Getting a library card and borrowing policy We have a whole page dedicated to this! Go there, and if you still have questions, call us at 303-651-8476. Parking There is a two-hour surface and street parking on the east, west and north sides of the library. A small number of two-hour underground parking spaces are available in the public parking lot, located under the library and accessible from Emery St. on the east side of the library. Lost and abandoned items Library has a lost and abandoned area of objects located on the security desk. If we can identify the owner of a lost or abandoned item (such as a wallet, keys, etc.), we will contact the patron and keep the item for them in the security service. Unknown items are stored for 30 days and then donated to local shelters. In accordance with the city's policy of regulating the conduct of institutions, the Library is required to maintain a current list of all items that have been abandoned or found on the library grounds. See the Library's current list of lost and abandoned items. The Annual Reports Library Advisory Board publishes an annual report each year. Reports of some of them Years are available below. COVID-19 Library Updates November 17 Starting Thursday, November 19: The library building will be closed to the public due to public health problems from the COVID-19 virus. Curbside Delivery will be available. Please see the tab on this page immediately below for more information. Library hours for Curbside Delivery will be Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 10am to 4pm, and Wednesday from 1pm to 7pm. Very limited access to a public computer will only be available by appointment. See the details and make a reservation here. The drops of the library book will remain open. Please put all returned items in book drops; Don't leave on the Curbside Delivery table. Digital library cards are available for those who want to access online services but do not currently have a library card. More information can be found below. Remote printing is available. Patrons can send items for printing in the library from any device and pick them up later through Curbside Delivery. Do you have to pay library fines? No problem. You can do it online or by mail. Staff will continue to stay in the building during business hours, answering phones and collecting materials for visitors. Do you have a question or do you need help with a library card or account? Email us or call (303) 651-8476. Need the librarian's help with something? Email us or call (303) 651-8472. Online programming will continue through Webex. See the details on our children, teens and adult programs. Looking for holiday gifts? Shop Friends of the Darmont Library gift shop online and make a gift to the library by giving a gift to your loved ones! The library continues to take numerous precautions to protect visitors and staff including: quarantine of all returned materials for three days before replacing them on shelves; Cleaning high touch surfaces more often; Use protective shields where appropriate; and ask staff and visitors to stay at home when sick. Sign up for an ONLINE restricted library card! If you don't have a library bill and would like to get a library card, you can register online for limited use of the library card. Here's what you need to know: You need to be 16 years old or older to sign up for a library card yourself; parents can register children under the age of 16. You will be asked to provide a valid image ID such as: government issued driver's license or ID card, passport, or Ministry of Defense ID card or Matr'cula consular. The digital map will give you access to almost everything in our library catalog, as well as our digital services for e-books, electronic magazines, language services, research services and entertainment, including the New York Times, Libby/Overdrive, RB Digital, Consumer Reports, Acorn TV and Pronunciator. A digital card cannot be used to reserve Discovery passes. If you already have a library card, you don't need a limited library card. To get a limited library card: click below and follow the instructions. You will receive an email asking you to scan and send your photo ID to us via email. As soon as we receive your information, you will receive a limited use card number and will be able to check out and or place three items on hold. The Boulder County District Attorney's Office disseminates information about some criminals who enjoy the anxiety and fear of people associated with COVID-19. See the information flyer in English or Spanish. Now connectivity is more important than ever. Longmont municipal broadband/internet provider is here to help those who can't afford internet services. See the ad on your web page. Our local businesses and restaurants need our support. Take a look at the Longmont Cameras Take Out Takeover page for a list of local restaurants that still serve.
