Although this soon backfired, both Koro-sensei and the students quickly noticed that Irina Jelavić had feelings for Tadaomi Karasuma. Koro-sensei and the students decided to prepare a romantic dinner for the two teachers to bring them together. Irina kisses her napkin and places it on Karasuma's lips as a subtle confession before leaving, but Karasuma seems to focus more on her task than getting her message. On the last day of the summer holidays, Koro-sensei invites its students to a local summer festival. Meanwhile, Lovro Brovski is attacked by a mysterious assassin. 242 Time KaedeTranscription: No Jikan (Japanese: カエデの日)January 14, 2016 (2016-01-14)TBA Inspired by an article about surplus eggs, Kaede Kayano came up with a plan to kill Koro-sensei by building a giant caramel pudding containing a hidden bomb, with all the students uniting to help make it. While Koro-sensei must have looked through the plan and deactivated the bombshell, she shared the remaining caramel pudding with her students. Later, the students participate in the game Police and Robbers, where they have to use parkour to avoid being captured by Karasuma, but the captives manage to use bribes to make Koro-sensei let them escape. The next day, the students accused Koro-sensei of stealing underwear from all over the city, but they later suspected that she was being framed by someone. They soon discover the real culprit becomes one of Karasuma's subordinates, who has been used by Shiro to lure Koro-sensei into a trap, a cage made of fibers that can hurt him. Shiro once again pitted Koro-sensei against Itona Horibe. 253Itona Horibe TimeTranscription: Horibe Itona no Jikan (Japanese: 堀部) At that time, Itona begins to shake from the effects of her tentacle implant, which she has been controlling due to Shiro's treatment. Shiro leaves after being deemed not to use Itona further, which then goes on a rampage and begins to destroy mobile phone shops. When Koro-sensei tries to confer with Itona, Shiro attacks Koro-sensei and captures Itona. Shiro lures Koro-sensei into another trap, but the students arrive on the scene to rescue Koro-sensei and Itona, forcing Shiro to retreat. The students soon learn that Itona was allegedly abandoned by her parents after their electronics company went bankrupt. After Takuya Muramatsu, Taisei Yoshida and Kirara Hazama each failed to comfort Itona, Ryōma Terasaka managed to calm Itona down, allowing Koro-sensei to safely remove tentacles implants and enroll her as an official Grade 3-E student. 264Spinning TimeTranscription: Tsumugu Jikan (Japan: 紡ぎ)January 28, 2016 (2016-01-28)TBA Itona created a remote-controlled prototype tank, which he planned to attack in Koro-sensei's heart as a weak point. Another boy in the class suggested a fishesy lens and camouflage design for the tank, but it was later destroyed by a ferret. The girls soon learn that boys potentially want to use tanks to spy on them. Later, Masayoshi (Justice) Kimura was embarrassed on his written behalf. Justice. The students were codenamed by Koro-sensei during a training session against Karasuma, Kimura was assigned by her real name to show how well she fits in. Kimura was inspired by Koro-sensei to accept her real name, not by writing it, writing it, by how a person is associated with it. 275Leader TimeTranscription: Rida no Jikan (Japanese: リーダーの日)February 4, 2016 (2016-02-04)TBA Yūma Isogai secretly worked part-time as a waitress in a restaurant, but she was soon discovered by the Big Five Class 3-A (Gakushū Asano, Teppel Araki, Ren Sakakibara, Natsuhiko Koyama and Tomoya Seo). Gakushū threatened that he would report Isogai for expulsion unless Class 3-E could defeat Class 3-A in a sporting festival event that toppled the pole. This turned out to be an unfair exhibition match because Gakushū had his team filled with powerful American foreign exchange students led by a boy named Kevin. Nevertheless, Isogai manages to come up with some unconventional countermeasures for his teammates and the use of their unique skills against Kevin's group, eventually outwits Gakushū and takes the victory. 286Before & After Translation Time: Bifō Afutā no Jikan (Japanese: ビフオーアフターの日)February 11, 2016 (2016-02-11)TBA When preparing for their midterm exams, Grade 3-E students parkour off the school field. However, Taiga Okajima and Kimura accidentally fell on Matsukata, an old principal of Wakaba Park Nursery School, who was on his way there by bike. As a result, Koro-sensei banned students from studying for midterm exams and asked them to volunteer at the nursery school until Matsukata recovered from his injured right femur. While other students help entertain the naughty children and renovate the nursery school, Nagisa Shiota guides a bullied girl named Sakura Kiyashiki, teaching her to find the strength to return to elementary school. After two weeks, Matsukata again saw the nursery school completely transformed into a safe and pleasant environment. With no time left to study, the students performed poorly in the midterm exams, but Karma Akabane scored second place overall for studying over the summer. After learning their lesson to be careful in using their new powers, the students receive new equipment for their future assassination attempts. 297 Reaper Time, Part 1Transcription: Shingigami no Jikan Zennen (Japanese: 緋緋)February 18, 2016 (2016-02-18)TBA The Grade 3-E students noticed that Irina's birthday was a few days ago, so they went to see a florist to arrange karasuma to give Irina a bouquet for the occasion. However, the mood is spoiled when Karasuma put aside Irina's romantic interest for the good of the mission, making her a hurricane. After Irina stopped showing up at school for a few days, the students were suddenly insinuated by a florist, revealing herself as The who ordered the students to save Irina from being bound and clogged in the basement. Reaper lures students into his trap in a fortress, but they try to escape and find Irina. Some students are taken by one by one, and even Nagisa is thwarted by her stunner applause. Meanwhile, the remaining students manage to find Irina, but they discover that she has turned against them. When all the students were recaptured, Koro-sensei and Karasuma began their rescue efforts. 308Reaper Time, Part 2Transcription: Shingigami no Jikan Kōhen (Japanese: 緋緋)February 25, 2016 (2016-02-25)TBA When Koro-sensei and Karasuma reached the fort, The Reaper revealed that he had placed neck braces as explosives on students. Reaper managed to lock koro-sensei with the students, planning to kill them all in a flood canal. Choosing to protect her students, Karasuma pursues The Reaper, which triggers an explosion that traps Irina under the rubble. Hinano Kurahashi encourages Karasuma to save Irina, who was taken by Lovro after her parents were killed in a civil war when she was a child. The students managed to remove the neck braces in time and camouflage so as not to be seen in the live camera feed. Karasuma gets a drop on The Reaper and confronts him in close combat. After being shot by The Reaper with a gun hidden in his index finger, Karasuma is rescued by one of Koro-sensei's tentacles, allowing Karasuma to deliver a knockout blow. Afterwards, the students convince Irina to return as their teacher, while Karasuma gets the government to ensure that the students will remain safe from other killers who pursue the bounty. 319Round Two TimeTranscription: Ni-Shū-me no Jikan (Japan: 2016)March 3, 2016 (2016-03-03)TBA As a Grade 3-E student in the process of deciding their future career, Nagisa believes that she should be a professional killer, but Koro-sensei tells her to give it more thought. Nagisa returns home to her mother Hiromi Shiota, who urges Nagisa to move out of Class 3-E due to her poor grades and becomes hostile when Nagisa insists on staying in Class 3-E. The next day, Koro-sensei agrees on Nagisa's behalf to impersonate Karasuma for a parent-teacher meeting with Hiromi, stating to her that Nagisa will not be allowed to leave Class 3-E unless solely desired. Unwilling to accept no answer, Hiromi then brews Nagisa at dinner and takes her to the old college. He tried to get her to burn down the old campus to sever ties with Class 3-E. However, they were interrupted by a whip-wielding hitman who targeted Koro-sensei. Nagisa uses her murder skills to bring down the hitman and protect her mother. Choosing to pursue a different career, Nagisa decides to work hard to support Hiromi, who let her stay in Class 3-E. 3210School TimeTranscription: Gakuen-sai no Jikan (Japanese: 園) Grade 3-E students make use of their mountain location by using local ingredients to create dishes that prove a hit for customers of many familiar faces. Meanwhile, Gakushū and the other top five are using music industry business sponsorship to attract customers. When Yūji Norita comes to visit, Rio Nakamura dressed Nagisa like a girl. During their date, Nagisa finally reveals her real gender to Yūji. Impressed by Nagisa's honesty, Yūji posts about the food stall on her food blog, causing an influx of customers the next day. Koro-sensei advised his students to close their food stalls early so as not to disturb the mountain ecosystem by forging excessively. Hiromi arrives to patch things up with Nagisa. Although it closed early, Class 3-E was in third place, just behind Class 3-A and high school. 3311 Term End time, 2nd PeriodTranscription: Kimatsu no Jikan Ni-Jikan-me (Japan: 期末の末末 When Koro-sensei orders Grade 3-E students to get into the top fifty, it is revealed that Gakuho will take over lessons for Koro-3-A with his crooked educational methodology. Gakushū asked Grade 3-E students to defeat Gakuho in his own academic game, but grade 3-E students tried to do their best, perhaps better than Grade 3-A. During the final exams, students were faced with college-level questions added by Gakuho, but Grade 3-E students got through it using techniques taught not only by Koro-sensei, but also each other. 3412This Out of Time BoxTranscription: Kūkan no Jikan (Japanese: 空間) Gakushū struggles to produce a complex formula after reading the last half of the problem, but Karma finds a simple formula after reading the first part of the problem. Taking the final exam, Koro-sensei revealed that all his students managed to land in the top fifty. After Gakushū and other Class 3-A members expressed their preference for Class 3-E ideals, Gakuho took the matter into his own hands, threatening to destroy the old campus and fire Koro-sensei. To save his class and work, Koro-sensei was tasked with solving five workbooks containing grenades that could hurt him, with one of the workbooks containing real grenades. 3513Right Broadcast TimeTranscription: Jikan (Japanese: 生かす日)March 31, 2016 (2016-03-31)TBA Despite being exposed to a math workbook, Koro-sensei successfully completed another subject's workbook without without they left, after memorizing all the problems before. Left with the last workbook containing the original grenade, Gakuho reminisces about his time as a kind-hearted elementary school teacher cramming personal for his students Rikuto Ikeda, Mori and Nakai. Three years after this student moved to junior high school, Gakuho was shocked to learn that Ikeda committed suicide as a result of bullying. This led Gakuho to change his teaching approach from kind to cruel. Today, Koro-sensei protects Gakuho from actual grenades, revealing that he bases his teaching methods in Grade 3-E on Gakuho's old attitude about education. Gakuho reflects on this, allowing Class 3-E to continue and aiming to become better educators and parents. After that, Class 3-E featured a unique drama about Momotaro for the drama festival. 3614Secret Identity TimeTranscription: Shōtai no Jikan (Japanese: 真相) At that moment, Kaede suddenly attacks Koro-sensei with her own tentacles, revealing her true identity to be Akari Yukimura, the younger sister of the previous Grade 3-E teacher, Aguri Yukimura. Believing Koro-sensei was responsible for her sister's death, Kaede stole some tentacles serum from her sister's lab and arranged to join Class 3-E for revenge, withholding the pain of tentacles while waiting for the right moment to strike. Kaede then endangers his own life to fight Koro-sensei in a zebra grass field, this time with the full force of Koro-sensei's flaming tentacles. Koro-sensei hears his inner voice, wants to be saved. 3715[b]Confession TimeTranscription: Kotahaku no Jikan (Japanese: 告) Nagisa decides to use what she learns from Irina and gives Kaede a strong French kiss, surprising her long enough to allow Koro-sensei to safely remove her tentacles. Shiro, who suddenly appears with The Reaper, reveals his identity to be Kōtarō Yanagisawa, a face all too familiar with Koro-sensei. After Kaede recovers, Koro-sensei goes on to tell the truth about her past, revealing that she is The Original Reaper. Two years ago, Reaper was captured by Yanagisawa and taken to a laboratory, where he met Aguri. When The Reaper experimented with Yanagisawa's tentacles formula, he got to know Aguri well, that he was arrested after being betrayed by a disciple who would continue to be The Second Reaper. 3816 PastTranscription: Kako no Jikan (Japanese: 既) a year on, reaper's body is constantly altered by experimentation while its relationship with Aguri continues to grow stronger. Meanwhile, experiments that tested the effects of tentacles formula on mice proved disastrous, causing an explosion that destroyed seventy percent of the moon. Knowing that the same thing might happen to him within a year, The Reaper unleashes his new powers in an attempt to escape the Yanagisawa facility killing several guards and causing Yanagisawa to lose his left eye. When Aguri tries to keep him from leaving, he is fatally wounded by one of the facility's traps, asking him to keep an eye on Class 3-E in his place. Devastated by Aguri's death, The Reaper wants to be weak and deformed, and his tentacles turn him into a kind-hearted koro-sensei teacher. Back in the present, because the students were troubled by the thought of having to kill a teacher they had admired, Nagisa expressed her desire to find a way to save Koro-sensei's life. 3917Discord TimeTranscription: Bunretsu no Jikan (Japanese: 分裂の分裂 After Karma reveals that Nagisa is being arrogant and selfish, Karma grabs Nagisa's tie, but Nagisa does a triangle choke on Karma before Koro-sensei arrives to mediate the situation. The students are divided into two opposing teams in a paintball match to determine whether to kill or save Koro-sensei, with the victory decided by total elimination or flag capture. When the game begins, Karma's talent for formulating combat strategies gives the red kill team an early advantage over the blue don't kill team. However, Karma is agitated after realizing that Nagisa has seemed absent throughout the battle. Nakamura, Terasaka, Muramatsu and Yoshida of the red team approach the destroyed blue team flag, only to be abruptly removed by Nagisa alone in an instant. 4018Outcome TimeTranscription: Kekka no Jikan (Japanese: 結古の古の古)May 12, 2016 (2016-05-12)TBA With only the two of them left, Karma challenges Nagisa to fight him in a close duel. Nagisa and Karma each reminisce about their past friendships during their first year in junior high school, but they slowly begin to drift away due to Karma's violent behavior and Nagisa's hidden aura. During the duel, the two lose the knife, and Karma performs an axe kick to Nagisa to knock him down. However, Nagisa rises to execute his applause stunner, but Karma bites his tongue to withstand the effect. Nagisa manages to capture Karma in a triangle choke, making Karma admit defeat and Blue team wins. Later, Class 3-E prepares to stand on top of a rocket bound for the International Space Station to get data on how to save Koro-sensei. 4119Outer Space TimeTranscription: Uchi no Jikan (Japan: 買) Thanks to Ritsu infiltrating the space center's security mainframe, Nagisa and Karma manage to sneak on top of the rocket in place of several collision test dolls as it takes off into space. Arriving at the International Space Station, the pair managed to convince astronaut crew members to share their data before returning safely to Earth. While examining the data, Manami Okuda told other students that Koro-sensei's chances actually exploded by less than one percent with the help of drugs. Nevertheless, the students agreed to continue their assassination attempt until graduation. 4220Valentine's Day TimeTranscription: Barentan no Jikan (Japanese: バレンタンの日)May 26, 2016 (2016-05-26)TBA As students prepare for their entrance exams, Nagisa is led to consider becoming a teacher when having a conversation with Sakura during their tutoring session. Meanwhile, Karma and Nakamura notice that Kaede hesitates to give Nagisa a box of chocolates for Valentine's Day, so they show her how other female students take this approach to other male students. However, when Kaede worked up the courage to do so, she was finally unable to acknowledge her feelings for him. Elsewhere, Karasuma and Irina have a date together, discussing the possibility that Koro-sensei won't stop being targeted just because of the reduced chance of exploding. Also, Gakuho offered Koro-sensei to continue teaching classes during his next term, but Koro-sensei considered resignation instead. Karasuma advises Irina to work for the government because of her expertise, and she hints that she should move in with him. 4321Trust TimeTranscription: Shinrai no Jikan (Japanese: 信頼) After another tutoring session with Sakura, Nagisa tells Koro-sensei that she wants to be a teacher during her last career counseling session. That night, the government began executing their plan to kill Koro-sensei, trapping him in an inevitable laser barrier as they prepared to fire an orbital laser cannon within a week. With the media claiming that the students were taken hostage, Nagisa and the others spent the next few days drawing up plans to reach class and save Koro-sensei. 4422Happy Birthday TimeTranscription: Happi Basudei no Jikan (Japan: Happy Birthday Time) 9 Juni 2016 (2016-6-09)TBA Dengan tiga jam tersisa sampai Laser cannon charged, Nagisa and the others start infiltrating the mountain. Using their home turf to their advantage, the students paralyzed all the police forces guarding the area and reaching Koro-sensei, who praised their efforts to come this far despite the opportunities. He calmly shared words of wisdom with his disciples, preparing them for the road ahead. Just as Nakamura pulled out a cake and all the students celebrated Koro-sensei's birthday, Yanagisawa appeared on the scene with The Reaper, which had been powered by tentacles. Koro-sensei looks back to when The Reaper used to be an apprentice, but he never gave The Reaper his approval as a murderer. While The Reaper fights Koro-sensei, Yanagisawa injects himself with a tentacles formula and attacks Koro-sensei as well. 4523Final Boss TimeTranscription: Rasubosu no Jikan (Japanese: ラスボスの古)June 16, 2016 (2016-6-16)TBA After battling Yanagisawa and The Reaper, Koro-sensei takes further damages when Yanagisawa directs The Reaper to attack students. Yanagisawa claimed the students as a hindrance, but Koro-sensei defended his students, saying they were his greatest gift as teachers. Kaede attacks the Reaper, but is badly wounded in the process, apparently sending Koro-sensei into a rage. However, his true expression turns out to be a mixture of all his emotions, and sends a huge burst of energy blinding The Reaper and sends Yanagisawa flying into the laser barrier killing him. Koro-sensei then fatily stabs reaper, who his teacher wants to acknowledge all along. Afterwards, Koro-sensei, having managed to keep Kaede's blood safe during the battle, uses her skills to heal her injuries and revive her. 4624Transcription Graduation Time: Sotsugyō no Jikan (Japanese: 卒) Held by his beloved disciples, Koro-sensei bids his farewells to Karasuma and Irina. Koro-sensei took one last roll call, as she recalled her great experience as a teacher. Although Nagisa shakes hands with her knife, Koro-sensei calms her down, allowing Nagisa to handle a murderous blow to the heart when Koro-sensei's body turns bright and the students then grieve. Afterwards, students inspect their classrooms to find personalized diplomas, graduation albums, and guidebooks left by Koro-sensei. 4725Future TimeTranscription: Mirai no Jikan (Japanese: 未) Junior high school graduation ceremony, where Nagisa learns that Koro-sensei has helped her parents get back together. When the mass media showed up to try and interview grade 3-E 3-E students Murder, Gakushu and the rest of the Big Five helped them get away safely. Over time and the Class 3-E system was abolished, students received their prize money, set aside in part for living and education expenses, donated to nursery schools, purchased rights to old campuses and gave back to the government. Seven years later, some students gathered to tidy up the old campus and discuss what everyone had been doing for years. Meanwhile, Nagisa begins working as a training teacher at the city's high school, using skills she has learned from Koro-sensei to straighten out her delinquent class.
