The idea of clash of clans to make your base as strong as possible with the help of resources is at your disposal. The center of the base is the Town Hall, which is the most important thing you want to protect. During a raid, if city hall fails, you lose a star to the attacker. There are other buildings in the game to use as well, including things like huts, gold mines, elixir mines, cannons, archery towers, and more. Taking advantage of all of these resources, your goal would be to make your base as difficult as possible to attack and to get down.
