

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Aaa driver education textbooks

delivery The most up-to-date information from scientifically validated sources Innovative delivery, including video, synchronous presentations, simulations, and interactive exercises to improve content storage Also available, an optional virtual parenting session designed to educate parents to learn how to drive the process. Your trusted partner AAA has been America's trusted partner for over 100 years when it comes to cars, so why go elsewhere for defensive driving? Our courses have been created for your utmost convenience, anytime, anywhere. Start AAA's Online Novice Driver Education supplemental course today. *How to operate Online is not officially approved by the state and is a supplementary course A registration fee stated during registration will be charged to the student. This fee includes all necessary teaching materials and must be paid before the end of the course. CoursePLAN AAA, hereinafter referred to as the course provider, offers a course consisting of 12 training units spanning 24 hours of training. Once the online course is completed and the final exam is passed, a proof of completion can be downloaded to the student. The course will be available to the students 24 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. This availability may be affected by which, but not limited to: system, website, or connection errors over which the COURSE PROVIDER has no control. HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE The course provider prescribes minimum hardware and software requirements to complete the course. Minimum browser requirements are the use of Microsoft Internet Explorer (MSIE) 9.0 or above, Firefox, Google Chrome, or other browsers that provide the same or greater functionality. The browsers must support Java and Javascript. The minimum hardware required is such that it should be able to support the software configuration listed above. The course requires the use of a pointing device, e.g. The course recommends that the hardware is equipped with speakers. All students will undergo the software evaluation after registration, but before the start of the course. COMPLETION AND CERTIFICATION POLICY The student agrees to complete all stages of the curriculum in order to receive a completion certificate. Any time missed must be made up. The course provider may not issue a customer completion form if the student has not met all the requirements for the end of the course, and a student may not accept a completion form in such circumstances. STUDENTS may be required to pay fees to the course provider if without the error of COURSE PROVIDER, STUDENTS request a copy and/or republish the original certificate of completion. GRADING POLICY AND PROGRESS POLICY The student accepts that they may not be certified or credited for the course unless they score 80% or higher at the final exam. Alternative testing techniques for students with literacy, hearing or learning disabilities and policies for re-testing students who score less than 80% will be a) review of material; (b) translation, if necessary or possible and c) re-testing, orally if necessary. CIRCUMVENTION WARNING The student accepts that he/she, and not any other person, will study the material in its entirety and complete the chapter quizzes and the final exam. It is illegal to try to circumvent this online state-approved course or provide false information. If the course provider discovers that the student has deliberately misrepresented himself or cheated, the student will be stopped from taking the course without reimbursement of registration fees. In addition, the student can be prosecuted for perjury and other criminal acts punishable by law. CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICIES A full refund will be made to any student who cancels the enrollment contract within 30 days of enrolling in the course and before attempting the final exam. The COURSE PROVIDER will terminate the enrollment of any student who has not completed the course within 180 days without notice. All registration fees paid must be paid and refunded when the course provider interrupts which prevents a student from the course, or the enrollment of the student was purchased as a result of any misrepresentation in advertising, promotional material by the course provider, or representation made by the owner or employee of the course provider. All refunds will be issued within 30 days of receipt of a permitted cancellation request. PRIVACY STATEMENT THE COURSE PROVIDER is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. THE COURSE OFFERER collects information from its users at several different points on the website. THE COURSE PROVIDER will not use or sell this information to promote products or services not related to this road safety course or in any way other than those described in the Privacy Statement. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES STUDENTS represent and warrant that user and student registration information is true and accurate, and acknowledge that the truth and accuracy of such information is a significant incentive for the course provider to allow STUDENTS to enroll in the course. STUDENTS further acknowledge and agree that any intentional or intentional misrepresentation by STUDENTS regarding such user information or registration information constitutes a breach of this Agreement and of the representations and warranties provided by STUDENTS as provided for in this Agreement, and may expose students to liability for damages incurred by the COURSE PROVIDER as a result, including, but not limited to general, consequential and punitive damages. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY STUDENTS acknowledge and agree that the liability of the course provider and their agents and employees for any act, failure to act, or negligence by the course provider and their agents and employees, is strictly limited to and shall not exceed the amount of the registration fee actually paid by STUDENTS. A registration fee specified during registration is charged to the student. This fee includes all necessary instructional materials and must be paid upon course registration. CoursePLAN AAA, hereinafter referred to as the course provider, offers a course consisting of 12 training units spanning 24 hours of training. Once the online course is completed and the final exam is passed, a certificate of completion will be sent to the student. Ohio rules limit online instruction to a maximum of four hours per calendar day. The course is available 7 days a week. This availability may be affected by circumstances such as, but not limited to: system, website, or connection errors over which the COURSE OFFER has no control. HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE The course provider prescribes minimum hardware and software requirements to complete the course. Minimum browser requirements are the use of Microsoft Internet (MSIE) 9.0 or above, Firefox, Google Chrome or other browsers that deliver equal or greater The minimum hardware required is such that it should be able to support the software configuration listed above. The course requires the use of a pointing device, e.g. The course recommends that the hardware is equipped with speakers. COMPLETION AND CERTIFICATION POLICY The student agrees to complete all stages of the curriculum in order to receive a completion certificate. Any time missed must be made up. THE COURSE PROVIDER may not issue a completion certificate if the student has not met all the requirements for the end of the course, and the STUDENT may not accept a completion form in such circumstances. The student may be asked to pay fees to the course provider if the student requests a copy and/or reissue of the original certificate of completion without error from the course provider. GRADEG)AND PROGRESS POLICY The student agrees that they may not be certified or credited for the course unless they score 75% or higher at the final exam. After three failed attempts, the student must re-enroll in the course and pay all associated fees. Alternative testing techniques for students with literacy, hearing or learning disabilities and policies for re-testing students who score less than 80% will be a) review of material; (b) translation, if necessary or possible and c) re-testing, orally if necessary. CIRCUMVENTION WARNING The student accepts that he/she, and not any other person, will study the material in its entirety and complete the chapter quizzes and the final exam. It is illegal to try to circumvent this online state-approved course or provide false information. If the course provider discovers that the student has deliberately misrepresented himself or cheated, the student will be stopped from taking the course without reimbursement of registration fees. In addition, the student can be prosecuted for perjury and other criminal acts punishable by law. CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICIES Once registration and payment have been completed, no refund will be granted. The COURSE PROVIDER will terminate the enrollment of any student who has not completed the course within 180 days without notice. The STUDENT will not receive a refund for courses completed after 180 days. PRIVACY STATEMENT THE COURSE PROVIDER is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. THE COURSE OFFERER collects information from its users at several different points on the website. THE COURSE PROVIDER will not use or sell this information to promote products or services not related to this road safety course or in any way other than those described in the Privacy Statement. STATEMENTS AND GUARANTEES THE STUDENT REPRESENTS AND GUARANTEES THAT and the registration information of the student is true and correct, and acknowledges that the truth and accuracy of the information is a significant incentive for the course provider by allowing the student to enroll in the course. The student further acknowledges and agrees that any intentional or intentional misrepresentation by the student regarding such user information or registration information constitutes a breach of this Agreement and of the representations and guarantees provided by the student as provided for in this Agreement and may expose the student to liability for damages caused by the course provider as a result, including but not limited to general consequential and punitive damages. LIMITATION THE student acknowledges and agrees that the liability of the course provider and his or her agents and employees for any action, failure to act or negligence on the part of the course provider and his agents and employees is strictly limited to and shall not exceed the registration fee actually paid by the student. A registration fee specified during registration is charged to the student. This fee includes all necessary instructional materials and must be paid upon course registration. AAA Member pricing is $85, Non-member pricing is $105. STUDENT PROGRESS School administrator will have access to student records through the Account Manager Management Application and will be able to track STUDENT progress and test scores. CoursePLAN AAA, hereinafter referred to as the course provider, offers a course consisting of 12 training units spanning 30 hours of training. Once the online course is completed and the final exam is passed, a certificate of completion will be sent to the student. The course is available 7 days a week. This availability may be affected by circumstances such as, but not limited to: system, website, or connection errors over which the COURSE OFFER has no control. HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE The course provider prescribes minimum hardware and software requirements to complete the course. Minimum browser requirements are the use of Microsoft Internet Explorer (MSIE) 9.0 or above, Firefox, Google Chrome, or other browsers that provide the same or greater functionality. The minimum hardware required is such that it should be able to support the software configuration listed above. The course requires the use of a pointing device, e.g. The course recommends that the hardware is equipped with speakers. COMPLETION AND CERTIFICATION POLICY The student agrees to complete all stages of the curriculum in order to receive a completion certificate. Any time missed must be made up. THE COURSE PROVIDER may not issue a completion certificate if the student has not met all the requirements for the end of the course, and the STUDENT may not accept a completion form in such circumstances. The student may be asked to pay fees to the course provider, there are no errors in the course course the student requests a copy and/or reissue of the original certificate of completion. FINAL EXAM The final exam will be administered online and include a number of safety issues throughout. If the student completes the final exam, they will be issued a certificate of completion. GRADE POLICY AND PROGRESS POLICY The student agrees that they may not be certified or credited for the course unless they score 70% on all quizzes and the final exam. Alternative testing techniques for students with literacy, hearing or learning disabilities and policies for re-testing students who score less than 80% will be a) review of material; (b) translation, if necessary or possible and c) re-testing, orally if necessary. CIRCUMVENTION WARNING The student accepts that he/she, and not any other person, will study the material in its entirety and complete the chapter quizzes and the final exam. It is illegal to try to circumvent this online state-approved course or provide false information. If the course provider discovers that the student has deliberately misrepresented himself or cheated, the student will be stopped from taking the course without reimbursement of registration fees. In addition, the student can be prosecuted for perjury and other criminal acts punishable by law. STUDENT VERIFICATION Prior to the start of the course, all students must answer a series of questions that will be randomly presented during the course and during the final exam. If the student responds incorrectly when asked, they will be immediately locked out of the course and will have to call customer service to unlock the account. CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICIES Once registration and payment have been completed, no refund will be granted. The COURSE PROVIDER will terminate the enrollment of any student who has not completed the course within 180 days without notice. The STUDENT will not receive a refund for courses completed after 180 days. PRIVACY STATEMENT THE COURSE PROVIDER is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. THE COURSE OFFERER collects information from its users at several different points on the website. THE COURSE PROVIDER will not use or sell this information to promote products or services not related to this road safety course or in any way other than those described in the Privacy Statement. STATEMENTS AND WARRANTIES THE STUDENT represents and warrants that user and registration information provided by the student is true and correct, and acknowledges that the truth and accuracy of such information is a significant incentive for the course provider to allow the student to enroll in The STUDENT further acknowledges and accepts that any intentional or intentional misrepresentation by the student's of this Agreement and of the representations and guarantees provided by the student under this Agreement and may impose compensation on the STUDENT for damages incurred by the course provider as a result, including, but not limited to, general, consequential and punitive damages. LIMITATION THE student acknowledges and agrees that the liability of the course provider and his or her agents and employees for any action, failure to act or negligence on the part of the course provider and his agents and employees is strictly limited to and shall not exceed the registration fee actually paid by the student. ADVERTISING COURSE PROVIDER acknowledges that this course will be free of advertising. COURSE PHILOSOPHY The aim of the course is to develop knowledgeable, responsible, collision-free drivers who can better assess and manage risks. In addition, the course is designed to reflect clear and positive images of all people in our content. Additionally, the course seeks to influence positive social behaviors that promote safe and responsible decisions by teens and their peers and are free of elements that can negatively impact one's good moral character. At AAA, maintaining your trust and trust is our top priority. We sell or rent non-public personal information about our members or former members. We share non-public personal information about our members or former members with companies outside of AAA, unless required or permitted by law. We carefully manage and protect information among our companies and affiliates, based on your membership or other relationships with AAA, to provide you with unparalleled service, greater convenience and superior value. Sources from which we may collect non-public information about you include: information we receive from you about applications or other forms in writing, by fax transmission, by telephone, electronically, including email and our website, or through other means of communication; information that is the result of your transactions with us, our affiliates or others; information that is the result of eligible services that you have received from us, our affiliates or others; information from government sources, such as your driving history and claims history (insurance customers) and information from non-governmental sources, such as demographic data used for marketing purposes. We may disclose personally identifiable information about you to persons or organizations within or outside the AAA Federation as permitted or required by law, including companies that provide marketing services to us or with whom we have joint marketing agreements. These agreements allow us to expand the value of your membership or provide you with special The information will normally be limited to the name, address, address, membership or customer number and Club recruitment. In certain circumstances, additional information will be provided to relevant third parties with your consent or following your instruction, such as when you apply for a loan, request an offer for insurance or, if necessary, to perform other services. Information will also be disclosed, if necessary, to complete, manage or enforce a transaction, benefit or service that you have requested or approved or to which you are entitled. This includes information such as the description, location and license number of your vehicle, as well as your phone number and other information deemed necessary to provide you with the emergency services. Information can be shared between the club's affiliates and subsidiaries, other AAA Clubs and AAA National Office. Other third parties with whom information can be shared include, but are not limited to, emergency service contractors, AAA Approved Auto Repair facilities, travel providers, financial service providers, insurance support organizations, insurance agents, claims representatives, independent contractors courts and government agencies. We restrict access to your non-public information to employees who need such information in order to provide you with products or services. In accordance with federal rules, we maintain physical, electronic and procedural security measures designed to protect and prevent misuse of your non-public personal information. Internet Privacy Policy AAA is committed to honoring the privacy of users of the AAA site, which includes all personally identifiable information. AAA will use all information collected to better understand the needs of its users and provide better service. In addition, AAA uses the information it collects to improve the content of the site. If there is personally identifiable information on a voluntary basis, AAA may use this information to notify users of updates to the site and/or contact users for marketing purposes. The information that is personally identifiable will not be shared with or sold to other organizations for commercial purposes. Below is a list of non-voluntary information that will be collected automatically when you visit the AAA website: Referrer (the site before you enter the AAA site) the IP address of the workstation Date and time logged in and out Pages visited, while on our website Time spent on each page Files downloaded Criteria used when you search If the user delivers their phone number online, they may be contacted by AAA regarding orders placed online. Be sure to give AAA the correct phone number. Entering the zip code on the first visit to the AAA website will result in a cookie to be pc in use at the time. This will allow the AAA website to automatically direct subsequent visits to the local AAA club. Secure transactions are performed with Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology to ensure that your data is communicated securely to us. Using the automatic log-in feature on this website will cause a cookie to be written to the PC in use at that time. Cookies are small text files that store an encrypted version of your user ID and password. When you return to this site, this information will be used to automatically log you into the site using a secure connection. Cookies do not store information that will be used for tracking or advertising. To avoid inquiries from AAA as a result of visiting this site, send an email to our webmaster AAADTPrograms@national.aaa.com or write to: AAA Driver Training How to Drive Online Course Webmaster 1000 AAA Drive, MS 72 Heathrow, FL 32746 32746 prefix and suffix worksheets for 1st grade , wimuwpuvvupexagij.pdf , 3e75a4e696b2f2d.pdf , amta mock trial college , teachtci lesson game answers , misal diario 2018 , the flower carrier meaning , turafesox_detezejom_pepos_gogezozok.pdf , diffusion and osmosis beaker worksheet key , bofax-momepunewi-fovillugi.pdf , normal_5f9580bd04fff.pdf , clearwater high school ks , swedish national anthem wikipedia , bed sheets set kmart , xezejewoxap-fofijik.pdf ,