Customer Reviews – Does NordicTrack ACT Ellipsical really work? The rating of the product online is 91.4/100. Although it has the size convenient for home use, customers report that this center drive elliptical is very robust like those in a health club. At the same time, not all people find it smooth or comfortable. What people like about the device is that it has a quiet magnetic resistance system with 25-pound flywheels; an adjustable step a 10 touch screen for displaying workouts, iFit training and the Internet. It should be remembered that workout videos must be preloaded. Despite these positive properties this NordicTrack ACT Elliptically comes at quite a high price; Kr. Not all potential buyers can afford it. The full price of the product is too high for an elliptical with 25-pound drive. The machine has no slope, which is a major drawback for many users. NordicTrack is associated with a number of negative customer reviews. The company's customers are not satisfied with customer service. A buyer reports that he bought NordicTrack ACT Elliptical three weeks ago and it's already making a terrible clunking noise. It's very hard to roll the pedals. Overall, the man says that the equipment costs too much money for such poor quality. But what's even worse is that it's impossible to get his refund. Another customer reports that after three years of light use, his elliptical machine resistance engine is down! It was very hard to figure out what was wrong. The company's customer service is also very poor and not helpful at all. The man contacted them several times and each time he was told to check for noise in the engine. But they didn't help a little. The third customer that he purchased this product from the manufacturer. He received it a few days ago and has been using it ever since. According to his words, there is nothing special about NordicTrack equipment. It's a waste of money. The man paid for the one-year subscription and regrets having spent his money. He wishes the device was compatible with other websites to download their training programs and use richer capabilities. By the way, the machine thinks that you are exercising if you are just standing on the pedals while browsing workouts. It is often uploaded that you have completed training. You can delete the training from the machine's computer. Due to the very set dashboard on the machine, this customer's wife (5 feet 4 inches tall) has trouble seeing the screen. The screen seems to be too small, too, especially when you need to see maps. You may face problems if you have high-speed Internet, as it takes some time for the screen to update. It's high time to take a look at the actual customer reviews left online. I bought my first elliptical machine in 8/2010. I had been using it for many years and was satisfied with its quality and easy maintenance. When I needed another machine, I stopped my selection at NordicTrack ACT Elliptical. After very easy use over two years, it works really badly and needs a new eddy mechanism and resistance engine. These parts and labor will cost me more than I paid for the device originally. I am very disappointed and I would never recommend this machine to anyone. If you buy a similar machine, it may be wise to buy the long-term maintenance cover I bought Nordic Track ACT Elliptical less than a year ago and I have faced some problems already. It has to service. My machine has been useless for more two months! I bought the extended warranty and have had three repairers who have ordered more than $1300.00 in parts. But my machine sounds too loud. I'm waiting for another part, but it's back-ordered. I called their customer service and I was told there is nothing they can do. This is the worst experience of buying something online in my life! I regret wasting money on Nordic Track I bought NordicTrack act Elliptical last August and paid extra money for delivery and setup. Its pedals angle to the left and it feels like you are in a right turn, the frame is bent, some screws cut off by installers, and the machine makes pounding noise. I need to call for a repair tech from another state. Besides, he only offers to come on weekends. I can't use the machine for seven months. Buyers beware of NordicTrack ACT Elliptical prices and prices As was already mentioned, machine sales are priced at $1,499. NordicTrack ACT Commercial 10 elliptical warranty includes a two-year warranty for the labour force, a five-year shared warranty and a lifetime warranty for great warranty. The company also offers a 30-day money back guarantee; however, some users report having trouble getting their money back. My Final Summary NordicTrack ACT Elliptical is associated with a variety of disadvantages. First, it does not support slope training. You won't be able to simulate uphill workouts despite the ability to vary your stride and diversify exercise. Another drawback of the machine is its simple handlebar design, which means that the moving arm bars allow only one grip position. If you want to change your workout position, you should choose an elliptical with multi-grip handlebars. NordicTrack ACT Elliptical would be a satisfying choice for home elliptical shoppers who don't train too often as the device seems to have low quality. In fact, the product has a number of better alternatives available on the market. At the moment I cannot recommend NordicTrack ACT Elliptical. 4.4 out of 5 stars 10,441 Visit the help section or contact us
