Becky CluneLetter(s)Nate PiekosColorist(s)Dan Jackson Editor(s)Sierra Hahn The Real Life of the Wonderful Killjoys is the 2013 comic book limited series written by Gerard Way and Sean Simon, Illustrated by Becky Cloonan and published by Dark Horse Comics. The series serves as a follow-up to my Chemical Days album Dangerous Days: The Real Life of the Wonderful Silks, which focuses on the followers of the original silks as they try to fight against the tyrannical incorporation of better living industries. [1] Synopsis following the first battle that took place during the days of danger: the real lives of the wonderful curse of joys, the group's followers kept the desert while better living industries continued to strip citizens of their privacy. [2] Only the girl, the sole survivor of the original Kiljoy, can help provoke the battle or join the masses in their mindlessness. Gerard Development first announced the project, it will be co-written with Sean Simon, in 2009 San Diego Comic-Con[3] and in 2012 New York Comic Con stated that artist Becky Cloonan will produce the graphics. He noted that the comic will serve as the last part of the story, because he won't be as crazy as what people will expect. On the way they also described the story as a story of maturity about a young girl and nothing more would be in the choice of her own way. On July 21, 2020, Way announced that the original comic idea would be created in a new series called The Real Life of Wonderful Experience: The National Anthem. Release Date Sheet Name #1 Release Schedule -- Which Clears You Tonight June 12, 2013[7] #2 -- Ghost Stations July 10, 2013[8] Issue #3 -- Blind or Lightning Teenage 14 August 2013 #4 -- Run! 11 September 2013 #5 -- Wake up the destruction! October 30, 2013 [9] #6 -- Boom! On January 1, 2014, Gerard announced a six-issue sequel to the series titled The Real Life of Wonderful Killings: The National Anthem that will examine the origins of the members. On October 14, 2020, the first offering in the series was released. Collected editions on May 7, 2014, two separate editions collected of themes 1 through 6, as well as dead satellites one shot from Free Comics Day 2013, became available online through things from another world. The story is a continuation of the album Danger Days by My Chemical Romance although the sequel is sparse. I recommend starting with The first comic book, Umbrella Academy, and get it only if you like it so much you're ready for something of uneven quality: it starts really hard and ends weakly. In the middle of it becomes more and more strange. © 1996-2014, Amazon.com, Inc. or its partners years ago, Killjoys fought against authoritarian megacorporation and better living industries, costing them their lives, except for one - the mysterious girl.
