Maple Ave., adjacent to Big Lots. Hobby Lobby estimated that opening for its new location will be in April 2021. The Mid-East Ohio Department of Construction granted the project permit on March 10, just days before the state government shut down businesses due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Matt Schley, the city's director of community development, also confirmed that the plans were approved earlier this year. He said the plans included a 3,000-square-foot extension to Brandywine Boulevard They are being upgraded from the current structure and will rehash the exterior, Schley said. TLM Realty, based in New York, owns the parking lot, which is part of colony square mall.
