Welcome to 2020 all! This year some new sections have been added, the biggest is the new Secrets section at the end! Two different fansites have also increased their game this year, as vulkk.com (by Vulkk) and mmobits.com (by Xam Xam) have contributed tons of guides this year especially for 6.0! Very good work, even as a veterinarian I have noticed some things here that I have postponed. If you were looking for more content for the Secrets section please feel free to use my youtube video which shows how to get to the bottom of the planet's surface CZ-198 so you can freely explore this unique section of the unused map. Link - LadyAdmiral 01.08.2020 , 10:58 AM ? #42 thank you! Video guides are definitely allowed. Added to the cheating section. The Battle for lokath Damage Overload map is in: linked to my Cosmetic Guide place (the cosmetic guide is also properly linked below it). Thank you! Copy Paste Error now has the correct link. Hello, I have gathered a series of Videos - for our Guild - - the person who is starting to play for the first time. They were made with the premise I convinced my friend to play and I'm going to help them get out on the ground running. Or in other words, a guild member convinces a person to play and all the member has to do is point their friend at this YouTube playlist to get them up and running without the guild member having to make a big investment. I know you also have a new player video, I think these complement each other and don't compete. Oh, this is a very good playlist! I'm going to mark it for now until I can see it and find out better where every video on the list goes. Just a note, I'm happily putting each and every guide here, I'm not worried about whether or not they compete very good work, even as a veterinarian I've noticed some things here that I've postponed. If you were looking for more content for the Secrets section please feel free to use my youtube video which shows how to get to the bottom of the planet's surface CZ-198 so you can freely explore this unique section of the unused map. Link - Nice! I've added a new section to the list of secrets called Exploration for it. XBarbarian 02.07.2020 , 09:54 AM #46 incredible discipline and effort. Thanks a lot! ShosharaAnnnw 02.07.2020 , 02:53 PM #47 for compiling this list, it is really useful. Merlyn is working on updated class and operations guides for 6.0. They are really quite surprising and clearly there is a lot of work and dedication put into them. It has Dxun and some other operations completed and is adding more regularly. Your site would be a very good addition to the guide guide. Thank you! --Shoshara Trindok 02.10.2020 , 02:45 AM #48 Hey, first of all, great job! It really helped me get back into the game after a 3-year hiatus xD I just wanted to let you know, that the New Player's Guide - everything I wanted to know about SWTOR but I was afraid to ask Link looks like somethinghwat broken down/down and links me to advertising and stuff. Vytelus 02.18.2020 , 08:15 PM #49 thank you very much for collecting this! I'm going back to the game after five years and a lot has changed. This is going to help a lot. LadyAdmiral 02.21.2020 , 12:21 PM #50 huge update for class guides in vulkk.com, mmobits.com, Merlyn site and Knin Guide! Page 6 Warphoenix 03.03.2020 , 09:05 AM #51 Amazing! It must have taken a lot of time and effort to compile all this, I just got back to the game after a few years and this thread and its vines are very useful and informative, thank you Swtorista for all your information and content !! Drath-Drakon 04.14.2020 , 05:58 PM #52 East it's incredibly impressive!!! The number of hours of search you would have saved if you had known of its existence before! This is going directly to bookmarks Thank you very much Swtorista for all the time, work and effort that has taken you. It's invaluable help! ^.^ XxZknxx 05.02.2020 , 03:45 AM #53 Thank you !!!!! Amazing job!! Most guides are several years old and not always up to date, but man. Once again.. Thank you!!!! At least some of the links in the first post that serves as a ToC to other posts in the thread are using relative page numbers (see 2#edit9811165 for operations) that won't work correctly when a forum reader has their posts per page set to something other than what the OP had when it wrote that post. Changing bindings to point directly at individual messages works correctly for everyone (for the previous operations element, that link would be amp;amp;postcount=12) 2. Some of the links go to Dully's website which is now offline. In the short term, they can be updated to point to the copy of the Dully site's Internet file. In the long run, you need to find an alternative. Great idea and phenomenal effort, by the way. Update: Dully has done it again.
