Sheikh in the lead role. [37] The series depicts the life of Naman and Karishma's daughter and Naira's younger stepcousin Mishti, portrayed by Sheikh. [38] Production development Filming of the show began on September 11, 2008. [39] It was launched at Rambagh Palace in Jaipur, Rajasthan. [40] In January 2009, the series was primarily promoted through a campaign in six capitalcities by Star Plus together with Jagran Solutions. [41] A competition was held in the country among over 1,000 married couples, fifty of whom were selected through events such as guizzes and flight tests on radios. They were made to remarry the rituals along with the games and events held in Rambagh Palace. [42] In January 2010, a sequence was recorded without any dialogue, with only background music used during dramatic scenes when the Singhania family learns that the character Akshara justifies the love between her sister-in-law Nandhini and Naitik's friend Mohit, against them. [43] In January 2013, Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai was sent message via channel for its due to declining ratings. However, it was extended until June 2013 while the ratings rose and the decision was discontinued. [44] Besides, twice again it received letters for ending but soon when the ratings increased after it planes were dropped and the series continued. [45] During the November 2014 end, lead Hina Khan was unable to attend her shooting for a few days due to her other work schedules and the track was changed for her absence. [46] In December 2014, a scene was cut in which characters Naman and Karishma kiss were cut from the broadcast to avoid offending the show's audience. [47] The show took its first leap in 4 years on November 30, 2012 after the car accident of Naitik as he slips into a coma. [48] It then took a leap of 10 years on March 30, 2015, after Kaveri banished Akshara from the house because of Mahendra Pratap's death. [49] Then a few years jump was made on May 16, 2016, after teenage Naira was spryed from her home for fear of imprisonment. [50] Another leap of two years was made on May 21, 2018 after Shubam's death when the Suvs crashed her. [52] It took a leap of 5 years on June 7, 2019 after Naira left the Goenka house on Kartik's misconception about her. [53] The 10-year leap in March 2015 was somewhat delayed when the casting of adult Naksh was not completed. The producers auditioned over 200 people before choosing Rohan Mehra. [54] In April 2016, both Hina Khan and Karan Mehra refused to play the role of in-laws after the year-old wedding trail of their son Naksh and Tara on screen. Thus, the wedding sequences of the main characters Naira and Kartik, the sets broke out due to a short circuit. [56] Ordinary people auditioned in Delhi on 4 and 5 February 2017 and were cast for Baraathi in Naira and Kartiks weeding. [57] In August 2017, the weeding dress was designed by the character Keerti, for her and Naksh's marriage sequence, by Bollywood fashion designer Neeta Lulla. [58] In June 2019, Pankhuri Awasthy was cast as Vedika, whose role would last three months. [59] However, with the increased ratings, and becoming the most watched Hindi GEC for a few weeks in urban, her role was extended with her exit in January 2020 while in between she took a break in October and again into November 2019. [59] Speaking of Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai's success producer Rajan Shahi said: Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai doing well from us is something we must strive for every day. When a show completes this number of episodes, it becomes a challenge on how to sustain the show. There are so many topics to choose from and there are so many relationships, so it becomes a great challenge, to keep the freshness alive. Drama, intrigue, etc is just part of storytelling but still keeping the essence alive that is the challenge, it's always a day-to-day battle. [61] He also quoted that the elaborate festival celebrations that are shown are the show's strength. [62] Speaking of the introduction of the transition in the story from Akshara and Naitik to Naira and Kartik, Shahi said: We were losing out on the young audience when things went sweetly between (original protagonists) Akshara and Naitik. With the introduction of Kartik and Naira – a couple who are imperfect, make mistakes – the audience once again found a connection with on-screen characters. That's how our show has stood strong against the test of time. [63] In May 2017, Shahi said: With due respect for both actors, it is a fact that after Karan's left, we were able to consolidate our position and TRPs actually increased. After Hina's exit as well, the show has grown. This is not to say that they didn't contribute to the show, but we couldn't shoot when these two were part of the show as they had so much baggage. It was only two-three hours of photography with the leading players. Now, even if we get a choice, the authors wouldn't want Akshara back. [64] For his above statement, both Khan and Mehra expressed their displeasure, saying: During that time, he went on record to praise both of us for our dedication and professionalism. And frankly, we were probably the only leading couple on TV who continued to be with the show for eight years in a row. Despite the pressures, differences of opinion and other job opportunities, we remained loyal to and supported the producer. But now that we're not doing the show, he's very comfortable contradicting his own statements. and Mehra said: If he says I worked for two to three hours, he refers to someone else because my attendance records are evidence. In addition, I gave my notice period in advance. I don't know who he has a grudge against, and why is he saying it now? I was thanked by the channel and Rajan sir when I quit, so I don't understand how this has emerged now. [64] Casting director Hina Khan was selected to play the role of Akshara, making her acting debut. [66] Khan claimed that she knew nothing about acting when she signed the series, quoting, I didn't learn to act from anywhere. I think it's because of luck that I landed up on TV. Even after that I had to do a lot of hard work. It was harder for me when I started acting and immediately I had to perform. I never learned. [67] Karan Tacker was originally roped for the role of Naitik, but was replaced by Karan Mehra a day off promo shoot as Tacker became skeptical who was also making his acting debut. [68] Speaking about that producer Rajan Shahi said, Karan (Tacker) refused to be a part of the show one and a half days before the shooting promo. I needed to chase a new face on immediately. I accidentally met Karan Mehra, a real copy of my fictional character Naitik. [69] In June 2016, Karan Mehra stopped the program due to health issues. [70] Two sequences were shot before his exit: one was his death path and the decision was made to take the story with the kidnapping trail. [71] He was replaced by Vishal Singh in August 2019, making his entry with the Kidnap sequence in Switzerland. [72] Soon, in November 2016, Hina Khan quit when her character became monotonous to her and she was shown killed in a car accident. [74] Then, parallel lead Shivangi Joshi playing Naira and recurring a Mohsin Khan playing Kartik, who entered in May 2016, became the lead of the show, and the character Naitik became a recurring one following. [8] In 2012, Sanjay Gandhi stopped playing Mahendra because of the issues between him and his co-star Sonali Verma and Sandeep Mehta, who was replaced by Abhijit Lahiri. [75] The latter also ended after his character's death in March 2015. [76] In 2012, Urmila Sharma was replaced by Sunitha Rao as Rukmini. [77] In December 2013, Sonali Verma left his role as Gayathri Singhania because Verma planned to marry and move to the United States. Her character was shown dead after a fall from a cliff. [79] In December 2014, Ather Habib stopped playing Shaurya because he felt nothing more to explore in his character and was replaced by Yash Gera. [80] Gera also quit in 2017 due to the same reason as habibs. [81] He was replaced by Sameer Sharma in the spin-off series. [82] In 2015, Sharma Sharma Anshuman ended up looking for better opportunities and was replaced by Dheeraj Gumbar who also later quit in 2016. [83] In 2015, Ayush Agarwal quit due to personal reasons and was replaced by Shamik Abbas. In May 2016, Umang Jain plays Tara and her on-screen family members quit as the story began to focus on other tracks after the cancellation of her and Naksh's (Rohan Mehra) wedding in the show as Hina Khan plays Akshara refused to play the role of a mother-in-law. [84] In September 2016, Rohan Mehra stopped playing Naksh to participate in Bigg Boss and was replaced by Rishi Dev. [85] Dev also quit in December 2018 when he wanted to focus on his YouTube channel and was replaced by Shehzad Shaikh. [86] In September 2017, Kanchi Singh quit Gayatri Deora when her character was sidelined and replaced by Deblina Chatterjee in November 2018. [88] Anshul Pandey, who played Naman, retired in October 2016, replacing Jay Pathak in the spin-off series. [90] In January 2018, Priyanka Udhwani stopped playing Karishma because nothing was left for her character. [91] In July 2018, Vaishnavi Rao was cast as Manasi, previously played by Shreya Sharma, who the decision-makers believed it was better for the role. [92] Parul Chauhan quit in April 2019 when she did not want to play a grandmother and was replaced by Niyati Joshi as the Suvarna. [93] When the story was about to take a leap, in May 2019, Mohena Kumari Singh stopped playing Keerti after getting married, and was replaced by Harsha Khandeparkar in August 2020. [95] Deblina Chatterjee, who plays Gayatri, soon quit when she was not interested in playing a mother and was replaced by Simran Khanna. [97] Sreshth Saxena and Shubh Saxena were made to quit because of the leap. [99] Shaurya Shah, who entered june 2019 as Kairav, quit the following month due to health issues, and was immediately replaced by Tanmay Rishi. [100] In January 2020, Anmol Jyotir, who played teenage Nishanth Maheshwari for the 2017 role, was cast alongside Apoorva Jyotir to play teenage Kush and Luv. [102] As a result of COVID-19 pandemic restrictions, actors younger than ten years old were banned from performing on set, so when filming resumed in June 2020, Tanmay Rishi Shah and Maaz Champ shot their sequences from home. [103] However, with the call for characters Kairav and Vansh on the productions, they were replaced by Aarambh Trehan Sehgal and Siddharth Dubey in October 2020. [104] Filming The series is primarily filmed in Film City at Goregaon in Mumbai. [105] [106] As it was based on the families in Udaipur of Rajasthan, some sites were also filmed there. [107] [108] In December 2013, a sequence was shot at Wai. [109] Some sequences were also filmed in Rishikesh in 2016 and March 2018. [110] [111] In March 2017, the wedding track of Kartik and Naira was shot in a magnificent manner in Bikaner, Rajasthan. [112] In addition to it was also filmed various foreign locations, including Bangkok 2014, Cape Town 2015, Hong Kong 2015, Switzerland 2016 and Greece 2017. [113] [114] [115] [116] [117] Crossover Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai has had several crossover episodes with various shows. On December 28, 2009, the show had a crossover with Sapna Babul Ka... Bidaai, i.e. On August 24, 2012, the series had a crossover episode with Diva Aur Baati Hum. [118] On March 3, 2016, actress Deepika Singh as Sandhya of Diva Aur Baati Hum made an entry during Naira's kidnapping sequence. [119] The Broadcast series originally aired from Monday to Thursday during the best-time slot at 9:30 p.m. (IST) and was later extended to Friday. In October 2009, it aired throughout the week due to good ratings until November 2009. [120] [121] In 2014, it was extended to Saturday and soon reduced back to Friday again. [122] Sometimes some of the episodes were broadcast as special episodes for an hour on Saturdays. [123] The series, which was in continuous production since its premiere, was stopped indefinitely in March 2020. [124] Owing COVID-19 outbreak in India, filming of the TV series and movies was halted on March 19, 2020, is expected to resume the works from 1 April 2020 and the series airing was stopped on March 25, 2020 after the bank episodes came over. [125] [126] However later on imposing the nationwide lockdown, which extends with the increasing cases, the filming could not be resumed after March ends. [127] After three months, filming of the series resumed on June 26, 2020, and airing resumed from July 13, 2020. [128] Production resumed on August 24, 2020, when actors Sachin Tyagi, Swati Chitnis and Samir Onkar, along with four crew members, tested positive for the COVID-19 virus and resumed with others on August 28, 2020.
[130] [131] [132] Tv special A special segment called Rishton Ka Utsav[133][134] aired from November 26, 2018 to December 5, 2018, where Kartik and Naira are organizing a unique festival that for all generations with most of the family members of the show through all these years comes together and reunites their reunion. [135] This segment also marked the entry of Deblina Chatterjee as Gayatri Deora, replacing Kanchi Singh, who ended the show in 2017. [89] Reception Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai was touted as the greatest everyday prime-time fiction in the last three years of 2009. [136] This longest running Hindi soap is the fourth longest-running Indian television soap opera and remains one of the top-rated shows. [137] [61] It is acclaimed to be the first Hindi show to cross 2,500 episodes. [138] It completed 3,000 episodes on September 11, 2019 and created a story on the Indian television channel. [139] Hina Khan participated in the 'Power of 49' campaign, where soap-scavengers used their influence to women to vote. [140] Hina Khan who rose to immense fame as Akshara was paid with 1.25 Missing per episode from 2015 and 2016 making her one of the highest paid Indian to actress. [141] [142] Critics shoma Munshi in their book Top Time Soap Operas on Indian television said the show has simplicity and highly emotional content and was noted to place female characters in the historical tradition of a large common family. [143] Indian Express stated, Simple history, simple treatment, light pace, small tiffs, grouse, sadness, happiness, sadness, celebrations, rituals, customs but no melodrama and no scheming and plotting.... it is every day life is beautifully captured and that pleases the eyes, ears and other senses. Not that it hasn't resorted to TRP gimmicks like misunderstandings, pregnancy and miscarriages to come out of their lows, but the show has chronicled the post-marriage journey of an arranged married couple quite well. [144] They also quoted, There is a sense of positivity and reality in the show, that no other serial offerings on the small screen. [139] Praise the two shows Bidaii and Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai of Rajan Shahi's Director's Kut Production as game changers of Starplus who do not have excessive camera moves and mother in law - daughter in team melodrama unlike previously aired dramas, The Times of India stated, Shows sufficiently emphasized the quintessential emotion with lots of romance and simplicity in storytelling. [145] Speaking of the success of the series, The New Indian Express said, Like most successful TV series in our country, Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai has always banged heavily on the great Indian family. But the show, along with its cast, has changed over the decade, to accommodate changing times. Perhaps that's where the winning formula lies— in maintaining their old core values in an ever-changing set-up. [146] Rating It received a rating of 7.9 TVR in its launch episode with more than 14 million viewers and received about 30 million viewers during the opening week, averaging 6.1 TVR during that week. [147] [148] Because of this, it was hailed as the best primetime fiction release of that time. [149] Since its premiere, Yeh Rishta mostly retained his position in the top 10 Hindi shows. [149] [150] [145] In 2009 and 2010, it garnered ratings mostly averaging between 6 and 7 TVR while the next two years between 4 and 5 TVR, maintaining its position in

Akshara's death track, when the story began to focus on Naira and Kartik, gradually increased the viewer again and went into the top three shows back in March 2017 while it averaged 7 million viewers in urban. [188] In week 24 of 2018, with the leap of two years, the ratings in the series increased, occupying third place while the following week it went down to sixth place and to eighth place next week in urban. [189] [190] [191] The week following (week 27), it increased to fourth position with 6.2 million impressions in urban. [192] In August 2018, the ratings of the show spiked becoming the second most-watched Hindi show in the urban average of 8 million impressions during the Naira and Kartik's divorce track. [193] In week 38, it was in third position with 6.4 million impressions in urban, hitting its rival show on Zee TV's Kundali Bhagya airing at the same time of Yeh Rishta. [194] In week 40, it was in fourth place with 7.3 million impressions in urban. [195] In week 51, it was in sixth place with 6.3 million impressions in urban. [196] In the first week of 2019, it occupied seventeenth position collecting 7.9 million views overall top 20 list (urban + rural). [197] In Week 3 of 2019, it occupied the third position garnering 6.6 million impressions, beating its rival show Kundali Bhagya in Urban . [198] After the five years leap in June 2019, the series that was out of the top five Hindi GEC before its entry back occupies second place. [199] Pankhuri Awasthi, who entered as Vedika in June 2019, received many hate from the audience because of her grey character[200] which appeared as an obstacle between the reunion of the main characters Kartik (Mohsin Khan) and Naira (Shivangi Joshi). [201] [202] The hashtag #RIPdirectorskutproduction began trending on social media following Kartik and Vedika's marriage trail. [203] Despite these, the show retained the top spot in its urban display during this course and remained in the top three Hindi GEC total (urban +rural). [204] [205] [206] During which in week 28 it was in third position with 10.6 million impressions in urban +rural ratings with 7.2 million impressions in cities alone. [207] In week 34, it collected its peak rate of that year with 9.1 million impressions in urban most seen there and 13+ million impressions overall, occupying Position. [208] However, its main position held for many weeks was taken back by Kundali Bhagya in September 2019 pushing it to second decoration 8.1 million impressions in urban. [209] In week 45 2019, it occupied fourth position with 6.4 million impressions in urban. [210] In week 48, it occupied second seats with 6.6 million impressions and after the week at the sixth position with 6.1 million impressions in urban. [211] [212] In weeks 52 and 53, it occupied the seventh and tenth positions in Hindi GEC Urban. [213] It became the most watched Indian Hindi show on the digital platform Hotstar in 2019. [214] In the first week of 2020, the tenth position in urban took up with 6.2 million impressions while the previous week it was at seventh position. [217] In week 24 of 2020, the rerun of the series of sequences became after the four-year leap in star Utsav the fifth most viewed Hindi GEC in urban districts with 4.3 million impressions. [218] The following week, the reprise became the fifth most Hindi GEC total (urban + rural) with 7.5 million impressions. [219] The Post one week when the series resumed broadcasting on StarPlus after a three-month break, owing COVID-19 in week 29, it ranks sixth in Hindi GEC City with 4.7 million impressions. [220] Adaptations From 2011 to 2015, the show was dubbed as Uravugal Thorarkadhai in Tamil on Star Vijay and as Pellante Noorella Panta in Telugu on Star Maa, both were canceled after airing more than 1,000 episodes. [221] [222] [223] in 2017, the show was dubbed in Malayalam under the title Akkareyanente Maanasam 2 on Asianet Plus[224] and also in Tamil as Uravugal Thodarkadhai 2 on Star Vijay Super[225] from the episode in 2075, but was canceled within a few months. The series airs internationally as Not Without My Family on Star Life. [226] It is broadcast on ANTV as Yeh Rishta in
