When you nailed it, you can work on other aspects of your game, confident that you will be able to produce more consistent swings. Without it, precise shots will be few and far away. When your left hand grabs your club correctly, it should cover the end of the club completely. The wrist must be above the club's grip. You can have the most natural handle in the world, but if it is not aligned with the face of the club, you will not get a good shot. Before approaching the ball, look down the length of your club to make sure your handle and the face of the club are in the proper alignment. That way, when you hold the club, the face is square with the ball. [source: LearnAboutGolf.com] If you hang your club with your palms, your elbows will tell you. Sebastien Windal/Getty Images The Civil War took place between the northern and southern states of the United States between 1861 and 1865. There have been many events leading up to the civil war. After the election of President Abraham Lincoln in 1860, decades of tensions between north and south, mainly over enslavement and state rights, exploded. Eleven southern states have finally seceded from the Eu-15 to form the Confederates of America. These states were South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida and Mississippi. The remaining states in the United States of America were Maine, New York, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Jersey, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, California, Nevada and Oregon. West Virginia (which was part of the state of Virginia until Virginia seceded), Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky and Missouri were among the border states. These are states that have chosen to remain a part of the United States despite the fact that they were pro-slavery states. The war began on April 12, 1861, when Confederate troops fired on Fort Sumter, where a small unit of Union soldiers remained after secession in South Carolina. By the end of the war, more than 618,000 Americans (Union and Confederates combined) had lost their lives. The losses exceeded those of all other American wars combined.
