The Beautiful Chaos by Cammy Garcia and Margaret Stoll Eaton is a small one for their struggle at the top of the water tower. he wakes up falling out of bed for the fifth morning in a row. Link was already there when Ethan came down for breakfast. The connection is to get used to being part of an incubus and making fun of some. It's bad food for Ethan. Ama warns him he's on his way. Gatlin has a heat wave and slag infection (black locusts that swarm like locus). Ethan and Link sneak into the school parking lot to see Lina driving the hearse and dressing like her. Ridley arguing about it. Emily is disgusted with the scene, proving link's new chick doesn't affect everyone. Savannah spotted Lena's golden eye and made a comment. Lena cut her off. Ridley's having trouble adjusting to high school life. Her boys weighed in, but she's only interested in Link. Savannah continues to pursue him, too. Ethan hears a strange voice in his head. When he looks down at his notebook, he writes Wait in his own handwriting. Ridley used a spell to change Link's schedule to escape Savannah. Lena and Ethan are trying to tell her how dangerous it is to throw themselves like mortals. Ridley notes that Ethan and Lina left after school and returned to Ravenwood. They ponder how the world has changed and how to fix it. Lena knows that she will have to pay a price for her choice; She just doesn't know when. Later at dinner, Ethan's father said the idea for a book called 18 Moons came to him. Ethan and Azma are freaking out. As I went to bed, he told Lena. they think it could be Abraham or Sarafin. Ethan hears the song 18 moons. The kitchen has problems with cooking, and the rest of the actors' world also feels the impact of broken order. Macon reads death papers from around the world, commemorating disasters. Even Jackson High has some anomalies. After school, Ridley tells her to leave Link alone. Savannah refuses. Ridley has all the cheerleaders in a pyramid and he fell on it. Ethan and Lina decided to go into the tunnels. Her bedroom door's stuck, and Ethan thinks he hears an incubus ripping off before it opens. Lena is curious about Dorytos in Ridley's room because she knows her cousin likes sweet, not salty things. They do it in the tunnels. overheard Macon and Liv talking about John Breed being bred for a reason. Macon thinks he's Adam, and Lena could be Eve of a new kind that Abraham is working on. Lena ran to her room and Ethan followed him without telling them they had learned their secret. Lena goes with Ethan and Aunt Dell to the himself, his doppelganger and a river of blood. He wakes up and calls Link. His best friend comes and they talk. Link hears Emma downstairs leaving the house. They follow her through the outside door of the tunnel fair. He's coming out another door, arriving in New Orleans. They continue to follow her into the cemetery and eventually a tomb of a voodoo queen, where they find a trap door. Link and Ethan finally catch up and hear Amama's conversation with a dark voodoo man (bocor). It shows him the spread of the cards and the death he wants to change. He asks if he knows where something is hidden and she replies it's free. She says she knows the price to save the lost, and she agrees with her. Ethan's going to talk to Marian about Ama's trip. Marianne agrees to do some research, but knows she won't be able to answer the big question: what's on the cards Amma wants to change? Ethan read a newspaper that Marian was suspended because the order was violated. They leave the archive to see books everywhere. They open, read and clean, receiving messages of madness and death. Ethan wakes up from a dream to find Abraham in his room, wanting to know where John is. Ethan says he doesn't know, but Abraham doesn't trust him. Link travelled for the first time to help Ethan, but eventually landed on top of him. Amma comes and threatens Abraham, who makes his own threat before unleashing the wind in the bedroom. Abraham calls his swirling inhabitants into the room. Amama starts calling the greats, but she's interrupted by Abraham's departure. The vexes go out the window and spread over the city. No one can sleep, so the three of them sit around the table until the phone rings. Ama responds and then tells the boys to drive her. The main street is a wreck and the library is on fire, but worst of all, part of Ethan's aunt collapsed. His aunt Prue didn't react. Ethan started running, knowing he had to find John. Ethan, his father and Azma are dealing with the other two healthy sisters who are moving with them. Amma helps Ethan sneak Lena into her room so they can have some time Ethan notices that the copy of Lena's High Hopes was found in the ruins of Sarafine's old house. He's trying to get it from her, and they're embarking on a vision. Sarafin goes to John ledes to tell him she's darkened. They decide to run away so they can be together. Lena points to the marking in the whole book. Ethan and Lina are going him to go with her. She's asking if she'il come back with him, but she doesn't know. She knows the wheel of fortune isn't over with him. Lena comes back and wakes up. The nurse's coming to get them out. Lina comes back for her bag and Ethan sneaks in to visit a boy who writes in the same place on a page. He moves the paper, and the boy named John writes that the world will end on the eighteenth moon. Ethan's so scared he's having trouble driving. Lena controls the car as they discuss the signs Ethan received. They think John Breed's 18th moon is the end is near and demons come. Ethan decided to talk to Ama about John and the 18th moon, but when he got to her door, he smelled the dark voodoo. She won't tell him what she's doing so she decides not to ask for help. He also realizes that he's been forgetting a lot lately. He called Marian and asked her to meet him at Ravenwood. Then he's from Celtic Lena and goes to get Link. They examine the burn marks that lead to the door. They notice that the house is shaking and trying to get inside, but the door does not open for Ethan. Lena has to let them go. Everyone gathers around the table. Liv shows up and starts explaining the tremors come from inside the house. Macon goes through Ethan's mind and finds that an unin invited guest is with him and something is missing. Ethan gets angry and twists after telling them about John's 18th moon. Ethan dreams of the voice again. As he thinks of Lena in his room, he sees another vision of his mother's there like a shed. She comforts him and tells him he needs to relax because it was time for him to go. He's trying to calm him down before he leaves. While on Milk King, Ethan ate the disgraceful disgusting rags, and Ridley explained why they were invited to Savannah's party: she joined the cheerleading team. Lena's mad. They go watch Ridley cheerleading (and upset Savannah). Ethan tells Lena that Ridley has to deal with its own problems. He tells her that his mother comes to him and mentions the wheel of fate as man and evil like many faces. Lena said they'd solve Ethan's problem. Lina took Ethan to the library where he found his father, Mitchell, talking to his teacher Lillian Point. Ethan and Lina move away from them, and Marianne sends the adults. She tells them that the Council of the Distant Guards is coming to ask questions. Ethan wants to stay and send Lena to pick up Macon so he can be there. The council arrives and begins to sue. Marian admits she didn't stop Liv and sent her to protect her from them. Liv shows up and takes responsibility for her actions. The council is leaving. Macon asks Lena to help her with the records and Ethan takes Liv home. Along the way, Ethan takes Liv to Waite for Ama's cooking. While taking a jar of cans from the basement, Ethan and Liv found a secret door that was probably used to hide escaped slaves. It leads to a tunnel. At the end of the tunnel, they find a wood door, Temporis Gate. Ethan's trying to open it, but he's not going to soften. He says it to show him what he needs to see, and it opens up. He sees Marian's case in the Far Pazi. She was found guilty of treason. No one seems to be able to see or hear it until he pounces on Mrs English. She explains that someone should be blamed for the fact that the order is broken and only Ethan can stop the wheel of fortune from smashing them. The door appears in the middle of the stage. Ethan touches him and goes back to the tunnel. He explains to Liv what happened and they think a future is possible, if not in the future. They agreed to keep Marian off the council. Ethan goes to check on Marian, but he doesn't open the door. Liv shows up for the same reason and they have a chance to catch up. She admits she misses her and he goes back to the sentiment. He gives her an invitation to Savannah's party so everyone can go out, but she doesn't commit. At the movie theater, Ethan told Lena to invite Liv to the party. She's not happy about it, but quickly distracts from Ethan forgetting her usual order of popcorn and dairy wood. Link and Ridley (who each appeared with separate dates) also demand their attention. Ethan tells Link to ask Ridley at Savannah's party. Links. Later, he eventually beat Ridley's date. Ethan comes home and finds a note from Liv saying he's going to the party. Ethan, Lina and Link are going to the party. Ethan lets Lena and Liv talk and hears that Savannah has organized the party. Ethan lets Lena and Liv talk and hears that Savannah has organized the party so the teams can meet Link. Ethan goes to tell him, but he doesn't care. He goes to Ridley and says it's always been her. She shunned him, and he went back to Savannah, who kissed him. throws a furore and everyone starts fighting, including Lena and Liv expressing their true feelings. Ethan took them to Ravenwood, which deleted them. They open Ridley's door to call her and see her. Ridley dug up the archephrine and let him out of it, only to keep it at Ravenwood. She has a scorpion belt that allows her to use her powers to throw. they brought Reece, who confirms that he is telling the truth. They decided to take John to Marian in the tunnels. They all come together at a table. John says they underestimate Ridley when he wants something he keeps telling them he takes on the forces of wood when he touches them. The actor keeps his strength, but so does he. However, he is not sure how to use most of them. John quoted some racist propaganda that abraham and Silas made to remember. Miken asks John how he knows his father, and John tells them silas raised him. Ethan and Lina spend a lot of time reading while Macon and Lina spend a lot of time reading while Macon and Liv interview John. Ridley's gone. Eventually, Ethan goes to Aunt Prue's. He dreams of her again, and she gives him a necklace to give to Lena, saying it will help her watch over the girl of the army. Ethan goes to Lena and holds her hand for the necklace, saying Aunt Prue also came to say goodbye. The shadow song tells Ethan that whoever's two will fix the order. But he won't tell him what's going on. At school, he found his father having lunch with Mrs. English. She asked him to film Crewsibel's reconstruction classes. He agrees. Throughout the ordeal, Ethan wondered if it made any deeper sense for him to play John. He sees his reflection in the camera lens does not monitor his movements and leaves the room as quickly as he can completely go crazy. Ethan sends Ethan to Mrs. English's house with plates to apologize. She invites him inside, and suddenly, Abraham and Sarafin arrive with the Book of Companions. They chant for a cast and Mrs English becomes Lilum, the wheel of fortune (the demon gueen). Abraham commanded and sent with Sarafin. She tells Ethan that for a new order, there must be a victim of the one who's two. Lena's going to tie him up, and Ethan's busy finding the guy. Ethan and Lina sit in Mrs English's empty classroom talking about what happened. They decide to leave the school and go to the lake to die without thinking. They join Liv in Macon's office in the tunnels to interrogate John. Sooner or later, he started talking. They decide to leave the school and go to the lake to die without thinking. They decide to leave the school and go to the lake to die without thinking. raised him as an incubus to hate the Castros. Abraham believes that castrators are and all (light and dark) must be destroyed. At home, Ethan decides to read. He feels that Lena turns to one page, and they are sucked into another vision. Sarafin how to control his powers. He shows her the prophecy that she will darken, but Lina will have a choice. Well, he's making thanksgiving dinner. Ethan and Lena feel bad when Liv doesn't show up, so they decide to pick her up from an Ama pecan pie. Ethan goes into the tunnels, and Lena stays to check ridley's room. Ethan eavesdrops on John and Liv. After a while, he declares himself and asks Liv for help. He tries to apologise, but also warns her about John. He asks her about the wheel of fortune. Liv thinks it has something to do with the symbol of the Gate and Ethan. After waking up from another nightmare, Ethan sheer of himself and explains that his soul is divided when Lena and Oma bring him back. They ask how to fix it, but the boco says he and Ama are working on it. He asks about the price Amma has to pay, but he doesn't say. Ethan finally faces Ama when he gets home. Her reaction convinced him he was going crazy. She prayed to the greats for forgiveness when Ethan told her he had gone to see the bocorah. She paints a sparrow with a broken wing from the deck. The greats don't answer. Ethan buys tickets to the winter form because maybe their last chance. Lena's not happy about what happened last year, but she's agreeing to leave. to shake off him. Link and Savannah pick up Ethan for the dance and head to Ravenwood. Lena surprised Ethan by inviting John and Link has a lot of fun. Ridley shows up and shows Link that she's become a siren again so they can be together. He refuses to join the bad guys, and she leaves. The whole group will be preparing to leave, but meet Hunting and his blood pack. They were able to track John down because he left the tunnels. Liv tells John to break away, but he refuses. The link supports him. Macon arrives and uses his new power to emulate the light, killing Hunt's pack, but he doesn't have the energy to finish his brother. Back in Ravenwood, Ethan and Lina sit on the porch. Lean worries that Ridley you'il end up like Sarafin. Ethan touches Lena's bracelet, which was her mother, and they embark on a vision. Sarafin spends a lot of time in Abraham's office in the tunnels. He's trying to figure out how to control his powers and the voices in his head. The hunt makes fun of her for trying to be light. She overheard her half-brother talking to Abraham about the prophecy and how he tried to help Lena. John, her husband, threatens to leave with Lena if Sarafin doesn't stop dating Abraham. It surrounds him with fire. Later that night, Lena woke up to tell him Marian was missing and Macon went to help her. Lena, Ethan, John and Liv are heading to the Gate of the Tempos. Ethan's disappointed at first. Liv and he realized that the wheels on the door were for the three guardians who came to visit Marianne with the Caster Chronicles, which represent a past, present and future that will not be/will not be. When Ethan stopped to see a door and began to see a path, he was granted access. He tells Liv about his experience with Lium, and she says that a plum on Earth means apocalypse. They form a chain and pass. They're at Marian's sentencing. Just as they declare that he is guilty of treason and must be sent back into the dark fire, Macon appears. John's introducing himself. He has a lena and Macon shows up and points out that he can do the same. Angelus, the keeper, is furious. There is a bright bright and they all return to Temporis Porta, including Marianne. In Macon's office, the whole group started talking about what was going on. Angelus hates mortals and wonders if he's in league with Abraham. Marianne has only one week until her sentence is served. Lena and Ethan go to their place in greenbriar's garden. Abraham and Sarafin appeared to kill Lena because they think she is the one who is two. Lena prevails over the flame of her mothers. Ethan escapes Abraham with the help of the other half of his soul. Sarafin pleaded with Lena for her life, but gave up her lack of care, saying the same thing she said when she killed her husband, John. They're up against Abraham, but the whole of Lena can think about how she killed her mother. The incubus tells them their time is up. Abraham used the Book of Companions to open the earth and release demons. Ethan and Lina start running, but the earthquake shakes like a loose one. The link heads towards them in the scourge, with Boo running up to him. He uses his power to drag them in and rips them out of there. They end with trees and head to the cemetery. The earth trembles again and the graves begin to empty. they see the demon bring a corpse to life and then leave the body behind. Link compares their situation to how the Bible describes the end. Ethan's 15. 18 deaths. There's 16 in the morgue. Ethan's pretty sure he knows who number 17 is. When he gets to Aunt Prue, Amama, Tuaela, Arela and Leah are already there. Ethan took his aunt's hand so he could say goodbye. All of a sudden, he broke into the vine, Exile. Aunt Prue opens the door when Ethan can't. She asks him to go a little with her like he promised. Ethan looks out the door and you can see it. He's ready to go, but the rest of the girls are stopping him. The family is hanging around to try to respond to all of Prue's latest requests in the letter she wrote. Ethan's at the funeral. She has several complaints, but is generally happy with voter turnout. Azma is read a prophetic poem. Ethan dreams of fighting again in the water tower. John wakes him up and tells him to take him there because he believes he's the one. Liv shows up. They say goodbye and John jumps out of the water tower. Liam says John's not the only one. Ethan, Liv and John were transported back to Ethan's room. Ethan goes to Mrs. English's house and starts asking her about the 18th moon. He was transported to Waite's field, where he leads the field. He knows he's the one who's two, the crucible. He bargains with Lulum, and she promises to save her friends. He's ready. He returned to Ms English's living room and called 911 because she was collapsing again. He leaves before the ambulance arrives and spends his final hours with Lena. Ethan hangs out with Link and gives him a comic book to remember. Link admits that Twinkie, who started their friendship, never touched the floor. Ethan goes to see Marian (who is no longer convicted by Far Keep) and Liv. They guickly figure it out and say goodbye. Lena's about to deal with Ethan's possible death. He's giving her his card. She gives him her charming necklace. He tries to get her to promise that she will bind the new order, but she doesn't think she can. Ethan goes to the water tower in the middle of the night so they don't try to dissuade him. John shows up because Ethan was there when he tried to pay his debt to create the new order. Azma appears with the boco, who begins to drop unclaimed souls to stop Ethan. John is useless against them. Macon threatens the bocor and leaves. But they're abandoning her to do the right thing. Ethan's starting to climb. At the top of the water tower, Ethan struggles with the other half of his soul trying to stop him. They fall off the tower, and Ethan thinks of Lena all the way down. Down.
