Copyright © 2020 InfoSpace Holdings, LLC, a System1 Company wondering if you and your partner love story are written by the stars, or maybe just completely star crossed? As it turns out, the best zodiac matches for long-term compatibility can be, in fact, both. Sun signals who sit in direct opposition to each other on the zodiac wheel (so six marks apart in the twelve) are called polarity, which means that there can be more different, and therein lies the potential for dynamic compatibility. We caught up with astrologer and relationship expert Colin Bedell to understand why exactly opposites attract and how digging into that playful cliché really reveals a series of astrological truths we all use as tools to promote and strengthen every relationship. While Bedell laughs, saying, We're not buying a loo of bread here, okay darling?, and admits that these contrasting duos need to show up and put to work if they want to work, the ongoing overhaul of opposition balances a powerhouse relationship full of joint growth. Before going into why every polar pairing is ultimately so compatible. Bedell makes a point to share that he is a firm believer in each sign he cherishes the full, lasting love of any other sign. He suggests we can all benefit from learning our opposite sign and then use these insights to see more harmony in every love story we choose to explore. Let's drink to that. Just as striking the match, sparks are bound to fly when fiery Aries and the air sign of Libra. comes together. According to Bedell, if the two of them are willing to appreciate and learn from their differences, they will create an unstoppable flame. Each sign has a planet whose energy affects its behavior, and independent Mars is responsible for the Aries and harmonious Venus ruling Libra, Bedell trusts in this pairing gives each other a balance between autonomy and connection each relationship needs to prosper. While Libra can help Aries become more attentive and involved in the community, he suspects Aries often need to be reminded of libra love, Babe, [it's ok to] take care of you too! Venus-dominated, and a sign of the earth, Taurus is preparing for sharing tactile beauty (think sunset views and the most IG-worthy brunch hangs of your life), while Scorpio, a water sign dominated by transformational Pluto, craves intensity and exploration of what's hiding beneath the surface. As Bedell points out, the contrast here is exactly what makes this particular pairing so juicy and ripe for growth. Scorpio really addresses the reality of pain and joy, he says, and is a wildly loyal companion in taurus hugging all the storms of life [like] rainbows and 400-thread sheets count. Alternatively Infectious joie de vivre from Taurus gives Scorpio permission to step out of the ocean and realize how beautiful it is to just dig your toes in the sand every once in a while. Together, this duo nurtures a durable (and luxe) foundation that can weather anything. Let the freedom ring. The air and fire sign pair, Gemini and Sagittarius all ingredients in a relationship full of fireworks, alien lands, and emotional investigation. What really makes these signals compatible, ironically, is that there is a mutual need for healthy boundaries. Gemini is dominated by Mercury, which is the planet not only for communication, but also for internal evolution. [They] always reinvent and explore new personalities, notes Bedell, and need breathing space for self-discovery. Meanwhile, the adventurous Jupiter-dominated Sagittarius goes outward with a sense of purpose and requires the freedom to explore, get curious, and live in a place of ever-expanding vision. This couple truly understands and celebrates each other's need for ever-expanding horizons, and they are both grateful to have a partner dedicated to the wondering and wandering. The only sign that dominates the moon, emotionally intuitive Cancer may seem like a more than unlikely match logical, Saturn-led Capricorn. However, when this set of signs comes together as lovebirds, it creates the perfect counterweight for gentle flow and reliable structure. Cancer ocean healing energy finds a perfect companion capricorn grounded wisdom. [Because] Capric side, Capricorn appreciates Cancer's generous vulnerability and feels inspired by them to step in and display fuller of [their] feelings. When sun-dominated and fiery Leo joins Aquarius, an otherworldly aerial sign led by innovative Uranus, the entire world is on one stage (and a spaceship). Hello, pair of powers. Bedell says it's the combination, and it's easy to understand why. What most people don't know about Leo, he shares, is that these unique superstars can get a little lonely in the mansion and crave both attention and connection. As a result, Leo can't help but admire how universally adored Aguarius is and goes gaga for this aerial signal's ability to show them a whole new [community and] experience. Alternatively, Aquarius appreciates Leo's audacity [and] unfractionable sense of self-worth as wonderful tools of liberation. Realizing trust is infectious, Aquarius finds purpose in spreading Leo sweetheart's message of self-love. This couple is scary, fabulous, and can inspire us. Remember Belinda Carlisle Heaven is a place on Earth? The Love of the World? This should be the theme song for Virgo and Couple! Bedell believes this duo are unbeatable in their combined ability to heal a sore world, and these signs constantly move and motivate each other's strengths. While Virgo is trained in understanding the intimate relationship between body and nature (i.e. a friend who knows exactly which herbal tea you need to feel better), Pisces instinctively senses how to read the heart. Virgo is the epithelium of Pisces transcendent, spiritual nature, explains Bedell, and Pisces benefits from Virgo's ability to translate and apply divine energy here on earth. This couple hears, helps and lifts everyone (and everything) in their way. Path.
