Why are we here father? It's a Saturday, Kidd yawned. Lord Death turned around and came cheerfully to the middle of the platform. Stein and Marie followed more slowly and stood aside. Well, we have some big, News! Lord Death said in his usual lively behavior. Suddenly, Black*Star jumped down from who knows where and landed on top of the giant mirror. Have! I'm the big star here, no news is bigger than me! He laughed uncomfortably. Black* Star, come down from there, this is probably important, Tsubaki called up to the Black Star when she walked into the room. Hey, don't start the party without us. It would be so not cool, Soul went in followed by Maka. Black * Star finally jumped down and landed in front of them, unfortunately for him, he got Maka chopped. After he recovered, they all joined the others on the platform. Oh, I'm so sorry, Professor Stein, Frøs Marie, what are you doing here? Maka tilted his head. Well that's the news, Lord Death chimed i. Huh? Soul asked since he hadn't paid enough attention to realize that Lord Death hadn't actually said anything about the news since they came in. Marie couldn't hold back her excitement anymore: Stone and I are getting married! What?! all students except Soul shouted. Way to go doc, Soul fist-bumped stone, Glad it worked for you, All the students turned to gawk at Soul. Soul, you knew? asked Tsubaki. Yes, I helped the professor so that he wouldn't do anything stupid like putting the ring in a dissected animal, Soul mourned. Crona looked a little sick at the thought of it. The macahudd: It's disturbing how necessary it probably was. Stein chuckled. Hey, Lord Death waved his massive hands around in the air. Everyone looked up to see what the harvester wanted. What else is there? Liz raised an eyebrow. Yes, what else? What else? Patty moved. Lord Death jumped up and down like an agitated child. Well, the wedding is going to be held here at the academy and Dr. Stein and Ms. Marie will take leave until after their honeymoon. Isn't that nice? He said enthusiastically. Even if it's very nice for them, Dad, who's going to teach us? Kidd stared at his father with a stern expression. Just then, the Spirit stepped in and looked mentally exhausted. Ah, Death Scythe, where you are, Lord Death turned to meet him. The Spirit trudged onto the platform and stood before him. I'm sorry I'm late, sir, Spirit looked like he had a headache, you know what those two might be like. Stein laughed: She got you again, didn't she? The Spirit ran over to Stone: You! You knew about this you didn't?! Actually, it was my idea, Stein smirked. Spirit ran off to a corner, curled up in a ball and hulked: ... Betrayal... so mean ... Why... A short time later, two new people entered the room. Okay students, I want you to meet your temporary instructors, meister Alexander and meister Shadow, Lord Death gesticulated to them as they Room. The one he had indicated that Alexander seemed uninterested and the girl named Shadow smirked when she saw Spirit in the corner. You have to mess with me, they don't seem old enough to be teachers, Soul pointed out. Don't let look fool you Soul, Shadow is actually older than she looks, Stein stated. Marie and I have some things to take care of, we'll see you all later. Stein and Marie waved goodbye before leaving the death room and heading home. Okay kids, why not show these two around. It's their first ever inside Death City, so I expect you to make them feel welcome! Lord Death shooed them all out the door. I hope they have a better sense of direction than Ms. Marie, Crona thought when they all started walking down the hallway. After turning a corner, Maka stopped in front of the door of the class crescent. This is our classroom and where to teach while you're here, Maka smiled, gesticulating for them to enter the room. Shadow found her way to the front of the classroom and sat at the top of the desk and Alexander leaned against it on the right. So, Professor Alexander, what are you going to teach? asked Soul. Please call me Alex, I'm not really a professor, and I don't want to teach you anything, Alexander smiled politely. What? Kidd raised eyebrows, but my father said you wanted to be our interim teacher. Correction, Shadow jumped out of the desk, he said we would be your temporary teachers, plural. I want to be the one who does most of the teaching though. But you're the younger right? Tsubaki looked worried. Alex snickered earn himself a glare from Shadow. Actually, I'm older than Alex, she sighed. No way, Liz furrowed her eyebrows, you don't look much older than me, let alone him. Alex was about to laugh again until he saw the death glare Shadow gave him. Well, she's twenty-two, Alex pulled, she's older than me, not much, but she is. Many members of the group looked confused. She's the oldest one here, and she's going to teach us? I don't know if I can handle this, Crona moaned. You're not the only one, Soul commented. Yes, right! Black * Star laughed, There is no way you are older than Tsubaki. Just look at you! He pointed his finger at Shadow and laughed again. What do you mean? Shadow huffed and leave your hands on your hips. You are shorter than she is and you are breasts are smaller, Black* Star said bluntly. Shadow got up right only to slant again when she realized she was actually a little shorter than Tsubaki. Why are you complaining, my tits are perfectly fine, and they're at eye level short stuff! Shadow crossed her arms just below her chest. The group had shifted to form a tight circle the two. Alex, knowing that this went south and fast, went between them. Shadow, Alex gave her a skeptical look, I don't think you can say such things to your students. Hmph, I'm just a submarine, I'll tell you what I want, she stopped, I don't know why Stein wanted me to be the one to teach anyway. Yes, you do, but he's crazier than I thought if he thinks you'll do it, Alex rubbed his temple. The circle spread a little and Tsubaki took the opportunity to take the Black * Star and pull him back. Do what? Liz asked. He expects her to fight in front of students so they can study her, Alex explained, we usually fight as a team, but since we're in Death City now we have to work with guns if we were to fight properly. How can two meisters be partners? Maka looked curious. Shadow decided to re-enter the conversation: Outside of Death City, we use man-made weapons and our soul wavelengths. Shadow gave Alex a warning message not to contradict her. Perfect, Black*Star smirked, if you don't want to fight in front of students, then maybe you just have to fight one. Black * Star, you can't seriously challenge our new teacher to a fight, Kidd so disbelieving, Have you completely missed the fact that Stein personally chose her? Kidd's right, it's a bad idea, Alex reasoned, I'm pretty sure one of the reasons Stein picked us is that a few years ago we almost kicked him in the ass... Maka's eyes widened, and it looked like she wanted to ask what was happening. Yes, right! Black*Star laughed: You're just afraid to fight a star as big as me! Nice, challenge accepted Black * Star, Shadow smirked. Shadow... Alex warned. To keep it fair, no weapons, man or otherwise, she added. Excellent, we can do it in the woods behind the school as soon as this fucking trip is over, Black*Star agrees. Idiot, Alex said under his breath. Maka sighed, she just had to remember to ask about it another time. They left the classroom and started walking the hallway to the rest of the school. Anyway, patty chirped, why are you called Shadow? You don't look very dark. You're so pale! What's with your hair? Even your eyes are pale, a pale gray. Patty, don't be rude, Kidd screamed at her. Well, I prefer to think of my eyes as blue, but sometimes they look gray because of the color of the light that hits them, but I promise that they are actually blue. As for my hair, it's called being a ginger, and eye color stuff is actually common with ginger as well as pale skin, Shadow explained. So why are you called Shadow, liz pushed. As for that, Alex sighed, I hope you never find out. Let's leave it on it and finish the trip.
