There are situations in life, such as home improvements or planning a wedding, which requires a little extra money. Enter: Personal loans. They may cover only any expense without the packing security. If you bank with Bank of America, you may have gone there first looking for a loan only to find that there are no personal loan options. It's uncomfortable, but it shouldn't stop you from getting the money you need. There are many other lenders out there who can work with you. These are our top three alternatives to Bank of America personal loans. Why doesn't Bank of America offer personal loans? Bank of America is one of many banks that choose not to offer personal loans. Instead, it focuses on mortgages, auto loans much less risky than unsecured personal loans. If the borrower defaults, Bank of America collects the property to help repay the loan. And with credit cards, the interest rate is much higher than personal loans, making it much more cost-effective – even if the risk of default is the same. We chose lenders are either banks or backed by the bank. The range of loan amounts and the duration of the year, as well as interest rate rebates and the flexibility of repayments were also relevant. What's new in 2020? To better meet your needs, we changed our categories so you can compare lenders who are close to playing with Bank of America if you need a personal loan. Below are three viable alternatives to personal lending from Bank of America. We selected these providers based on the different types of loans offered. If you have honestly excellent credit, you may be able to find a loan to suit your unique needs. Best borrowing from the bank: Wells FargoWells Fargo is a popular bank and offers many of the same services as Bank of America. And those personal loan options are an additional bonus. It offers both secured and personal loans at competitive rates. Turnaround time is fast and you may be eligible for a loan of up to $100,000. But you need a good order of excellent credit to qualify. The current with eligible accounts you can receive a 0.5% APR discount. However, if you are not a current customer, you must log in personally to your local branch. Loan amounts: $3,000 to $100,000APRs: 5.99% to 24.49% Loan term: 1 to 7 yearsSapance: Proof that you can repay the loan is 18+ years old and a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Read the reviewBest large loan amounts: LightStreamLigh maximum loan amount. Other benefits include its rate beat program, a hefty 0.5% rate discount on signing up for autopay and possible one-day financing. But, as with Wells Fargo, you are good at getting great credit to qualify. And you can't borrow less than $5,000. It also lacks a customer service number – you'll need to fill out an online form to contact a representative. Credit amounts: $5,000 to $100,000APRs: VariesLoan term: Flexible Eligibility: You must have a good to have a great credit profile and be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident with a valid green card. Best for borrowers with good credit: HSBCHSBC offers personal loans to borrowers with credit scores of 700 or higher – the bottom end of a good credit range. Its rates are limited to 22.99% and its loans are available to residents of all states except Wisconsin. A daily daily turnover is also available. But loans to new customers are limited to $30,000. And although you won't have to make a payment for 50 days, interest starts to accrue immediately. This means that the sooner you make your first payment, the less you will pay for the duration of your loan. Loan amounts: $3,000 to $30,000APRs: 6.99% to 22.99% Loan term: 2 to 5 yearsAtptility: 680+ credit score, U.S. permanent resident (Not a Wisconsin or any U.S. territory resident), aged 18+ - or 19+ Nebraska and Alabama Read the reviewDoes Bank of America offer similar loans? Bank of America may not offer personal loans, but it is secured loans and credit cards for personal use. Credit card. Bank of America has a variety of credit cards that meet different needs, from individuals who want to build their credit to people who want to build their credit to people who want to build their credit to people who want to earn points against travel. With a large credit line, you may be able to finance large expenses without the need for a personal loan. But since credit cards usually have higher APRs, the use of these cards offers 0% intro APRs such as bankamericard credit card and MLB® CreditCard. Home loans. Whether you need a mortgage or a new house, want to refinance your existing mortgage a car loan from Bank of America to purchase a car from a dealership or private seller, redeem a lease or refinance a refinance car loan at a lower rate. You can borrow up to $125,000, and the APRC starts as low as 3.09%. Compare more personal loans may need a tool to handle expensive parts of life. Bank of America may not offer them, but that doesn't mean you don't have options. No matter if you are looking to compare lenders easily, are interested in broader loan terms or want to try out p2p lending, different alternative providers can help you with the funding you need. Visit our guide to personal loans to explore even more lenders, find tips on how to get the best rate on a loan, see steps to apply and more.
