On March 28, 2015, the first of two new King County water taxi vessels, the MV Sally Fox, was dedicated to a ceremony on March 28, 2015 by Dau County Executive Constantine, County Council member Joe McDermott and other luminers. About 350 people joined the celebrations, which included live music and free rides on the new boat. After the public vote, the vessel was named for longtime Vahon resident Sally Willinger Fox, who was a passionate advocate of conservation only for passengers of the ferry service between Vahon Island and downtown Seattle. According to a plaque on the vessel that honors Fox, she understood that passenger-only service enhances islanders' family life, protects the environment, reduces congestion and promotes the health, vibrancy and fun of the islands of Vásjon and Maury. About MV Sally Fox Length: 104 ft. Capacity: 278 Passengers Crew: 1 Captain, 2 Crew Members Service Speed: 28 Knot Builder: All American Maritime Construction Began: March 2014 Vessel Delivered: March 2015 Construction Cost: $6.25 million.
