Buy Iced Tea Sign up & get 10% off your first purchase If you're looking for a healthy alternative to a morning cup of coffee, an afternoon pick me up or a calming drink before going to bed, tea is usually the best option. It has been proven to offer a number of health and wellness benefits, from a reduced risk of heart attack to potential weight loss. Tea is low to nonexistent levels of caffeine will prevent jitters as well as help ensure your body stays hydrated throughout the day. Certain companies, like Teavana, have created tea-making products alongside their delicious tea - for example, Teavana PerfectTea Maker. Teavana PerfectTea Maker is user friendly, compact and makes the perfect cup of delicious tea in no time. Similar to the French press, this tea-like tea press pulls out the essence of tea leaves and cooks the best tea while taking up very little space in your kitchen. Best of all, it is very easy to use. Gather equipment and tea materials Teavana is recognized for its unique tea flavors, such as Tropical Beach Bellini to Peach Tranquility and Spicy Imperial Chai. While you can easily buy these teas from Teavana and make them yourself at home, Teavana PerfectTea Maker, also known as Teavana tea infuser, will help you make the best possible version of that tea. In addition to loose-leaf tea and Teavana PerfectTea Maker, you'll also need: Pot or electric kettle to cook water Measuring spoons Drink cup Measure tea and add it to the teapot The first step is to measure 2 tablespoons of loose leaf tea of your choice and put it in Teavana PerfectTea Maker. To ensure even spoons, consider using a spoonful of Teavana PerfectTea, although each measuring spoon will work. With this amount, you'll get up to 16 ounces. Make sure the tea maker is on a flat surface during the Process. Boil enough water for tea Boil 16 ounces or 2 cups of water on top of the stove or in an electric teapot. This is the ideal amount, because so much will give 2 tablespoons of loose leaf tea. When ready, fill the device with boiling water, just short of the top of the glass. Take care while transferring water to prevent burns or injuries. Steep tea Close the lid of Teavana PerfectTea Maker and let the tea steep or drattle into boiling water. This allows the taste of tea to really spread into the water. Do this for approximately three to eight minutes, depending on the type of tea. The longer you let the tea steep, the stronger the taste will be. Serve tea Now that your tea is ready, get a cup. Unlike regular teapots where you would pour tea into a cup, Teavana PerfectTea Maker requires you to place the device directly on top of the cup. Pick up Teavana PerfectTea Coffee by handle off your coaster and put it on top of your cup. After the button at the bottom of the device touches the edge of the cup, it will automatically release the tea directly into it. Lift the device when the cup is full to stop the flow of tea, similar to pushing on the water handle to get water from a gallon of jug. Cleaning Teavana PerfectTea Maker If you want to keep your Teavana tea maker in good condition, you'll need to clean it well. When you are done serving tea, remove the remaining loose leaf tea from the appliance and wash the appliance thoroughly after use with soap and water. For complete cleaning, remove the filter and wash it separately. You can wash this appliance manually or in a dishwasher. Keep in mind that tea leaves can also be composted. composted.
