Even if they're doing homeschooling or virtual learning this fall, it's still important that every well-equipped student has a successful school year. If you're starting from scratch or sorting through provisioning in the past year, use these checklists, broken by classes from – elementary to college - as a guide. If you really want a stress-free summer, print out the list that fills your needs and brings it with you to the store, so you can get in and get out fast. Or, make your school shopping online – feathers, throats, mini refrigerators, and more – so you can enjoy your final day of the season. Just getting started?
