Part I: Resources for Beginners Collected for Egyptologists' Online Forum (EEF) version 23 (July 21, 2020) Content: I) Reading Hieroglyphs II) Middle Egyptian Dictionaries IV) On-line Resources Please send your reviews of the listed books to A. K. Eyma. As you will see, I have no information about any books, so your help is much appreciated. The order is more or less one of the preferences. Reviewers are listed at the end of the page. For language steps other than intermediate egyptian, see Glyph2. Should you use MacOS Safari and notice any problems with font display, this can be solved by changing the Safari default encoding settings to Western (ISO Latin 1), from Unicode (UTF-8). Books to learn something of the basics of the script, in preparation for coping with a real grammar, or if you just want to learn to read cartouches and standard formulas on pieces in museums. In English 1) Collier and Bill Manley - How to read Egyptian Hieroglyphics. A step-by-step guide to teaching yourself (British Museum Press, London, 1998; approx. GBP9.99) (also Univerity of California Press, ISBN 0-520-21597-4; 192 pp) (Note that it is a revised edition since 2003) The most recommended starter book, excellent in preparation for (and parallel to) one of the modern grammars mentioned below. With practical examples from the monuments. A website by Mike Dyall-Smith with corrections and discussions about this book (original edition) is located on the archived AEL website. 2) Bill Manley - Egyptian Hieroglyphics for complete beginners (Thames & amp; Hudson, London. 2012. $16.95; ISBN 978-0-500-29028-6) Another excellent choice for beginners. Each chapter analyzes a stele or other monumental inscription. 3) Karl-Theodore Zauzich - Hieroglyphs without mystery; An introduction to ancient Egyptian writing (University of Texas Press, 1992; ISBN 0-292-79804-0) See the German original below. The book seems to have appeared in the UK as: Discovering Egyptian hieroglyphics. A practical guide (London, 1992. 121 pp.) 4) W.V. Davies - Egyptian Hieroglyphics (British Museum, 1987; approx. GBP6.99) Fine book on the history of deciphering, origins and concepts of the script, but very, very short. It is not a real introduction, but a very general treatment of hieroglysis writing system, compared to the subject Hieroglyps in some general lexicon (only better, of course). Too short for thorough study, but very good for very basic insight into the essentials. 5) Richard H. Wilkinson - Reading Egyptian Art: A Hieroglyphic Guide to Ancient Egyptian Painting and Sculpture (T& amp; H, 1992; In 1994, he was released in 1994. In 1999, 100,000 people were discharged in 1999. about GBP9.95) Wonderful compendium of about 100 common characters with short well-illustrated essays about their use in Egyptian art. 6) Maria Betr - Hieroglyphics: The Scriptures of Ancient Egypt (Abbeville 1996; approx. GBP19.95) by Geroglifici, see the Italian original below. 7) Hilary Wilson - Understanding Hieroglyphics. A complete introductory guide (O'Mara 1993; In 1995, he was released. 192 pages; Passport books 1996; approx. GBP9.95) In a story and simple style, the book takes you through various aspects of Egyptian life. It provides tables of different sentences related to the theme (titles, parts of names, etc.) - the best in the book. But there are no transliterations anywhere, and not everyone will like the handwritten style of the hieroglyphs. Translations from monuments can be followed only if you previously know any Egyptian. It looks like an inscriptions help guide for museum visitors. Cultological informative (fine map of Egypt, hand-drawn monuments), but miles from Collier-Manley in seriously introducing the script. 8) Barbara Watterson - Introducing Egyptian Hieroglyphics, but it provides a good basic knowledge of hieroglyphics writing system, common hieroglyphics, some basic vocabulary and grammar; it also has exercises for practice. From the same author: More about Egyptian hieroglyphics, Scottish Academic Press, 1985. 9) Thomas F. Mudloff and Ronald E. Fellows - Hieroglyphics for travelers (AIA, 1999; In 1999, he became Hieroglyphic inscriptions of treasures of Tutankhamun Translated (Benben Publications, Mississauga, 1979) As the title indicates, the book translates inscriptions of the elements of the itinerant Tutankhamun exhibition in 1979-81. 11) Christian Jacq - Fascinating Hieroglyphics: Discovering, Decoding & amp; Understanding the Ancient Art (Sterling 1997; In 1999, he was released. 224 pages; approx. GBP9.99) See French original below. 12) Richard Bussmann - Complete Middle Egyptian: A new method of understanding hieroglyphics. Read texts in context. (Hodder & amp; Stoughton, 2017, ISBN 9781473609792, 39.99) The book is based on the method of discovery and contextual learning. 13) Samuel A.B. Mercer - Manual of Egyptian Hieroglyphics: a Study of the Ancient Language (revised and expanded by Janice Kamrin, Ancient Egyptian Hieroglyphics (Abrams, 2004; In 1961, 100,000 people were released. 15) Stephane Rossini - Egyptian Hieroglyphics: How to Read and Write Them (Dover Publications Inc, New York) 16) Joseph and Lenore Scott - Egyptian Hieroglyphics For All (Barnes and Noble, 1992) J. Malek - ABC of Egyptian Hieroglyphics (Ashmolean Museum, 1994; ca GBP4.95) 18) Bridget McDermott - Decoding Egyptian Hieroglyphics: How to Read It language of the pharaohs (Chronicle Books, 2001. 0-8118-3225-2) An informal introduction to the basics of hieroglyphics, plus sentence book, illustrated by many photographs of objects, but has limited space per subject. 19) Nigel Strudwick - Hieroglyph Detective: How to Decode the Holy Language of the Ancient Egyptians (Chronicle Books, 2010. In 1999, there were 100,000 people in 1998. $16.95) The goal of this book is to provide a practical, easy-to-follow guide to Egyptian hieroglyphics, giving readers sufficient grounding to enable them to decipher for themselves some inscriptions. 20) Thomas Di - The ancient Egyptian language. (Bibliotheca Alexandrina, Alexandrina, Alexandria. 2007. EGP 75.00. IBSN 978-977-6163-60-7). An Egyptian/Arabic perspective translated into English. A reasonable introduction to glyphs and grammar. 22) Henry George Fischer - Ancient Egyptian calligraphy. A beginner's guide to writing hieroglyphics (3rd ed., The Metropolitan Museum) Contains a list of many, but not all, hieroglyphics with graphic and textual explanations on how to draw the signs. The book is out of print but can be downloaded for free at The Met. In French 1) Christian Jacg - Le petit Champollion illustre (1994. 252 pp.; Mass market pocket, 2000; ISBN 978-2266067768) Jacg (well-known ancient Egyptian history writer in France; has a Doctorate from Sorbonne University) wrote a good introduction to hieroglyphics and their culture. 2) Hilary Wilson - Lire et comprendre les hieroglyphics. La methode (Le Grand du Mois, 1996. 304 pp. ISBN 978-2286303433) French translation of the English original above. What you find in the book is not what you would expect from the title: this interresting book is about what is in a name, how the king's name is built, priests, civil servants, workers at Deir el-Medina, accounting, time recordings - hieroglyphs are just background information. 3) Jean-Pierre Guglielmi - L' gyptien hi roglyphique (Assimil, Chennevi res-sur-Marne, 2010 (Collection Sans Peine). Pb., ISBN: 978-2700521108, price: EUR 72.90. CDs only: ISBN: 978-2700530247, price: EUR 54.90.) Basic introduction (self-study) to the script and to some middle Egyptian. 4) Renaud de Spens - Le wed pour apprendre les hi roglyphes gyptiens (Les Belles Lettres, 2nd edition 2020. In 1999, there were 100,000 people in 2017. EUR 27.50) Contains 19 lessons to learn to decipher the most common Egyptian monuments, arranged by difficulties. 5) Collier, Bill Manley - D crypter les hi roglyphes, La m thode (ditions Flammarion, 2004) French translation of the English nevnt ovenfor. 6) Janice Kamrin - Hei roglyphs of Egypt (Herm , 2005. 254 p. ISBN 978-2866654191) French translation of the English book mentioned above. In German 1) Karl-Theodore Zauzich - Hieroglyph ohne Geheimnis. Eine Einf hrung i die alt gyptische Schrift f r Museumsbesucher und gyptentouristen (8th ed., Mainz, 1992. 125 pp.; Kulturgeschichte der Antiken Welt, 6) Quite nice, be it fundamental in nature. In the first part a basic introduction to the writing system (character types etc) and some elementary grammar; in the second part exercises in the form of inscriptions on actual objects (which makes the reader familiar with some common formulas and vocabulary); on the back a short list of royal and divine names and an abbreviated character list. Not for thorough students, very nice for informal students, very nice for informal students (visitors to museums, tourists, children). 2) Hartwig Altenn Iler, Einf hrung i die gyptische Schrift (2nd fox, ed., Buske Verlag, Hamburg, 2010. Pb., X, 195 pp., evils. ISBN 978-3-87548-535-6, price: EUR 22.90) (some sample pages on URL) Solid introduction to hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, uth reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, with reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley - Hieroglyphic scripts, With reading exercises. 3) Collier, Bill Manley approx. 200 p. ISBN: 3426664259, price: DEM 44.90) For the English original, see above. 4) Hilary Wilson - Hieroglyfen lesen (Deutscher Taschenbuch Verlag, Muenchen, 1999, dtv 30732), pbk., DM 19.90; ISBN 3-423-30732-3) German translation by Understanding Hieroglyphs, London, 1993, see above. 5) Christian Jacq - Die Welt der Hieroglyfen (Berlin, 1999. 272 pp.) See the French original above. 6) Michael H veler-M ller - Hieroglyfen lesen und schreiben. In 24 einfachen Schritten (C.H. Beck, 2014. Pb, 256 pp. ISBN 978-3-406-66674-2) In Dutch 1) Collier, Bill Manley - Hey rogliefen ontcijferen en lezen: een stap-voor-stap leerboek voor zelfstudie. (Amsterdam, 2000, Bulaaq. [Olaf Kaper, translator]) Translation of the English original, see above. 2) Huub Pragt - Hi rogliefen, het schrift ontcijferd (Nederlandsche Uitgeversmaatschappij BV, 2001; ISBN: 90 6110 180 8, 78 pags., A4+, ge llustreerd i zwart wit, Euro 15.95) Original work in Dutch, written by an Egyptologist, who in 8 chapters explains the principles of hieroglyphic writing, with examples and excercises in the form of texts from RMO Leiden. (See the author's website.) 3) Karl-Theodore Zauzich - Hello rogliefen Lezen: Een handle voor museumbezoekers en Egypte reizigers (Meulenhoff, 1982; 121pp; ISBN 90-290-9563-6) Translation of Hieroglyph ohne Geheimnis, see above. 4) Maria Carmen Betr - Hello rogliefen: De beeldtaal van het oude Egypte, met verklaring an achtergrond van meer dan 580 tekens (Tirion, 1999; 251 pp; ISBN 90-5121-8478) Translation of Geroglifici, see the Italian original below. 5) W. Davies - Egyptische Hei roglyfen (Houten, 1990) Translation of Egyptian Hieroglyphics, see In Italian 1) Maria Carmela Betr - Geroglifici: 580 segni per capire l'antico Egitto (3. Edition, 1998; publisher: Mondadori, Milan; 251 pp.; price: 45000 L; ISBN 88-04-40389-6) A very fine book, well illustrated, describes 580 of the glyphs in the Gardiner Sign List, talking about related ancient Egyptian life, flora, fauna and tools. After glyph representation (and images with related Egyptian art examples), some hieratic and demotic handwritings are displayed, from different periods. 2) A. Roccati - Elementi di lingua egizia (3rd ed., Milan, 1985. 40 pp.) I don't know if this is about glyphs or grammar. 3) Christian Sturtewagen - Geroglifici svelati (Sas Effelle, Rome, 1987; 158 pp.) On a fairly elementary level. 3) Sergio Pernigotti - Leggers in gereoglifici (Graffis, 1988; printed: La Mandragora, 2002; 208 pages; 50 euros; ISBN 88-8081-018-9) The purpose is something similar to Collier / Manleys How to read Egyptian hieroglyphics. 4) Christian Jacg - II segreto dei gereoglifici - Come entrare nel magico mondo degli antichi Egizi (Piemme, 1995; printed 1998 (bound); 287 pages; 16,90 Euro; ISBN 883846989X) Italian translation of Le petit Champollion illustr . 5) Alberto Elli - Guida ai geroglifici (A. Vallardi, 3rd edition, 1999 (paperback); 272 pages; 6.71 euros; In 1999, 100,000 people were booked in 1993. A very short grammar, with a section dedicated to some AE texts with translation. In principle, only grammars that have appeared since 1990 have been listed below. The theories of H.J. Polotsky grammars outdated in relation to their treatment of the verbal system. In English 1) Sir Alan Gardiner - Egyptian grammar; To be an introduction to the study of hieroglyphics (Oxford University Press, third revised edition 1957, press up 1979; A& amp; P printing 1994; 646 pages; In 1999, 100,000 people were released in Norway. ca. GBP26) The classic grammar; complete but in several ways outdated (especially on the verbal system: pre-Polotsky) and not really too friendly for self-instruction, so best avoided or used only as a companion to one of the modern grammars listed below. By its size, exercises, Sign List and vocabulary lists still useful. A key to the first eight exercises can be found on the Griffith Institute website. Mark-Jan Nederhof finds a more complete set of Gardiner's training keys. Some hints and tips for working on this grammar also appeared on the (archived) AEL website, compiled by Michael Dyall-Smith. 2) James P. Allen - Middle Egyptian: An Introduction to Language and Culture by Hieroglyphs (Cambridge University Press, 1999; 528 pp) A grammar that appeared October '99, and has been used with much success in university-level teaching Yale University. Using the Not-So-Standard Theory (post-Polotsky) model of the Egyptian verbal system. is important to know that a third, thoroughly revised edition has appeared in 2014, reorganized and with a new analysis of the verbal system! It is written for non-specialists, including people who are not familiar with grammatical terms, so ideal for self-study. It's simply great! On the Website of Mark-Jan Nederhof you will find some clarifications for the exercises (1st edition). 3) James E. Hoch - Middle Egyptian Grammar (SSEA Publication XV, Benben Publications, Mississauga, 1997; 307 pp; about GBP34) A grammar currently used in university-level instruction at the Univeristy of Toronto and some other institutes. Using the Standard Theory (Polotsky) model of the Egyptian verbal system, with some innovations. A partial key to the exercises was given by the book's online author, compiled by Mark-Jan Nederhof on the URL. From the same author: James E. Hoch - Middle Egyptian Grammar Sign List (Benben, 1998; ca. GBP15) 4) Leo Depuydt - Egyptian grammar basics, Part 1: Elements (Frog Publishing, 1999; In 1999, 100,000 people were released. 906 p.; approx. $ 57.62) Textbook grammar and systematic analysis of ancient Egyptian, displayed January 2000, for teaching, self-teaching, reference. Like this part 1, it is not yet a complete grammar, and not everyone will like its highly structured layout. A review of the book can be found on Mark-Jan Nederhof's website. 5) Boyo G. Ockinga - A concise grammar of the middle Egyptian. An overview of the middle Egyptian grammar of Hellmut Brunner revised (Mainz, Philip Von Zabern, 1998). (2nd edition, 2005) An revision of Brunners An Outline of Middle Egyptian Grammar (1979), which was very concise (122 pages) and not intended for self-instruction (although IMHO due to its table-like layout, a fine has next to the more extensive grammars). This revision is still quite concise (177 pages), which can be a problem for self-study, but it has a good set of exercises. A key for Ockinga's exercises can be found on mark-jan nederhoff's side. 6) Gertie Englund - Middle Egyptian: An introduction (first edition, Uppsala University, 1988; second edition, Uppsala University, 1995; In 1999, 100,000 people were released in Norway. approx. GBP29) It explains short how-to's of grammar as a short textbook. The pattern is: theme -> use -> some examples. Good introduction, but it has no exercises. It can be a little tricky for a beginner, because of its pocketgrammar style, but informative if you already know any Egyptian. It follows the Polotskian Standard Theory model (at least in the first edition of 1988, do not know about the second). 7) J. F. Borghouts - Egyptian. An introduction to Middle Kingdom writing and language. Volume I: Grammar, syntax, and indexes; Volume II: Character Trims, Exercises and (NINO, Leiden: 2010; vol. IN: XXXII, 581; Vol. II: VII, 482 pp. softcover; In 1999, 100 000 people were discharged in 2018. VAT/handling on NINO) Translation of simply excellent Dutch grammar mentioned below, but fully revised, updated and enlarged (with many more pages). It is a comprehensive teaching grammar. The same author has published a reference grammar: J. F. Borghouts - Hierogram: A Reference Grammar of Middle Egyptian With Reading Texts (Brill Publishers, 2016. HB, 750 pp. ISBN 978-9004117679) 8) Claude Obsomer, Sylvie Favre-Briant - Hieroglyph Egyptian. A practical grammar of the middle Egyptian. (Safran Publishers, 2016. 384 p. ISBN 978-2-87457-084-1. EUR 45.00) This is the English version of the second edition of grammaire pratique du Moyen Egyptian (Eisenbraun, 2018. HB, 864 p. ISBN 978-1-57506-977-7. $89.95) 10) Gabor Toth - Introduction to Middle Egyptian Grammar through Ancient Writings (Linus Learning, 2013; 382 pp., ISBN 978-1-60797-353-9) Teaches grammar to beginners based on inscriptions on objects from museums around the world. 11) H. Smith - Middle Egyptian. Introduction to the ancient Egyptian language and script (London 1994) 12) J.B. Callender. In the middle of Egypt. (Undena Publications, Malibu, 1975) 13) Antonio Loprieno - Ancient Egyptian: A Linguistic Introduction (CUP, 1995; 322pp; ISBN 0-521-44849-2) Listed here as it comes up often and is often incorrect for a grammar. It is NOT a teaching grammar and not suitable for beginners. It is a though read, as it is basically written for linguists. It is very thorough though, also covers other stages of the Egyptian language plus vocalization. So much material can hardly be found anywhere else in a single (not expensive) volume, so any more advanced student seriously studying the language should try to read it through. Essentials are not emphasized, but it is extensive and has very good indices. 14) James Grammars DO NOT fit 'after 1990' criterium, but mentioned here that they are still in print or are available digitized: -- S. Mercer - Egyptian Grammar. With table of characters, bibliography, reading and dictionary exercises (London / Edinburgh, 1894. XIV, 201, 70* pp. (p. 177-201 [part of the table of characters, bibliography], 1*-16* [some reading exercises] are missing)). English translation by James H. Breasted of Adolf Erman, gyptische Grammatik, Berlin, 1894) (online at URL) - G nther R der - Short Egyptian Grammar (1920). Translated from the German by Samuel Mercer (online at URL) No, do not buy grammar - it is obsolete. In French 1) Pierre Grandet and Bernard Mathieu - Cours Cours hieroglyphique (2 vols. 1990, Kheops Press, Paris; second revised edition 1997, 845 pp.) The most up-to-date teaching grammar in French. Clear and practical style, without much theory. With exercises, vocabulary and character list. 2) Michel Malaise and Jean Winand - Grammaire raisonnee de l'egyptien classique (Centre informatique de philosophie et lettres, Liege, 1999 ; Aegyptiaca Leodiensia, 6; 866 p.) Please note that this is a reference grammar and NOT a teaching grammar for beginners. As such, it has no exercices or progression in difficulties, and is very expensive. But very up to date and complete, with many examples. It is easy to find information in it; in some cases, the author suggests a clear summary of the difficult points. References are given at the end of each chapter to relevant articles and books (unfortunately not given separately for each point). 3) Bernadette Menu - Petite Grammaire de l'egyptien hieroglyphique a l'usage des d butants (Geuthner, 1991; revised edition: Paris, 1993. 202 pp.) Form a set of two other books by the same author: Exercices corriges de la 'Petite grammaire de l'egyptien hieroglyphique a l'usage des debutants' (Geuthner, 1993; 150 pp) and Petite Lexique de l'Egyptien hieroglyphique a l'usage des debutants (Geuthner, 1997). As indicated by the title, it is aimed only at beginners; quite simple and also not very up to date as it is based on Curtains. 4) Claude Obsomer - Egyptien hei roglyphique. Grammaire pratique du moyen gyptien (Editions Safran, 2009) Consisting of a grammar book, a training booklet and a DVD. (URL information, URL and URL) The DVD contains 800 hieroglyphics, 10,000 photographs, 2,300 words and 200 pages of exercises. When it comes to content, it addresses grammar, vocabulary, writing and translation of texts of the classical Egyptian language. For each hieroglyph, an animation is displayed, illustrating how to easily reproduce it. 5) Jean-Cluade Goyon - Grammaire de l' gyptien hei roglyphique. Du Moyen Empire (dition ACV Lyon, 2007, 311 pp., ISBN 978-29133108) 6) Jean-Pierre Guglielmi - L' gyptien hi roglyphique (Assimi, 2010. ISBN 9782700505917) Un livre de 101 le wed en 864 pages (..) determined e aux autodidactes. Available with 4 CDs. 7) Daniel Benoit - Cours progressif d gyptien classique hi roglyphique (Association Thot, 2 volumes) (info) 8) Some older (pre-Polotsky) grammars DO NOT fit 'after 1990' criterium, but mentioned here as they are still in print or available online: G. Lefebvre - Grammaire de l' gyptien Classique (El Cairo 1955; second oath. IFAOC reprint 1990; 471 pp.; ca. GBP39) P. Du Bourguet - Grammaire gyptienne : Moyen Empire Pharaonique (Peeters, Lovaina, 1980; ca. GBP28). A. De Buck - Grammaire Elementaire du Moyen gyptien (translated by B. van de Walle and J. Vergote) many reprints) reprints) Lesquier -Grammaire gyptienne d'apr s la troisi me dition de la grammaire d'Adolf Erman (1914) (available online at URL) In German 1) Wolfgang Schenkel - T binger Einf hrung i die klassisch- gyptische Sprache und Schrift (1992, 2nd edition, 302 pp.; revised version: T bingen, 1997, 368 pp.) The 1992 oath. have discussions about Polotsky theories, the 1997 oath. is the first grammar in post-Standard Theory. No character list or exercises. Note that it is this complement: Roberto A. D az Hern ndez - M nchner bungsheft f r die T binger Einf hrung (Verlag-PB, 2019. 256 p. ISBN 9783944207131)(available in print, but also free in Open Access) 2) Erhart Graefe - Mittel yptische Grammatik f r Anf nger (Harrassowitz, Wiesbaden, 1994; 5th Rev. 1997; 259 pp.; ISBN 3-447-03903-5) With exercises and character list; with discussions on the exercises. 3) Claudia Maderna-Sieben - Mittel gyptische Grammatik f r Anf nger. Ein ausf hrliches Kompendium f r den Unterricht. (LIT Verlag, 2016. 304 p. ISBN 978-3-643-13187-4. EUR 34.90) 4) Boyo G. Ockinga - Mittel gyptische Grundgrammatik (Philipp von Zabern, 1998, 181 pp.; second revised edition, 2015) Revised edition of H. Brunner's 'Abriss derel gyptischen Grammatik'. See comments with the English translation above. 5) Claudia Maderna-Sieben - Mittel gyptische Grammatik f r Anf nger. Ein ausf hrliches Kompendium f r den Unterricht. (LIT Verlag, 2016. 304 p. ISBN 978-3-643-13187-4. EUR 34.90) 6) Daniel A. Werning - Digital Einf hrung in die hieroglyphisch- gyptische Schrift und Sprache (Berlin: Humboldt-Universit t zu Berlin, 2018)(available free in Open Access) Digital, partially revised Wiki version of peer reviewed Open PDF Publication Daniel A. Werning. 2015. _Einf hrung i die hieroglyphisch- gyptische Schrift und Sprache. Prop deutikum mit Zeichen- und Vokabellektionen, bungen und bungshinweisen_, 3. Verb. Ausg., Berlin: Humboldt-Universit t zu Berlin, DOI . Includes Moodle quizzes for selected exercises. Invites to feedback on individual paragraphs. In Dutch 1) J.F. Borghouts - Een inleiding in de taal en schrift van het Middenrijk (2 volumes) (EOL/Peeters, Leiden/Leuven, 1993; In 1999, 100,000,000 people were released. MVEOL 30) Very comprehensive teaching grammar; Vol. 1 has grammar and syntax (376 pp), vol. 2 has character list and exercises (319 pp). Very thoroughly I think, although I suspect that it can be quite difficult for those who do not have much experience with linguistic terminology (there is no easy read). But very systematic, and IMO very easy to find things in. 2) L.M.J. Zonhoven -Middel-Egyptische grammatica. Een practises getting hired in de Egyptische taal van het hieroglyfenschrift. (Leiden, 1992; pp) With approx. 200 pp. grammar, the rest are exercises, character lists etc. From the description of the author I dedist it is aimed at beginners, more or less as a preparation for Gardiner. 3) Harco Willems - Inleiding tot named Middelegyptisch (ACCO, 2005; 141 pp.; In 1978, 100 billion eur 8.65 billion was published as a course book, containing 12 lessons plus exercises. Incorporates Polotsky's theories. In Spanish 1) Francisco J. Martin Valentin - Gramatica Egypicia. Iniciacion a la lengua egipcia clasica escrita en sistema jeorglifico (Madrid, 1999. 267 pp.) 2) Carlos Gracia Zamacona - Manual de Egipcio Medio (Ediciones Cl sicas, 2013. 234 pp. ISBN 84-7882-737-4. 200 EUR; Second revised and updated edition, Archaeopress, 2017. In 2017 it became known that the Church of Norway had a large upswing of the Norwegian, and there is no basis for getting the basis for today. EUR 16) Spanish translation of T binger Einf hrung i die klassisch- gyptische Sprache, mentioned above. In Italian A real great modern grammar still lacks in Italian. Some oldies: 1) Giulio Farina - Grammatica della lingua Egiziona Antica in Caratteri Geroglifici (Hoepli, Milan, second edition, 1925, printed 1992; 213 pages; ISBN 88-203-2005-3) This reprint is still for sale, apparantly not revised? (then outdated / pre-Polotsky) 2) Sergio Donadoni - Appunti di Grammatica Egizia. Con un elenco di segni e di parole (Cisalpino, Varese, 2nd edition, 1963, reprinted 1989; 127 pp.; ISBN 88-205-0457-X) (available as a free download (PDF)) It is the reproduction of handwritten notes (the writing is clearly readable). Unaudited? (then outdated / pre-Polotsky). In Polish 1) Albertyna Szczudlowska-Dembska, Klasyczny jezyk egipski (Warsaw: Wydawnictwo Akademickie Dialog, 2004. 378 pp. ISBN 8388938703) 1) Adolf Erman, Hermann Grapow, W rterbuch der aegyptischen Sprache, vols. I-V (Akademie-Verlag, Berlin, 1971)(courtesy of Leipzig, 1926-1931) (583 pp.; 506 pp.; 506 pp.; 569 pp.; 639 pp. Vol. VI. Deutsch-aegyptisches W rterverzeichnis, Akademie-Verlag, Berlin, 1971. 132 pp. (Index vol., prepared by W. F. Reineke))) (online, in separate pdf files, on URL and URL) The monumental classic ('WB'). [Wondering about copyright, I contacted the employees of Alt gyptisches W rterbuch and they said they will over time put a digital version of W rterbuch on WWW itself that will allow, for example, to click directly on the references (Belegstellen) on each page to navigate from there through the sheets (Zettel) of their archive. So this will be a functionally superior version to only image-digitization of the pages of this Russian site. See the next point. AKE] 2) Thesaurus Linguae Aegyptiae (TLA) A website resource on URL. The W rterbuch there Sprache by Erman and Grapow has now been digitized. The references (Belegstellen) point to the relevant ties of digitized Zettelarchiv (DZA). The search features of the slip archive are fully integrated into the TLA interface. The Lemma list will also show the hieroglyphic form of each word. This online resource has recently been updated (temple inscriptions in the Greco-Roman period are now part of the text database due to the cooperation with the University of Leuven) and the database now consists of more than 440,000 words of all stages of the language. Registration is required for the use of TLA. 3) Rainer Hannig - Grosses Handw rterbuch gyptisch-Deutsch. Die Sprache der Pharaonen, 2800 - 960 v. Chr. (Philipp von Zabern, 1995; 2nd edition 1997, 1473 pp.; In 1999, there were 100,000 people in Norway, and in 1999 there were 100,000 people in Norway, and in 1999 there were 100,000 people in Norway, and in 1999 there were 100,000 people in Norway. This 'HWB' covers the language from the ancient kingdom to 500 f.Kr., so you can use it in late period and Ramesside texts. However, there are also two serious deficiencies in this dictionary. First, it does not mention the modern bibliographic sources he draws on. In the first place, his source of course is WB; but he contains many new words, meanings and translations that are not in WB, but were borrowed from the work page done by others, without these authors being credited (not even in a footnote). A notable example of this is his loan from Meeks' ALEX (see section 5 below). In 2006, a reprint appeared, namely the fourth revised edition, with around 4,000 new entries and many other revisions, plus (new!) a short reference grammar of Middle Egyptian: Rainer Hannig - Die Sprache der Pharaonen. Gro es Handw rterbuch gyptisch-Deutsch (2800 bis 950 v. Chr.), (4th rev. ed., Zabern Verlag, Mainz, 2006 (= Hannig-Lexica, 1). Bound, XLIV, 1474 p., 21 maps. ISBN: 3-8053-1771-9, price: EUR 65.50). The same author has published: Rainer Hannig, Petra Vomberg - Wortschatz der Pharaonen in the Sachgruppen (Mainz, 1999. 1029 pp.) (= Hannig-Lexica, 2)) Rainer Hannig - Die Sprache der Pharaonen. Grosses Handwoerterbuch Deutsch - Aegyptisch (2800 - 950 v.Chr.) (Verlag Philipp von Zabern, Mainz, 2000 (= Hannig-Lexica; 3). XXII, 1753 pp. ISBN 3-8053-2609-2) Rainer Hannig - gyptisches W rterbuch, vol. I. Altes Reich und Erste Zwischenzeit (Verlag Philipp von Zabern, Mainz, 2003 (= Hannig-Lexica; 3). In 2009, there were 154 100 000 people in Norway, and in 1992 there were 100 000 people in Norway. Norway. - A concise dictionary of the middle of Egypt' (Oxford University Press, 1962, reprint 1996; 343 pp; ISBN 0-900416-32-7) A classic with handwritten hieroglyphics, good and not expensive, so usually the first purchase for a beginner. You can't do without it - but Faulkner only covers the middle of the Egyptian. It's Marc Line's Hieroglyphic Index to Faulkner's Dictionary to help you find characters. The key provides an indication of which parts of the dictionary should be searched to find a word that begins with a specific glyph. For example, if we have what we suspect to be a word beginning with M4 (palm branch with notches), the key tells us that we should begin the search in r, H and s parts of the dictionary, as that's where we can find words beginning with M4. 5) Dimitri Meeks - Annee lexicographyque, Egypte ancienne (3 vol.; 1980-1982; now courtesy of Librairie Cybele; Vol 1 (xxiii+ 457 p.) = ISBN 2-9512092-1-5; Vol 2 (xv+ 450 p.) = ISBN 2-9512092-2-3; Vol 3 (xiv+351 p.) = ISBN 2-9512092-3-1) For a complete description of this important work for the professional and online project connected to it, see FAQ2.
