Openstax american government study guide

(Comparative political slides are here) Held in the order of chapters in the American Government (OpenStax), 2017-18 syllabus Chapter 1: Participation of American Government and Citizens (2-page printable PDF per sheet) Chapter 2: Constitution (2 printed PDF pages per sheet) Chapter 3: Federation (2 printable PDF pages per sheet) Chapter 4: Civil Liberties (2 printed PDFs per sheet) Chapter 5: Civil Rights (2 printable PDF pages per sheet) Chapter 6: Public Comments (2 printable PDFs per sheet) Chapter 8: Media (2 pages of printable PDF per sheet) Chapter 7: Voting and Elections (2 printed PDFs per sheet) Chapter 9: Political Parties (2 printed PDFs per sheet) Chapter 10: Interest groups (2 printable PDF pages per sheet) Chapter 11: Congress (2 printed PDFs per sheet) Chapter 12: Presidential Parties (2 printed PDFs per sheet) Chapter 13: Judiciary/ Court (2 printed PDF pages per sheet) Lesson 15: Bureaucracy (two printable PDFs per sheet) Using slides, you'll need one of the following browsers to view these slides with subtitles: Subtitles start on the second slide Useful shortcuts: Next slide: Cursor to right or space (if the sound is playing, you'll need to pause). Jump around the slide: Press Escape. Press Enter to zoom to the slide. Show in full screen: Press 'F' link to steal these slides (save the following for teachers or other teachers who want to use these slides in their course). These slides are not linked to specific textbooks, but there are bits and pieces from various texts based on my experience of teaching the American government since 2000, changing the order to fit the presentation sequence you want should not be a problem. The only real hypothesis is that the Constitution and the Federation are against the beginning of the semester and public policy at the end (I've never seen a book that isn't structured like that, so it may not be a real problem in practice). As mentioned at the end of each slide, these slides are allowed under the creative commons attribution/share license alike. Anyone can freely use, distribute, and modify slides per license. A copy of the data source for these slides is hosted by Github, so I guess you'll want to rescord it yourself. I recommend high-quality USB microphones such as Blue Yeti, Blue Nessie or Samson Go Mic, I record audio using Yeti and Go Mic with guts, although many other recording software should work equally well. Presentation frame: .js by Hakim El Hattab, a local hack to sync audio with narration: subtitles .js (subtitle links to different parts of the slide), then the audio is converted to an Ogg Opus file using the opus tool with low quality MP3 converted using LAME for Ogg Opus playback is much better and the file size is smaller, but not widely supported in mobile browsers.
