Defense mechanism worksheet answers

Redirecting to Transfer Defense Mechanism Matching Reply Key PDF By Seconds This worksheet urges students to correctly identify which of the eight defence mechanisms best describes each scenario. It is intended to be used as a practice for students to help them inspect and use Freudian defence mechanisms. The defence mechanisms involved are rationalization, reaction formation, repression, regression, eviction, sublimation, denial and projection. Here are some sample problems from the worksheet: 1. Elizabeth was sexually abused by her uncle when she was three years old. Twenty years later, when Elizabeth is asked if she has been abused, she answers no, and believes her answer is the truth. 2. Zach feels constantly aggressive throughout the day and struggles to keep his emotions under control. His father suggests he join the football team so he can deal with other players. 3. Halie asks Cayce for help moving to a new apartment. When Cayce refuses, Halie starts running her leg and screaming like a little kid. 4. Robert has a busy day at school, where he is reprimanded by a teacher for not doing his homework. When he goes home, he walks past his brother's room and shouts, Shut up your stupid, annoying music! 5. Whenever Chloe receives a B on the exam, she goes to Gold's Gym and runs down the track for an hour to get angry with her anger. The answer key is on.
