I probably enjoyed the experience. But travel planning is going to Disney as an adult in charge of — where it is — where Can still return to the same park at any time on the day of your trip. Why is We ate breakfast before we left our hotel but decided to buy lunch at Magic Kingdom. Big mistake. It took about an hour to get four cheeseburgers from a fast food window in yesterday because literally, everyone else in the park wanted to eat lunch at the same time. Smart people were using food to sneak on the busiest ride with shorter waiting times. You can bring snacks and other foods to the park that don't require heating and I'll definitely do it next time. Not only will it save money, it will also allow us to skip a few lines while the rest of the crowd are lining up for their deep-fried turkeys. View this post on Instagram A post shared by Josh Roberts (@joshwritest) 10. Look for disney world discounts it's expensive to visit a Disney park. Let me re-phrase that: It's expensive to visit a Disney park: around $100 per person per day, and it becomes even more expensive on peak days and during peak seasons (sometimes referred to as seasonal pricing or surge pricing). Whatever you call it, the takeaway is that the happiest place on Earth is also one of the most expensive places on Earth to bring to a family. Disney offers military discounts, multi-day passes (the more days you live, the less you pay on a per-day basis), and other money saving opportunities like Florida resident discounts. But the real savings come from discounted passes, which you can buy from authorized vendors such as mouse savers and undercover campers. Give them a look before booking directly with Disney. Josh Roberts seems more at home in hiking shoes than a theme park, but he was pleasantly surprised by how much he enjoyed Disney World. Follow him on Twitter @joshwritestYA and Instagram @jauntist.
