News Sentinel Staff | Knoxville News Sentinel Harry Wayne Wampler, who at 14 started working in the family's sausage business, which eventually included Family Brands International in Lenoir City, died Thursday while surrounded by family. Mr. Wampler died 11 days shy of his 82 birthday. Mr. Wampler was born in Lenoir City and was the eldest of seven children. He graduated from Lenoir City High School. While serving in the Army Reserves, Mr. Wampler cherished his love of cooking as a military cook. In 1965, he carried his culinary talents into the family business, Wampler's Farm Sausage. He worked in the meat packing business for the rest of his life, until his death. He became CEO of Family Brands International, which served as a multi-brand food umbrella company, including Elm Hill Meats. In leading a successful business, Mr. Wampler also found time to serve his community, both on various boards and as a member of the city council. He has been a Member of Lenoir City Council for 26 years and deputy mayor of Lenoir City for 16 years. Mr. Wampler's name is included in the November 8 vote for another four-year term in the Lenoir City Council race. He is among five candidates in the openings of three board seats. The Loudon County Electoral Commission will decide the best course of action if Mr. Wampler wins a seat on the city council again. In addition, he serves the 26-year-old Lenoir City Utilities Board, p. Wampler was on the boards of Baptist Hospital, Roane State Community College, Harrison Chilhowie School, Small Business Bureau, United Way, SunTrust Bank, Third National Bank and Bank of Loudon County. Mr. Wampler is survived by his wife, Jennifer Lauderdale Wampler; Sons Joseph Wampler, Jeremiah (Shinae) Wampler, Tim (Chita) Wampler, Chris (Angela) Wampler, Paul (Beth) Wampler and 10 grandchildren. The family will receive friends at 1-5 p.m. Saturday, October 22, and 3-6 p.m.m., October 23, at the First Baptist Church, 2085 Simpson Road, Lenoir City. The celebrations will be held at 6 p.m.m Sunday, October 23, at the Shrine of the First Baptist Church. The interment will be at 11:00 .m Monday, October 24, at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Lenoir City. The full military honor will be given by the Loudon County Veterans Honor Guard. Instead of flowers, the family asks for donations to the First Baptist Church Building Foundation, 2085 Simpson Road, Lenoir City, TN 37772 or Hispanic Church, Iglesia Bautista de La Fe, 1965 Martel Road, Lenoir City, TN 37772.
