See more awards » Learn more Edit an alien couple known as Beldar and Prymatt with cone-shaped heads of the planet called Remulak are wrongly ditched on Earth, during a scouting mission for planet conquest. While they are here, they dodge the INS, have a child and discover that life on earth is very good. But unfortunately, they are being chased by the government who know something isn't quite right with the Conehead family. After being rescued and taken back to their planet, Beldar promises to return to Earth and conquer it. She was cast as Connie age three, so she could get her own cone. 162 of 166 found this interesting Interesting? | Sharing it The French representatives of UIP took great exception to the Biases disguising their extra-terresnate origins by passing themselves off as French, and insisted that all such mentions be removed from the dialogue. This question was dismissed. 100 of 104 found this interesting Interesting? | Sharing it The shining card with the alien symbols on it that finds Michael McKean's character in the Coneheads' trailer is a diagram showing the escape routes out of a Conehead Craft in the event of an emergency landing. 77 of 81 found this interesting Interesting? | Share it When Jane Curtain lies in the hotel bed laughing, the book she reads is a Gideon's placed Holy Bible. The section she reads are the Book of Revelations about the end of the world. Knowing how this really would happen — a Conehead invasion — the strange beings described in the Bible would be hilarious. 44 of 46 found this interesting Interesting? | Share this Jan Hooks image Gladys, a human fascinated with Beldar, a stranger. Hooks depicted Vicki Dubcek, a woman fascinated with Harry Solomon, a stranger, in 3rd Rock of the Sun (1996), who is also Jane Curtin. 27 of 29 found this interesting Interesting? | Part this Whip Hubley, which is credited only as F-16 pilot, is better known to audiences than Hollywood, one of the F-14 Tomcat pilots of Top Gun (1986). 23 of 25 found this interesting Interesting? | Share it The intricate homemade photography apparatus Beldar used at the end of the movie was built around a Polaroid Model 95 Land Camera. It was launched in 1948 and was the first commercially available instant film camera. 39 of 45 found this interesting Interesting? | Share this When Beldar asks in the motel office, Where can I obtain a helium enting device operable at eight fathoms?, it's a reference to Prymat's frequent despondency that he crashed their spaceship underwater into the Jersey sound and was restoring the ship. 15 of 16 found this interesting Interesting? | Sharing it When Beldar turns on the communications device in his trailer to talk to the planet Remulak, you can hear a recording of President Richard Nixon saying his infamous quote I'm not a crook. Dan Aykroyd often spoofed Nixon while he was Saturday Night Live. 27 of 32 found this interesting Interesting? | Share this The Football Game scene was filmed at High School, New Jersey. In the animated The Coneheads (1983), the couple are ordered to move within twenty miles of the U.N. in New York City. Paramus is well within twenty miles of the U.N. 12 of 18 did this interesting Interesting? | Sharing it The movie's dialogue has examined the full names of Beldar and Prymate axle, You'll investigate Underlord Beldar Corhon and Marlax Zanthstram of Frodoit Fuel Administration, though the script has it as, Fuelling Survey Underlord Beldar Florhone, and Marlax Zehemsto, of Proloid Fuel Administration. 8 of 14 found this interesting Interesting? | Share it This movie is based on a skit from Saturday Night Live (1975). Jason Alexander and Michael Richards appeared on Seinfeld (1989) alongside Julia Louis-Dreyfus, a former cast member of SNL. 16 of 61 found this interesting Interesting? | Sharing it The French dub of the film actually still has the Coneheads speaking French when Seedling tries to catch them out on their claim to be French, but rather than asking if the Coneheads are still speaking French, Saailing asks rather if they have contact with other French people there. The rest of the dialogue is then largely equivalent to the original English soundtrack, but with slightly more natural French dialogue. Is it interesting? Interesting? | Sharing this David Spade character is an INS agent named Eli Turnbull. In the second Coneheads sketch on SNL, Steve Martin plays an IRS agent named Eli Turnbull. Is it interesting? Interesting? | Share it In the very first Coneheads sketch plays Bill Murray Connie's date called Ronnie, who runs a tow truck. In The Coneheads movie, Chris Farley plays Connie's boyfriend named Ronnie, a mechanic. 0 of 2 found this interesting Interesting? | Share this The trivia item below can give away important plot points. Otto tells Beldar that the key to success is to look good, be your own boss, never work at a desk, and take cash only. Later in the movie Beldar fulfills all of this by wearing a nice suit as the owner of his driving school, and he takes his payment in cash. 10 of 11 found this interesting Interesting? | Share it
