Then everything that's going on in Fern Creek really blew up in my mind. I'm not sure the culture of JCPS is ready to change. Posted February 22, 2019 Shows from Great Parents initially, but lately it's been a bad experience. Posted August 17, 2017 Submitted by other Love Teachers, New Headmistress, and front office staff! Only the best! Posted May 04, 2016 The parents teachers, staff, students and parents at this school are excellent. They are all really trying to unile for the success of the students. Posted September 16, 2014 Submitted another sad school here. This is the way to the big one. He also has a dress down. many students can afford these clothes. Posted October 31, 2013 Shows The Parent This School could have been much better. Yes, it's a big school with a lot of students in every classroom. Given that I think my child has little knowledge of classroom management. In Mrs. Saunders's room, she said, I'll ipock and he says it can be loud. He also says some students come and go as they want. It's not a good environment. I'm not sure all the teachers are guilty. It may not be You don't learn from the administration with these issues or management skills in college. I'm glad my time at Fern Creek Elementary School is over. Last year it was that, and now my student had to play catch up in high school. Posted August 26, 2013 The cast from my parents just started to know the school. My son's in Kindergarten. So far, everything is fine. Posted August 25, 2012 Cast from Parents While one of the better schools in the public system, leadership keeps this school back. The headmaster has a reputation for being sudden and rude to teachers, students and even volunteers. When I was initially skeptical, that reputation proved real after spending more time at school. Posted May 03, 2012 Broadcasts parent My child did not receive a proper education while in Fern Creek. My child complained that two students disrupted the entire class almost every other day. The teacher (who remains callous) says it's not in her hands. When I go to school, it's very loud. I heard screaming and screaming in the hallways. There seems to be no structure or organisation to control behavior. The principal, mrs. Riggsby must be burned out, or it doesn't matter. Well, I'm worried, and I promise my baby will be removed for next year. If you want to know how the school is going, look at the test results. They've fallen in the last three years. *School data provided by the National Center for Education Statistics, Pitney Bowes and GreatSchools. Intended for reference only.
