A dios le pido in english

March 2016 edit: check out the comments for some corrections and insight into the meaning of this song. I decided not to edit any of my translations because they are a record of my journey learning Spanish. Thank you to readers who have suggested corrections or alternative translations! As soon as you start listening to this song by Colombian musician Juanes, I'm afraid you're going to get away with it all day. And all night long. Luckily, it's a beautiful song. I think it might actually be my favorite song so far! Melodies, lyrics, percussion, conjunctive (ha!) – it's perfect. It's obviously a song about love and family, but there's also a political message. Another interesting note: you will notice the use of wasps as the second person of the singager in this song (si me enamoro sea de wasps). Que mis ojos se despierten Con la luz de tu mirada yo A Dios le pido Que mi madre no se muera Y que mi padre me recuerde A Dios le pido That my eyes awaken to the light Que mis so that my mother does not die that I remember my father I pray to God Que te quedes and mi lado Y que más nunca te me vayas mi vida A Dios le pido Que mi alma no descanse cuando De amarte se rate mi cielo A Dios le pido, that you will stay by my side, that you will never leave me, my life I pray to God that my soul is not resting when Loving you is like heaven I pray to God Por los días que me quedan Y las noches que aún no llegan yo A Dios le pido Por los hijos de mis hijos Y los hijos de tus hijos A Dios le pido For the days I have gone and the nights that have not yet come, I pray to God for the children of my children and the children of your children I pray to God Que mi pueblo no derrame tanta sangre Y se levante mi gente A Dios le pido Que mi alma no descanse cuando De amarte se dirate mi cielo A Dios le pido That my people do not shed so much blood and that they rise I pray to God that my soul does not rest when Loving you is like heaven I pray to God Un segundo más de vida para darte Y mi corazón entero entregarte Un segundo más de vida para darte Y a tu lado para siempre yo quedarme Un segundo más de vida yo A Dios le pido One more second of life to give you and my whole heart to give you one more second of life, to give you one more second of life to give you And to stay by your side One more second of life, I pray to God Que si me muero sea de amor Y si me enamoro sea de vos Y que de tu voz sea este corazón Todos los días a Dios le pido If I die , it can be love And if I fall in love, may it be with you And may your voice be this heart Every day I pray to God Que si muero sea de amor Y si me enamoro sea de vos Y que de tu voz sea este corazón Todos los días a Dios le pido If I die it can be love And if I fall in love, may it be with you And may your voice be this heart Every day I pray to God Que si muero sea de amor Y si me enamoro sea de vos Y que de tu voz sea este corazón Todos los días a Dios le pido If I die Let it be out of love and if I fall in love, let it be with you and let your voice be this heart Every day I pray to God as always if you notice any errors or misinterpretation, please let me know. In 2006, the song was re-released in some european countries, right after the success of La Camisa, which mapped out in almost all European countries in the top five. In 12 countries on three different continents, it reached Number 1. And Dios le Pido spent 47 consecutive weeks on Billboard's Hot Latin Tracks reaching number 2 (held from number one instead of Y Tú Te Vas Chayanne and Jennifer Peña's El Dolor de Tusencia). The song won a Latin Grammy award for best rock song at the Latin Grammy Awards in 2002, the second year in a row for the singer. [quote required] The song is an anthem asking God to bless and protect the singer's family, future children, and close friends. It quickly became a hymn for peace throughout Latin America, especially since the line Dios le pido que mi pueblo no derrame tanta sangre y se levante mi gente, – (I ask God: can my country not shed so much blood and may my people rise).
