Connection with spirit and power The main theme for December is weaving a new reality. Surely it is time to stop whining and complaining and start taking responsibility for the future and the reality that we want to create. There's a lot of pressure on the team to do everything they can to get ready for where we're going. This pressure is magnified by 2 eclipses (November 30th and 14th) and can be experienced individually as a great need for change and desire to connect deeper or reconnect to your spiritual life. It's an exciting and scary time as we face a truly unknown future, a blank canvas, ready and ready for all of us to paint the first move, weaving the first thread. We're pulled into a higher octave, whether we like it or not, or whether it's comfortable or not. Just as the butterfly nut destroys the caterpillar to transform it into a butterfly form, we are undergoing a transformation that requires the deconstruction of the old one. This transformation can be intolerable when we process the loss of known forms, structures, relationships, attachments, customs and procedures.
