Read about Jeff's Players Federal League season, 700 games, completed in eight months of time with paper and pencil! Jeff's third cup (10/17) honored the conclusion of the Federal Players League (2014). Max Murphy finished with a record 21-3 and a 1.59 ERA, but lost both his start in the PFL Series. In a neat twist, Bill also created cards for his wife and daughter and added them to the season! Bill writes, It seems I made these cards a little too strong, both remained close to the top of the leaderboard throughout the season. In fact, when Jeff Gordon blew an engine near the end of the final race, Barb's 14th-term place turned out to be enough points to win the chase! (Guys, this is how you get your wife to allow you to play more mass sports!) Bill won a second cup 12/17 with a similar project using 1980 Star Cards, except this time no family member challenged for the championship! Instead, Bobby Allison fought Earnhardt, Waltrip and Elliott to win a dramatic final race at Pocono. Bills 3rd Cup (10/18) was for a custom '70stars series, was won by Richard Petty in race 35 and final of the season! Chicago, led by Don Rhoda and Bill Correll, defeated Buffalo for the Pro Bowler Brien league title.won twin cups (2/15) for his united States Association football project with SOCCER BLAST, a very cool European-style football takeoff with American teams. Brien has also completed an amazing season of fictional stock cars, the Pepsi Racing League, with its own body of drivers and an amazingly thorough anmeter of racing season! Since then he has completed the 2016 seasons (points champion Erik Robinson) and 2017 (points champion, Clinton Bailey). In 2015, Brien completed a SEASON-long SOCCER BLAST project using his own home cards, with which he supplied the twelve teams of the North American Football League, with the Seattle Sounders winning the title. He had so much fun, he doubled the size of the league and completed a full second season, this time with Metros Toronto winning the NASL championship. (1/16). I sent Brien two more cups (1/17) for two seasons of home-brewing completed with HOCKEY BLAST. In Brien's '54-55 season in the NHL, Detroit finished first, but in third place Toronto won the title, led by one season's MVP from goalkeeper Terry Sawchuk. In Brien's Keystone Hockey League, Reading won the regular season easily, but then had to survive a tense five-game run against Johnstown to win the championship. [2] BOB MAVER • Bob created his own HOCKEY BLAST cards for AHL Barons from 1963-

MCW wrestling TV season with FACE TO MAT. Greg used home-brewed wrestlers for this project, some of them were characters they'd created when he was in seventh grade! In total, there were 66 plays, including several large Pay-Per-View shows! It's most of the time when I've played a game! [1] CHAD McEVOY • Chad played a fast season with the All-Time Franchise Great Teams for the second season, using the late-game Fab Four script generator and instant results chart. I've played 16 games for all 32 teams. Every week I picked a game-of-the-week, which I finished with Fab Four. The rest of the games were played quickly with the Instant Results chart. It was a classic New England vs Green Bay match-up in the Chad championship game, with a late Aaron Rodgers at Don Hutson TD passing the difference in a 35-31 Packers win! [1] LUKE McEVOY • Luke ended an international shootout (8/2017), with sixteen teams each playing a

Stars drivers. RED WHITE & Damp: BLUE RACIN'(3/18). It's been a pretty wild season, with lots of stories and twists and turns. For most of the season, Denny Hamlin led in points until a few DNFs dropped him to second place. I saw Dale Junior injured and gone for the 28 racing season, and Jeremy Mayfield was suspended for two races for engine modifications! The final race at Homestead was very interesting, Tony Stewart captured the Cup Series on the very last turn! Terry's second Cup (6/18) was for a full run of the 2018 SCRAM program. The biggest story, Terry writes, was the meteoric rise and the fall of Ray Bob Walker!
Walker was at the top of the point standings and had a 100-point lead in mid-season, ahead of an incident with Trevor Trostel and a string-of-the-pack finishes. Wow!
