The University of Arizona has developed a new model for the American Research University, creating an institution committed to excellence, access and influence. As a comprehensive public research university, ASU is measured not by who we don't include, but by who we include and how they succeed: promoting research and discovery of public value; and taking fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and general health of the communities we serve. Global First Year Arizona State Academy and edX, innovative leaders in providing unprecedented access to education, have joined forces to create the Global Academy freshman year, offering a unique, cost-effective way to break down barriers to quality education. The GFA provides students with the opportunity to complete all their first-year university courses, risk free, and pay for the credit earned after passing the course. The courses are open to anyone who does not have a request or required transcripts. University of Arizona MOOCsBrowse free online courses in a variety of subjects.
