Ccr walk on the water

Walk on the Water is the B-side of I Put a Spell On You, the second 45 RPM single John Fogerty, Tom Fogerty, Stu Cook and Doug Clifford recorded as Creedence Clearwater Revival. It also appears on their self-titled debut album. The LP version is a remake of The Golliwog's era song entitled Walking on the Water. The original Water was released as a Scorpio label single in August 1966. It was sung by John Fogerty who also delivered a featured guitar solo on the first recorded version of the song. Most of The Golliwog's era editions were officially credited to John & Tom Fogerty claimed in 1985 that Walk on the Water was written only by him. He said he got the idea for the chord changes from the House of the Rising Sun of animals and the word/melody pattern from Mystic Eyes of them. John Fogerty claimed Tom got the idea from John's song called Tombstone Epitaph (Hank Bordowitz, Bad Moon Rising, 2007). Creedence Clearwater played the song at Deno & Carlo's (later Keystone Korner) in San Francisco every week from February 2 to April 28, 1968. Walk on the Water stayed in the programming of the band until the summer of 1969. The Bay Area quartet also delivered the song at its first gig in New York (Fillmore East) in October 1968. ---Fogerty's first foray into socially conscious writing. Listening to Fogerty's fuzzy guitar skirmishes makes one wonder why he is usually ignored as a prominent guitarist. Doug Simpson, Audiophile Audition, November 9, 2009. It is so simple and has such a fascinating effect in its sound that becomes a favorable among the band's catalog directly. -Antony, Sputnik Music, 3 May 2013. Tom's rhythm guitar during the guitar solo. It's scary, and unlike most other songs they did. previous | next Written by John & Tom Fogerty, Recorded at Coast Recorders, San Francisco, CA, USA in February 1968. Couldn't believe with my own eyesAnd I swear I'll never leave my home again! I saw a man walking on the waterComing straight at me from the other side. Calling out my name; Don't be afraid! Feet start running, pounding in my brainI do not want to go; I don't want to go. No... I do not want to go.Mmmmmmm. Tarde da ultima noite, Eu fui dar uma caminhada.Desci o rio, perto de minha casa. Não poderia acreditar, com meus próprios olhos,E juro que nunca sairei de minha casa novamente. Eu vi um homem ochando na água. Vindo da outra margem direto em minha direção. Chamando meu nome; Não tenha medo. Meus pés começaram à correr; Martelando em meu cérebroEu não quero ir; Eu não quero ir. Não, não, não, nãoEu não quero ir.Mmmmmmm.
